Life 100,000 Years Ago.
Scientists have found in a cave in Switzerland bones of men, who lived 100,000 years ago, when life was in constant danger from wild beasts. To-day the danger, as shown by A. W. Brown of Alexander, Me., is largely from deadly disease. "If it had not been for Dr. King's New Discovery, which cured me, I could not have lived," he writes, "suffering as I did from a severe lung trouble and stubborn cough." To cure Sore Lungs, Colds, obstinate Coughs, and prevent Pneumonia, it's the best medicine on earth. 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by Burnaugh & Mayfield. Trial bottle free.

BIG CROPS; HIGH PRICES.
Work putting up the largest hay crop ever known in the county has begun. The yield per acre may have been exceeded in some past year, but even that is doubtful, while the acreage, quality and prices almost sure to be paid, have never been equalled. Wallowa county is without a peer as a grass country in all the inland Empire, and this is the livestock sent to market, which always brings the top prices. And it is beginning to tell in a splendid dairying business, as yet in its infancy, but advancing by a wonderfully rapid growth.

From all parts of this great county comes an enthusiastic chorus telling of the golden promise of big grain crops, and at the same time a Maccabean cry for workers in the harvest fields. Harvest wages are from $2 to $2.50 a day and board, and harvesters are scarce at that. With the best year ever known in the sheep business, and over a half million dollars already stored in her purse from that one industry, with good prices for horses, cattle and hogs, and bumper hay and grain crops, Wallowa is surely some class these bright summer days.

POOR MAIL SERVICE.
The north end of Wallowa county is entitled to better mail facilities. It is needless to recount the miserable service that large and splendid section is now cursed with, when one part received four mails a month for a time last winter.

It is time the department was made to do justice to the people out there. There should be a daily service to Flora and Paradise. That much is clearly due. This will be accomplished if the tri-weekly route from Enterprise to Flora is added to the present tri-weekly one from Wallowa. And it will be granted if the people of the North End want it. If they don't it will be pigeon-holed.

BIG HARVEST AHEAD.
H. T. Mitchell of Prairie Creek reports a tremendous harvest ahead of him on his big Prairie Creek ranch. He has 300 acres of hay to put up, mostly alfalfa and some timothy and 400 acres of grain. The ground was prepared and the grain all sown since they returned to this valley from Ashland last March. There was never a finer promise of an immense crop.

It is reported wheat is being contracted in the Walla Walla country at one dollar a bushel. That is a good, fair price, and every bushel should be sold for that price or more. That price gives a fair profit to the grower and better enables him to pay the outrageous advance in clothing and other manufactured goods already made because of the surety of the passage of the Aldrich tariff atrocity.

Taft posed as a tariff reformer before election, but since then has been a tariff performer while Aldrich pulled the strings.

The Maiden's Choice.
Oh, Janet, Janet, maiden fair,
With soft blue eyes and golden hair,
When I observe you walking there
I would that I had wealth galore,
That I could give you of my store
And place you in a coach and four.
How grandly would you ride! Ah, me,
That you must walk in poverty!
"Nay, nay," she cried: "I do not care!"
My heart went dancing light as air;
How beautiful her eyes and hair!
"To have a coach and four, dear Hugh,
A large red touring car would do."
—Lippincott's Magazine.

Quite So.
"The time, the place and the girl—
how seldom we see them together!"
"And another rare combination is the man, the scheme and the coin."—Washington Herald.

Up and Down In Gotham Town

Fifth Avenue Fascinating, but Not to Be Explored Without Caution—A Friendly Interchange—Pie and Finance. A New Kind of Man.

(From Our New York Correspondent.)
THE Fifth avenue has a wide reputation both at home and abroad as a general observation ground. Those who visit Gotham do not delay long in getting there, and those who have never been outside the city limits are equally conscious of the thoroughfare's irresistible charm. It is a region in which something is continually going on. Those who go there to see things are disappointed rarely.

Now, the seeing of those things involves some risk. In these degenerate, Lombrosian days one may traverse the Bowersy from Chatham square to Cooper Institute, even at midnight or after, in the most prosaic and uninteresting security. There was a time when Chinatown was an uncertain region to explore late at night, but it has lost its excellent reputation as a possible thriller, and the present rectitude of its ways and byways is positively disgusting to him or her who is in search of the otherwise. The ancient glory of the Five Points neighborhood has departed forever. It has been captured and stripped of its old time naughtiness by the most peaceable and law abiding colony of Sicilians that ever preferred poisons to starvation. One might remain in the section for a week without molestation, and during all that period he would probably witness nothing more exciting than an occasional verbal and gesticulatory conflict between rival dealers in domestic and imported macaroni.

Not so with the Fifth avenue. He, she or it—not to show sex discrimination—who would see it as it should be seen must do it at the risk of bodily injury, maybe worse. Within the past few years there has been a genuine wild western holdup by daylight in the vicinity of the Waldorf-Astoria. Only a few short months ago pedestrians on the gilded highway were compelled to dispute the right of way with a huge box constrictor, and only last month an elephant in search of adventures emerged from the Hippodrome jungle and gravitated jubilantly to the Fifth avenue.

But all these possibilities—the hold-up, the serpent and the frisky elephant—are as nothing compared with a new danger which confronts the frequenters of the gay avenue. Recently a bright red wagon on which the legend "Dynamite" is displayed in large letters has made its appearance. From its dashboard flutters nonchalantly a little red flag on which is inscribed the suggestive caution, "Danger!" This sensational vehicle threads its way gingerly down the long thoroughfare, winding in and out among the other traffic and meeting no obstacle of any kind. Nobody has even stopped the driver to ask whether or no it really bears a consignment of explosives. I viewed it the other morning from the top of a motor bus, and I confess that I descended from my perch and took to a side street.

See Mother Grow Young.
"It would be hard to overstate the wonderful change in my mother since she began to use Electric Bitters," writes Mrs. W. L. Gilpatrick of Danforth, Me. "Although past 70 she seems really to be growing young again. She suffered untold misery from dyspepsia for 20 years. At last she could neither eat, drink nor sleep. Doctors gave her up and all remedies failed till Electric Bitters worked such wonders for her health." They invigorate all vital organs, cure Liver and Kidney troubles, induce sleep impart strength and appetite. Only 50c at Burnaugh & Mayfield's.

Maybe the Contrary.
"That mind reader is no good. He couldn't read a thing from mine."
"That doesn't prove him no good."—Houston Post.

If people with symptoms of kidney or bladder trouble could realize their danger they would without loss of time commence taking Foley's Kidney Remedy. This great remedy stops the pain and the irregularities, strengthens and builds up these organs and there is no danger of Bright's disease or other serious disorder. Do not disregard the early symptoms. Burnaugh & Mayfield.

The Bereaved Widow's Break.
A London life insurance company recently got this letter from a bereaved widow: "I take pleasure in informing you of the death of my husband, who was assured in your company. Please send me papers quick so I can prove he is dead."

Many people with chronic throat and lung trouble have found comfort and relief in Foley's Honey and Tar as it cures stubborn coughs after other treatment has failed. L. M. Ruggles, Reasnor, Iowa, writes: "The doctors said I had consumption, and I got no better until I took Foley's Honey and Tar. It stopped the hemorrhages and pain in my lungs and they are now as sound as a bullet." Burnaugh & Mayfield.

Some Generations Hence.
"Why are the trees all chopped away?" the little fellow said.
"Why do the streams go dry while sunshine's beating overhead?" His father said. "It is because the lumbermen so gay Each had an ax to grind and was a cut-up in his way."
—Washington Star.

Foley's Honey and Tar not only stops chronic coughs that weaken the constitution and develop into consumption, but heals and strengthens the lungs. It affords comfort and relief in the worst cases of chronic bronchitis, asthma, hay fever and lung trouble. Burnaugh & Mayfield.

Not Smooth Enough.
Anxious Mother—Mr. Wylde N. Woolly is a most estimable young man, my daughter. Why won't you accept him? He is a diamond in the rough.
Daughter (pertly)—Because I don't care to do the polishing.—Puck.

A Night Rider's Raid.
The worst night riders are calomel, croton oil or aloes pills. They raid your bed to rob you of rest. Not so with Dr. King's New Life Pills. They never distress or inconvenience, but always clear the system, curing Colds, Headache, Constipation, Malaria, 25c. at Burnaugh & Mayfield's.

Nobody in Particular.
He wrote in praise of the simple life.
He said he just adored it.
He married rich and changed his mind,
And now he lives the other kind,
Because he can afford it.
—Houston Post.

Delay in taking Foley's Kidney Remedy if you have backache, kidney or bladder trouble, fastens the disease upon you and makes a cure more difficult. Commence taking Foley's Kidney Remedy today and you will soon be well. Why risk a serious malady? Burnaugh & Mayfield.

Revelation.
When Phyllis passed me in her sleath
It really made me grit my teeth—
I've never been her ardent wooer.
But, gee, there is so little to her!
—Puck.

Help for Those Who Have Stomach Trouble.
After doctoring for about twelve years for a bad stomach trouble, and spending nearly five hundred dollars for medicine and doctors' fees, I purchased my wife one box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, which did her so much good that she continued to use them and they have done her more good than all of the medicine I bought before.—Samuel Boyer, Polson, Iowa. This medicine is for sale by Burnaugh & Mayfield. Samples free.

His Taste.
Doting Father—What do you like best in school, my son?
Little Milton—Recess.—New York Press.
Delay in commencing treatment for a slight irregularity that could have been cured quickly by Foley's Kidney Remedy may result in a serious kidney disease. Foley's Kidney Remedy builds up the worn out tissues and strengthens these organs. Burnaugh & Mayfield.

Youth's Blissful Ignorance.
All food to me brought keen delight,
My inner self repeating,
But now with every cautious bite
I wonder what I'm eating.
—Cleveland Plain Dealer.
