 Play That Brought Her First Success

Friday Night's Bill at Opera House Won Fame For Miss Tucker.

Both of last week's offerings by the Ethel Tucker company were splendidly presented and the audiences were pleased.

The company is growing in favor and the various members are giving evidence that their selection was carefully made. Friday night of this week, Queenena, a charming four act play, will be given, and on Saturday night a big triple bill is the attraction.

Queenena holds you interested for something over two hours and sends you home with the feeling that you have spent an evening quite worth while.

High class acting, a blending of healthy, bright comedy and pathos, so natural and free from maudlin sentiment as to cut deep, make Queenena one of the most appealing plays that have been seen this season. Queenena is also the play that brought Miss Ethel Tucker her first success—gave her the position among prominent managers and the standing in her profession which has ever since placed her among the foremost emotional actresses.

In the play the gowns she wears and those worn by the other ladies of the company are "Visions" of the dressmakers art.

The company won commendation for the unusual attention given to the stage settings. In Queenena they intend to surpass all that they have so far done.

The following letter from the late Richard B. Hubbard is a glowing tribute to Miss Tucker's acting.

Tyler, Texas, Feb. 3, 1900
 Miss Ethel Tucker, My Dear Madam
 It affords me sincere pleasure to express, in this informal way, my high appreciation of your rendition of the part of "Queenena" the heroine in the drama of that name, at the "Grand" last evening in this city. That difficult part, from the first to the last act, (but especially in the mad scene) was superb and touching and was worthy of the better days of the drama and the stage. I, therefore, congratulate you; wish you a long and yet more brilliant career in your chosen profession. I am yours very truly,

Richard B. Hubbard.

Litch Has New Auto.
 County Commissioner Sam Litch received his new auto a Ford Twenty. Saturday. It is 1909 model and is neat and trim looking. It was driven in from La Grande.

Regular Sunday Trains.
 Regular Sunday train service was inaugurated on this branch last Sunday, and the trains were well patronized. The schedule for the present is the same as on week days, and the trains handle freight, baggage and express. No mail is carried yet as the company's contract with the government calls for only six days a week service.

Notice to Property Owners On Depot Street.

The Famous Kumiss.
 Kumiss is a valuable beverage for use in the sick-room. Heat one quart of milk to seventy-five degrees Fahrenheit, add one and one-half of a yeast-cake dissolved in one tablespoonful of sugar, and one fourth spoonful of lukewarm water. Fill sterilized bottles to within one and one-half inches of the top. Cork and shake. Place the bottles inverted, where they may remain at a temperature of seventy degrees Fahrenheit for ten hours; then put in the ice-box or a cool place, and let stand forty-eight hours, shaking occasionally, to prevent the cream from clogging the mouth of the bottle. It is refreshing and nourishing.—Woman's Home Companion for August.

Chocolate and Egg Milk-Shake.
 Chocolate and egg milk-shake are extremely nutritious, which makes them very desirable for children's luncheons, and the little folks are usually very fond of them. It is well to always have on hand the chocolate syrup from which they may be made. Melt four squares of unsweetened chocolate, and add one and three-fourths cupfuls of sugar and one eighth of a teaspoon full of salt; then pour on gradually, while stirring constantly, one and one-half cupfuls of boiling water. Stir until smooth, bring to the boiling-point, and let boil five minutes. Cool, and turn into a jar. Keep in the ice-box to use as needed.—Woman's Home Companion for August.

HORSE SALE.
 At Joseph, Or. 30 head of horses, about half of them well broke, mostly home-bred percherons—some of the mares with foal. Saturday August 14, 1909, at Duncan's Livery stable, commencing at 10 a. m. Terms—5 per cent off for cash. Four months time will be given, with secured note. If not paid within 4 months, 8 per cent interest will be charged.

Watermelon Booth for a Summer Fair.
 The feature which scored the greatest success at a summer-resort fair was a watermelon booth, the bright invention of an artist sojourning at one of the hotels.

The booth was hung with festoons of red and green tissue-paper and decorated with piccaninny heads cut from black paper, with features painted in water-color.

Big slices of watermelon at ten cents a slice were served by one of the ladies interested, blacked and bandannaed to represent a portly Southern mammy. The "Watermillion," owing to the warm weather and the novelty of it, took like the proverbial hot cakes.—Woman's Home Companion for August.
