Many people with chronic throat and lung trouble have found comfort and relief in Foley's Honey and Tar as it cures stubborn coughs after other treatment has failed. L. M. Ruggles, Reasnor, Iowa, writes: "The doctors said I had consumption, and I got no better until I took Foley's Honey and Tar. It stopped the hemorrhages and pain in my lungs and they are now as sound as a bullet." Burnaugh & Mayfield.

NEW PUBLISHER OF JOSEPH PAPER

EXPERIENCED MAN BUYS HERALD PLANT—OTHER BUSINESS CHANGES MADE.

Joseph, July 16.—S. P. Shutt, formerly editor and publisher of the Drain Nonpartiel, and before that publisher of papers at Sumpter, Condon and Fossil, has bought the Joseph Herald and plant of A. T. Kinney, who published the Herald for the last six years and made good money.

The new editor gives every evidence of being onto his job. He is a genial man of long experience in the work. He locates here principally because of this city's desirability as a residence place.

C. J. Driskell, who was so badly injured in the Hmelkin explosion, may recover in spite of his many wounds.

E. O. Makin has bought the Fred Rowley place on Main street of Geo. Boner.

Ex-Sheriff Blakely of Enterprise secured the beautiful oil painting of Wallowa lake, painted by Mrs. Smith, and recently chanced off at Leffel's store.

D. W. Hunsaker has received word that his brother-in-law, C. H. Meyers, of Pittsburg, Kan., was overcome by heat and died July 7. Mr. Meyers visited here three years ago. Frank Stevenson has sold his interest in the F. C. & C. Co. store to Ole Miller and Ed. S. Forsstrom.

S. J. DORRANCE DEAD.

Samuel J. Dorrance, the well known stone mason, died at the home of his brother, W. C. Dorrance, on Crow creek, Tuesday evening at 5 o'clock, of tubercular trouble. Funeral services and burial were held at the Prairie Creek cemetery, Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Rev. Samuel Harris of Enterprise Presbyterian church officiating. The pall bearers were Frank Melotte, Harry Thomas, Clark Amey and S. D. Keltner of Enterprise, and Wm. Newby and F. F. McCully of Joseph.

Samuel James Dorrance was born at Seaforth, Ontario, Canada, Dec.

11, 1869. He came to Union county in 1894, and resided in that county and this until his death. He was a man of fine character and leaves a host of friends besides his relatives to mourn his death. Two brothers, W. C. of Crow creek and David of Walla Walla, and two sisters, Mrs. Brooks of La Grande and a sister in Canada, survive.

Born, to the wife of Roy Martin of Lostine, a daughter; Thursday, July 15.

UNION COUNTY IS DRY FOR CERTAIN

SUPREME COURT AFFIRMS DECISION OF CRAWFORD—TECHNICITY PASSED.

Salem, July 13.—In the Union county local option case in which the order of the county court declaring that county dry as the outcome of a local option election June, 1908, was attacked, the Supreme court is divided in a decision rendered today.

Julius Roesch, the brewer, alleged the petition initiating the local option proceedings in Union county was insufficient; that notices of the election were inadequate, and that they were not posted according to law. Evidence was produced to show that only three notices were posted at Kamela precinct, when there should have been five.

Chief Justice Moore wrote the opinion in which he holds the notices of the election were sufficient. This is concurred in by Justice McBride and Eakin. The dissenting opinion was written by Justice Slater, and concurred in by Justice King.

"If the failure to post notices at Kamela precinct disfranchises over 3000 voters in Union county," wrote McBride, "the failure in the smallest precinct in the state would disfranchise every voter in the commonwealth, if a special election for the entire state should be called upon some measure or an office." Justice McBride also says he does not suppose "that it will make any great difference whether thirsty citizens of Union County get their supplies at licensed saloons, as has been their wont for these many years, or are compelled to adopt the inconvenient methods frequently practiced in so-called 'dry counties,' but the principle involved here is far-reaching."

McBride holds a substantial compliance is all that is necessary unless the negligence changes the result.

On the other hand, Slater contends that in former cases the Oregon Supreme court held that on special elections, strict compliance with all the statutory requirements, is mandatory.

burning lime, the work being well under way when a rain came up suddenly and an explosion occurred. It is supposed a leak let in the water, generating carbonic acid gas sufficient to cause the explosion. The entire plant was burned.

Driskell was taken to Joseph and his injuries attended by Dr. Thompson. He is getting along as well as could be expected.

Rev. E. Owen has returned from his visit at Astoria.

$10,000 Residence For F. J. Holmes

Plans Accepted by Mrs. Holmes For Fine Home of Colonial Style.

The La Grande Star says Mrs. Fred J. Holmes has accepted the plans of Architect Robert Miller for a colonial style residence which is to be one of the finest in eastern Oregon. The house is to be built on the Andross lot on Fourth street where the disastrous fire of last spring occurred. The house then burned was then occupied by the Ivanhoe family.

The new Holmes residence is to be modern in every detail. Upon a basement of stone will be erected two full stories and an attic. Off the attic and also the upper story there are to be artistic verandas supported by heavy colonial columns. The house is to be 43 feet wide and 66 feet deep.

The interior of the residence will be finished after the most modern plans and will contain nine large rooms. In addition to these rooms there will be bath on each floor, electric wiring, pipes for steam heating, speaking tubes, dumb waiters and every other modern convenience. One feature of the plan for the interior is that it embraces both front and rear stairways.

The plans also provide for beam ceilings and parquet floors. There will be a number of other features included in the finish of the interior that are not detailed in the architect's plans. The total cost of the building is estimated at $10,000.

CHURCH SERVICES.

M. E. Church: Sunday school at 10 a. m. At 11 o'clock there will be a Cradle Roll service consisting of songs, prayer, and a short address by the pastor. Epworth league at 7 p. m., preaching at 8 p. m. C. E. Trueblood, pastor.

Prof. H. T. Sutton of the Eugene Divinity school will lecture in the Christian church Sunday morning and evening and each evening during the coming week. Prof. Sutton is said to be a speaker who will interest people of all denominations and all are cordially invited to attend.

BUTTERFAT PRICE UP.

The Enterprise Creamery company raised the price of butterfat on July 15 to 24 cents. The company pays the price delivered to any depot on the railroad or to the Prairie Creek route.

BOYS FIND CACHE OF STOLEN HORSES

HULTZ AND HUNTER OF LOSTINE UNDER ARREST FOR GRAVE CRIME.

Sheriff Edgar Marvin returned from Astoria Tuesday with Arthur Hultz of Lostine, charged with horsestealing. Hultz was arrested by Astoria officers at the instance of Sheriff Marvin. He had seven horses in his possession, only four of which were his own. One of the others has been identified as the property of John Cramer of Wallowa. Hultz waived a preliminary hearing before Justice Smith Wednesday and was bound over to the circuit court in the sum of $500, in default of which he was lodged in the county jail.

Another Suspect Taken.

Sheriff Marvin went over to Walla Walla Thursday and brought back Wm. Hunter, arrested for complicity in the theft of the horses by Hultz (Hunter was at Walla Walla disposing of a bunch of his own horses. He is the former well-known freighter.

The discovery of the operations of Hunter and Hultz is said to have been accidental. Three boys found three horses cached in the brush above Lostine, told their fathers who informed other men and the place was watched. The horses were taken out and were the three found in Hultz' possession at Astoria.

Theatrical Stock Company Coming

Ethel Tucker Troupe Will Arrive Monday.—First Performance Thursday.

Manager Frank Brown, of the Ethel Tucker Stock company, will reach the city today, Saturday, to prepare the way for the arrival of the company on Monday's train. The company jumps direct to Enterprise from Boise, where it has been playing for some time, and will give its first performance Thursday evening next when will be produced the great emotional play, "Zaza." The company is a high grade one, every member being a capable performer in his or her part.

Interspersed between acts will be some very fetching specialties, the music, in particular, being of a quality to please the audience. That a company of this quality should be willing to take chances in playing a summer season in Enterprise is certainly a compliment to the town which the people should appreciate. That they will show their appreciation by a liberal patronage is confidently anticipated by the opera house management.

The water main is laid on Residence street to the river by Dr. Poley's residence, and the steam ditcher is working on the hill, coming down from the reservoir. The pipes were connected across the river near Falconer's place, Friday, and now the city water is discharging into the river on Residence street.
