Second Day, July 8, 1909. In the matter of opening bids for the heating and plumbing of the court house. It appearing to the court that now is the time heretofore fixed by the court for opening bids to install heating and plumbing for the new court house now under construction, and said bids having been opened and considered by the court it finds that the G. H. Sutherland company, of Walla Walla, Washington, has submitted the lowest and best bid for furnishing said heating and plumbing, which said bid is in words and figures as follows:

To the Honorable County Court of Wallowa County, Oregon. Gentlemen: We hereby propose to install the heating and plumbing in your new Court House in accordance with the plans and specifications prepared by C. R. Thornton, architect, and more particularly described and shown by the plans accompanying our proposal. We will furnish a surety bond for the faithful performance of the work proposed and assure you of prompt installation interfering in no way with the general construction of the building. Our work to be installed, complete and tested by the time the building is in other respects ready for occupancy, or to be turned over by the general contractor. All for the sum of Forty-five Hundred and Ninety Two Dollars ($4592.00.) Respectfully submitted, The G. H. Sutherland Company, by Geo. H. Sutherland, President. The court being now fully advised in the premises, it is therefore considered and ordered by the court that the bid of The G. H. Sutherland company, of Walla Walla, Washington, as above set forth be and the same is hereby accepted and the county

Price Of Cattle Mounts Upward

Local Stockmen Sell 150 Cows At $30 Per Head—Prime Condition.

The price of cattle is joining in the triumphant upward march of everything the Wallowa county farmer or stockman has to sell, judging from the money paid for a bunch of 150 head of cows by Andrew Beard and Joe Reavis of Walla Walla. The cattle were bought from Ray Vest, Hanson Bros., Haas Bros. and Wm. Zarcher, who received an average price of $30 a head for the 150 cows. The cattle were driven from here to Walla Walla. Cattlemen are expecting a better price this fall than was paid a year ago. The cattle are in much better condition, fat as butter now and will be just prime at the beef round-up. The market is better, too, and has a healthy upward turn to it.

STOCK COMPANY AT OPERA HOUSE

MISS ETHEL TUCKER AND STRONG SUPPORT COMING FOR SUMMER SEASON.

The management of the opera house announces that it has been fortunate enough to secure for the summer season, the well and favorably known Ethel Tucker Stock company, to take the place of the Streeter-Bryan Stock company, which was booked for the season but which struck financial shoals in Arizona and was unable to fill its engagement.

The Ethel Tucker Stock company is one of the very strongest companies in the country, either east or west. The star, Miss Ethel Tucker, has been leading lady in the important stock theatres in New York, Boston, Chicago and other Eastern cities. She is an actress of rare ability—there is no better on the American stage. Her supporting people, a company of twelve, have been picked with much care and good judgment and the result is a series of productions equal in point of acting ability to anything seen in stock in the largest cities.

It is possible the company may be able to open in this city on Saturday next; it is certain that it will not be later than next week in doing so.

The play selected for the opening bill is "Zaza," a powerful drama of absorbing interest, which for the past two seasons has been one of the greatest money makers on the road.

It is the company's intention to make Enterprise their home during the summer months and to play Elgin, Wallowa and Joseph from here.

The management of the opera house gives its patrons its personal assurance that this is an exceedingly strong and satisfactory company, and it merits the patronage of all. That it will have such patronage the management confidently anticipates.

ENTERPRISE WINS FROM JOSEPH, SCORE 13 TO 2

The Enterprise base ball club defeated the Joseph team in this city Sunday afternoon by the one-sided score of 13 to 2, in a game marked by the heavy and timely hitting of the locals. Blyeu made a home run with three on bases, and Hug also made a long hit with three on bases. Blyeu got a pair of cuff buttons for his over-the-fence hit from the same firm, Jackson & Weaver, that gave him a ring several weeks ago for a similar hit. Blyeu and Bauer were the local battery. Hallgarth pitched for Joseph. W. Pidecock, Enterprise's regular catcher, whose split finger is still sore, played centerfield, Savage left, Crumpacker right, Pace first, R. Pidecock second, Hug short and French third. The same clubs play in Joseph next Sunday.

PATRIOTIC PROGRAM AT PROMISE ON JULY 4TH

Promise, July 9.—Independence day was appropriately observed here last Sunday by a patriotic program not at all out of place for the sabbath day. A large crowd listened to the patriotic sermon in the morning by Rev. Fred G. Potter. Those who were compelled to remain outside being orderly and attentive. The basket dinner made ample provision for all and was pronounced by those who know, to be way ahead of anything La Grande can do.

The afternoon program which consisted mainly of songs and recitations by the young people of Promise, Sunny Side, Riverside and Grossman, was well rendered and appreciated by all. When starting for their homes in the afternoon many expressed themselves as having more fittingly than is usual observed our nation's birthday.

THREATENED TO KILL.

Ed Larkins was given a hearing before Justice J. A. Cox of Wallowa, Saturday, on the charge of threatening to kill P. C. May, the threat being alleged to have been made on June 30. Larkins was placed under $1000 bond to keep the peace. Deputy District Attorney Dill went to Wallowa, Saturday, to conduct the case for the state.

J. B. Ready went to Union, Monday

WALLOWANS WELCOME.

July 27 is Union county day at the Seattle fair. The hostess is a lady who made her home in Wallowa county for ten years and has been identified with Wallowa's early growth and development. The reception is to be held at the Oregon State building and she will welcome all residents of Wallowa county who may be present at that date at the fair. Music by an orchestra and light refreshments will be features of the afternoon. Mrs. P. S. Ivanhoe.
