Good Cough Medicine for Children.
The season for coughs and colds is now at hand and too much care cannot be used to protect the children. A child is much more likely to contract diphtheria or scarlet fever when he has a cold. The quicker you cure his cold the less the risk. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the sole reliance of many mothers, and few of those who have tried it are willing to use any other. Mrs. F. F. Starcher, of Ripley, W. Va., says: "I have never used anything other than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for my children, and it has always given good satisfaction." This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a child as to an adult. For sale by Burnaugh & Mayfield.

trap. No money would have bought Juno. If there is a law that covers the promiscuous poisoning, the writer would like to have some one inform her through these columns, as she still has Nellie Bly to protect, as well as Carlo, a large, faithful and intelligent shepherd dog.

Accident.
Little Lorine Williams, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williams, of Elk Horn Springs farm, met with quite an accident a few days ago. She started to step just back of a woodchopper without noticing that he was raising his double-edged ax, when he saw her just in time to prevent either killing her or maiming her for life; as it happened she only received a light gash across the bridge of her nose, which will leave but a light scar.

Personals.
Ed Wilcox was unable to attend the school party on account of sickness. He went to Flora to consult a doctor and remained several days. He returned O. K. and everybody glad to see him home again.
Mr. Haroldson is expecting to move back to his ranch north of George Beecher's as soon as the weather becomes settled.
Charlie Fleming is getting ready to build a new house; dimensions to be 20x28 feet. He has selected a very pretty location for it, on his ranch; as he is very fond of roses it will probably be a rose-covered cottage. His present residence has beautiful climbing roses over a portion of it.
Miss Wilma Courtney visited at the home of Mrs. Hafer and sons recently and enjoyed a horseback ride of about ten miles each way, over a picturesque road along the table land above the Grande Ronde river.
James Downing made a flying visit to Evert Richman's home in the Grouse country, a few days ago.

An Ideal Cough Medicine.
"As an ideal cough medicine I regard Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in a class by itself," says Dr. R. A. Wiltshire, of Gwynneville, Ind. "I take great pleasure in testifying to the results of Chamberlain's Cough Medicine. In fact, I know of no other preparation that meets so fully expectations of the most exacting in cases of croup and coughs of children. As it contains no opium, chloroform or morphine it certainly makes a most safe, pleasant and efficacious remedy for the ill it is intended." For sale by Burnaugh & Mayfield.

DEATH RECORD.
Earl, the three months old baby boy of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Pinkney of Prairie Creek, died Tuesday after a few days illness. Mrs. Pinkney returned from Union Saturday and stopped at J. D. Halsey's here in town. The little one was taken sick Sunday. Burial was in Prairie Creek cemetery Wednesday afternoon, Rev. C. E. Trueblood officiating. Mrs. Pinkney's mother, Mrs. Rich of Union, arrived Wednesday too late for the funeral.
