C. H. Zurcher went out to La Grande Saturday, to spend Sunday with his wife and children. The baby is quite ill of pneumonia.

Mrs. H. C. Cramer returned Saturday from Wallowa where she had been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Harvey Harris.

For dyspepsia, indigestion and loss of appetite take Levy's Oregon Grape Compound. Sold and guaranteed by Burnaugh & Mayfield, Enterprise, Oregon.

Now is the time to use the special poison, when they are first coming out. Get Strychnine, the kind that kills. Don't be fooled by a cheap and inferior quality. The genuine is for sale by Burnaugh & Mayfield, the druggists.

S. R. Haworth, contractor for the court house, returned to Enterprise Friday. He had been in Portland for several weeks, and like everyone who has visited Oregon's fast growing metropolis lately, thinks it is quite a town, and going to be a bigger one.

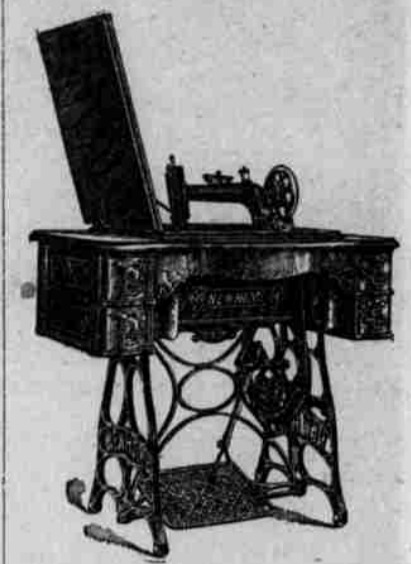

The farewell sermon by Evangelist Jackson Sunday night was heard by all who could get into the church. The sermon "On to Calvary," was illustrated by stereopticon views. Mrs. Jackson sang "The Holy City." At the conclusion of the sermon, four men confessed Christ. The closing service was a genuine love feast, and everyone felt that much good had been accomplished. There have been 37 additions to the church during the revival. Mrs. Jackson preached a fine sermon to a very large audience Tuesday night, and today, Wednesday, Rev. and Mrs. Jackson left for Flora where they will dedicate a church and conduct a series of meetings. From there they go to Portland. The Sunbeam chorus of 125 children were given a treat of candy, pop corn and nuts at the church Friday night. Monday a photograph of the chorus was taken.

A delightful Washington party was given at the home of Mrs. Maggie Bloom, Friday evening, her daughter, Miss Alta Davis, and Miss Victoria Haas being hostesses to a number of friends. The rooms were decorated prettily with the National colors, and an intricate maze of cobwebs which the guests spent a jolly evening in unwinding. The first stop in the labyrinth brought them to the whistling post; here each one was given a dry cracker to eat and a prize was given to the one who could then whistle most melodiously. At the second stop in the tangled web they found red hatchets which gave them partners in a Mother Goose rhyming contest. At the next stop there was an amusing postal card drawing and the fourth pause was a flower game. The final unwinding divulged proverbs cut in two and the matching of these gave partners for a delicious luncheon of sandwiches, chocolate, olives, ice cream and cake. The place cards were pictures of Washington. Those present were: Misses Venus Thomas, Katherine Kay, Joyce Craig, Eunice Bennett, Ella Forsythe, Laura and Victoria Haas, Alta Davis; Messrs. Roger Kay, Harry Thomas, Ira Davis, M. E. Ward and Fred Zumwalt.
