Scientists have found in a cave in Switzerland bones of men, who lived 100,000 years ago, when life was in constant danger from wild beasts. Today the danger, as shown by A. W. PAYING FOR NOISE.

The returns of Fourth of July casualties so far gathered and published by the Chicago Record-Herald, covering the entire United States, show that as usual the deaths from wounds caused by the paper cap pistols to be far in the lead. It is the deadliest of all means employed to "celebrate" the glorious anniversary, and the worst feature is the victims are all innocent children who suffer terrible deaths from lockjaw. The paper cap pistols and canes should be rigidly barred from sale, and now is the time for the council to pass the ordinance, long before dealers place their orders for next year.

Dynamite crackers should also be prohibited, though they are not so deadly as the paper cap pistols and canes, and probably a majority of their victims are grown men or large boys. Most persons would say that any grown man or large boy who uses a hand or arm fooling with a dynamite cracker, deserves his fate. The foolkiller is way behind on his job and needs some help. But for the sake of children, prohibit the dynamite cracker as well as the pistols and canes.

NEED OF CENTRAL PARK.

Park sites adjacent to the business center of Enterprise are limited to one or two, and they will be gone before another summer at the present rate of the town's growth.

Events of the last two months show the extreme need of an open space for public purposes near the business district. A place for celebrations is essential to the financial success of such gatherings, if not absolutely necessary to holding them at all.

A central park would also give a place for all other out-door gatherings, besides serving as a place of rest and recreation.

Of the one or two sites remaining, it is stated one at least can now be secured on fairly reasonable terms. This is the chance for someone to start a move that would be of inestimable benefit not only to the present generation but for all time to come.

PREFERS PENDLETON.

Congressman Ellis is doing a good and thorough job of misrepresenting this district. He has trained during this whole season with Joe Connor and all the gang that is raising the taxes on everything consumed by our people and lowering it only on those things produced in the Pacific Northwest. His every vote is against the people and for the trusts and monopolies.

Evidently, Mr. Wade Ellis is tired of Washington life, and desires to remain permanently in that dear old Pendleton. It would be a shame not to permit him to do so.

TUCKER NOT CHASED OUT OF CANADA

Editor:

In your issue of the third week of May, I notice in your write up of my arrest in Montana, you stated that "in my usual way he, (meaning myself) soon got into trouble and was chased across the border into Montana, by the mounted police." This statement that I got into trouble in Canada or was chased across the line is entirely without truth. I left Stettler, Alberta, on the 11:45 a. m. train, on February 24, 1909, in broad daylight, bought my ticket to Calgary, and got onto the train with a mounted policeman standing within arms-reach of me, who knew me personally, spoke to me, and with whom I had eaten dinner the Sunday before at Gaudios Baudan's ranch 13 miles from Stettler.

I defy any one to produce any evidence or proof that I ever had any trouble of any kind or that there ever was or is now any kind of a charge standing against me in Canada. Thanking you for giving this statement the same publicity as you gave the article mentioned,

Yours very truly,
T. E. TUCKER.

Romance Up to Date.

While strolling down the village street a modest maid I chanced to meet And saw as she came tripping by "That she was sweet simplicity," "Odds sounds, a gentle maid!" methought.
"To speak I know not if I ought," But as I heaved a wondrous sigh, "Pray, wear this red, red rose," quoth I. She took the bloom from out my hand. "Your nerve," she whispered, "beats the band. Nothing but bonbons goes with me. Don't be a piker, sir," said she. —Chicago Record-Herald.

See Mother Grow Young.

"It would be hard to overstate the wonderful change in my mother since she began to use Electric Bitters," writes Mrs. W. L. Gihpatrick of Danforth, Me. Needn't Hurry.

An old Kansas citizen who had been bespeckled all his life was about to die. His wife felt it her duty to offer him such consolation as she might and said, "John, you are about to go, but I will follow you." "I suppose so, Ma," said the old man weakly, "but so far as I am concerned you don't need to be in any hurried hurry about it"—Argonaut.
