DEATH RECORD.

Luke Boothe, a pioneer settler of Union and Wallowa counties, died Thursday, July 22, at the home of his son-in-law, D. D. Brock of Alder Slope, after an illness lasting several months though he had been bedfast but two weeks. Funeral services were held in Alder church, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. W. S. Crockett, burial was in Alder cemetery.

Mr. Boothe was born in Putnam county, Mo., Aug. 9, 1853. He came west at the age of 10 years, to Union county, and was married there to Miss Maggie Ken'el, June 2, 1872. They moved to Wallowa county in 1879, settling near Joseph. Three years later they moved to Innaha which has since been his home. Six children were born to them: One son who died in childhood in Union county, and five daughters, four of whom are living, Mrs. May Roe of Idaho, Mrs. Nora Brock and Mrs. Veaa Sha'er of Alder Slope, and Mrs. Florence Pratt of Innaha. One daughter, Mrs. Ella Emmons of near Enterprise died October 26th last and is buried in the Alder cemetery. Mrs. Boothe died in 1886, and in February, 1903, he was married to Mrs. Laura Meadows of Kentucky, who with the laughter born to this union, are now residing in Kentucky.

Mr. Boothe has one brother and one sister living, Sam Boothe of Union county and Mrs. J. M. Mitchell of Joseph. He leaves also 14 grandchildren, 10 of whom were present at the funeral. The deceased was a member of the Christian church, having been baptized in the Enterprise church 13 or 14 years ago.

Card of Thanks.
To the many kind friends who gave us their sympathy and assistance during the illness and death of our father, Luke Boothe, we extend our sincere thanks.
