CALL FOR BIDS.

The Board of Trustees of the M. E. church of Enterprise will receive sealed bids on and before the 21st day of August, 1909, for the building known as the M. E. parsonage. Said building to be removed by Sept. 1 from its present location to adjoining ground and there left for occupancy by the pastor of the church until the new parsonage is completed.

Board of Trustees M. E. church, 31a3 C. H. ZURCHER, Chairman.

NEW ARRIVALS.

McREYNOLDS, Born to the wife of Charles McReynolds, a daughter; Wednesday, August 11.

PIDCOCK, Born to the wife of Ralph Pidcock, a son; Wednesday, August 11.

Haley & Turner, the well known horse buyers of Caldwell, Idaho, arrived Wednesday with their famous saddle stallion, Pat Squirrel. This horse has not a peer in the saddle horse world. In conformation and disposition he is perfect, and as to his breeding there is no horse more fashionably bred. The owners expect to sell this horse in Wallowa county and he can be seen at any time at Duncan's livery stable in Joseph. Haley & Turner want to buy a carload of medium-sized work horses, 31b1

Court House Progress.

The walls of the new court house are up to the sills of the second story windows. The beautiful white granite from Hurricane Creek quarries, used for keystones, sills etc., give a pleasing variety to the darker stone of the walls.

WALLOWA HONORED IN CAREER OF SON

FINE RECORD OF WARREN FORTSYTHE OF ENTERPRISE AT U. OF M.

From La Grande Star.
Warren Forsythe, assistant professor in the pharmacy department of the University of Michigan, left on the Joseph train Monday morning for Enterprise, where he will spend six weeks visiting his family. Mr. Forsythe is the son of E. J. Forsythe, the owner of the electric light plant in Enterprise. He graduated from the pharmacy department of the O. A. C. with the highest honors of anyone in his class in 1907. The following year he did post graduate work at Ann Arbor, receiving his graduate degree with the class of 1908 and again winning the highest honors. The past year he has been studying in the medical department and at Ann Arbor in the pharmacy department. His record reflects honor upon the land of his boyhood.

This morning Leo Forsythe, who has been in La Grande for several days visiting friends and relatives, and Craig Forsythe, who came from Ohio about a week ago to be with his mother, Mrs. W. A. Forsythe, who was operated upon here for appendicitis, are to go to Enterprise. In about ten more days it is thought that Mrs. Forsythe will be sufficiently recovered to return with her daughter, Belle, to Enterprise, as she is getting along splendidly.

WALLOWA COUNTY WOOL CLIP BEST IN NORTHWEST

E. W. Rumble is in the valley this week cleaning up the wool shipments for the season. Mr. Rumble, who bought for a San Francisco firm the major portion of the Wallowa county clip this year, says too high praise cannot be given the growers for the splendid condition of the wool. Buyers who have seen it, say it is the best all around clip of the northwest.

TO HOLD HARVEST HOME AT FLORA

NORTH COUNTRY PLANING BIG CELEBRATION FOR SEPTEMBER 24 AND 25.

BEATS THE TRAIN.

E. O. Makin and family returned Wednesday from a trip to the Grande Ronde in their automobile. They left Wallowa at the same time as the afternoon train but beat it to Enterprise a full half hour.

City Water Works Almost Completed

Pipe Laying Will Be Finished And Water Turned In Next Week.

The pipe for Enterprise's $30,000 city water system is all laid except four blocks of six inch on Grant street from River to School, and a few short connections. The laying of the six inch is delayed owing to the non-arrival of some castings. Manager Ulen says the work will all be completed next week ready to turn the water in.

The new system gives this city a water plant unsurpassed anywhere. The pure, almost ice cold water is piped from mountain springs four and a half miles above town, and the fall gives a direct pressure sufficient for power purpose. The big storage reservoir will be used only for emergencies.

Outsiders Pay No License.

Complaint is made by the people of the Troy country that Washington state people—from Asotin, Clatsop, Dayton, Walla Walla, etc.—are coming in there fishing and hunting without a license. They are not blaming the game warden for they realize he can't be everywhere in this big county at the same time, but they do say a deputy should be appointed to look after that district which is so remote that one in the central or southern part of the county can at best make but infrequent visits to it.

A Harvest Home will be held at Flora, Friday and Saturday, September 24 and 25, which if expectations are realized will be one of the largest celebrations and most enjoyable gatherings ever held in the North Country. The grand harvest all over Wallowa county should be fittingly celebrated and as many should go to Flora from this part as possible.

An exhibit of the grains, grasses, fruit and vegetables will be made and afterwards this exhibit sent to the La Grande fair as an advertisement of the resources of the county.

The Woodmen camp of Flora will repeat the out-day play that made such a big hit on July 4 last year. It depicts an attack on a settler's home by Indians. A moving picture concern from Cincinnati will photograph the scenes.

Other amusements including a base ball game, and big picnic dinners for which the North Country is justly famous.

A. C. Miller, who is home from a business trip out there, says the crops are splendid, and the people are taking great interest in the Harvest Home.

FREEDOM OF STREETS DENIED RANGE STOCK

Marshal Hug rounded up and impounded between 60 and 70 head of cattle that forgot where the city boundary is and were treating the streets and byways of town as free range in spite of the notice published in this paper by the council that all cows so infringing upon the dignity and sacred soil of said city of Enterprise, would be fined $1 for each and every offense and imprisoned until such fine was paid, together with 25 cents a day for feed, water and attendance. This notice was published conspicuously in this paper but evidently no cows or steers take the paper.

Most of the owners of the cattle appeared during that day and Thursday and paid the $1 per head fine.

The city officials say the ordinance will be strictly enforced from this on, and owners of stock will have to do their own herding.

NO BALL GAME SUNDAY.

The Wallowa baseball team has sent word it will not be here next Sunday. The season is considered at an end by the regular teams. Joseph's manager announces that the team there has disbanded. It looks though the K of P's must be depended upon to take advantage of the two full months of fine ball playing weather yet to come.

Settle Up.

All persons indebted to the late firm of Price & Homan will please call and settle at once as the books must be closed. Unsettled accounts will be given to a lawyer for collection after September 1. Books now with Del Homan at Combes meat market. 31a3

PRICE & HOMAN

DEATH RECORD.

Mrs. Henry O. Zumwalt died Sunday at the home of Dr. C. T. Hockett in this city after an illness lasting several weeks of stomach and kidney trouble. Funeral was held from the Hockett home Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, services being conducted by Rev. Samuel Harris; interment in Enterprise cemetery. The funeral was very largely attended showing the high esteem in which the deceased was held and the deep sympathy for the bereaved husband and children.

Mary Angelina Updegraf was born Nov. 25, 1852, in Shelby county, Ind., and came to Western Oregon in 1880. On August 11, 1881 she was married to Henry O. Zumwalt. About eight years ago they came to this county on account of her health, which was greatly benefited by the change. They settled in the eastern part of the county where a postoffice was established with the name Zumwalt.

Mrs. Zumwalt was a kind, devoted wife and mother and a christian woman, having joined the M. E. church of Perrydale, Polk county, many years ago. She leaves to mourn her death, an aged mother, three brothers and two sisters, the husband and four children, daughters Josie and Zora, and sons Fred and Len.

Lester, the little son of Mrs. Grace Swikert, who resides in the Samms house on Greenwood street, died at 1 o'clock Thursday morning after a long illness from rheumatism and complications. The boy was four years old last March, and much sympathy is felt for the sorrowing mother. Funeral services were held at the house Friday, and the little body was laid to rest in Enterprise cemetery.

Ethel Tucker In Character Comedy

Emotional Actress Essays Unusual Role In Beautiful Southern Play.

The Ethel Tucker Stock company will present tonight the beautiful Southern story of "Roanoke," a play full of true heart interest, lightened by sparkling comedy. The play tells how General Payton having mortgaged his place to Ezekiel Morse a miser, sends for him to pay it off. Morse sees the General's will and in his greed determines to get it as well as his money and mortgage, so he poisons an apple with prussic acid one small portion of which will strangle one to death. He induces the General to taste the apple and then robs him of the will and mortgage. Joe sees the robbery and attacks Morse, but the miser hits him in the head with a rock, and when Joe recovers he is a half wit. Roanoke is stricken with brain fever and when she recovers is blind. From then on Morse is assisted in his devilry by Miss Annebelle Payton, who hates Roanoke, but Captain Forrest and Colonel Bailey, with the assistance of Aunt Dinah finally prove that Morse killed General Payton. By the aid of Divine Providence and the help of the Richmond physicians, Roanoke regains her sight and Joe his reason and all ends happily.

It is said Miss Tucker has a surprise for her host of friends. It has never been known before as far as theatrical history goes for an emotional leading lady to essay character comedy parts, but Miss Tucker as Aunt Dinah is really at her best. She shows a versatility that no other emotional actress has ever possessed.

Miss Mandeville as Roanoke has a chance to show what she can do in a sweet ingenue lead. As she has played the part on the road in all the large coast cities it is unnecessary to say she will be at her best.

In addition to the play there will be given away a ladies gold watch to the one holding the lucky number, one number being given with each reserved seat purchase.

Couple Reunited.

Mrs. Hattie Stoffle, who had been cooking at the Patterson saw mill for several months, and her former husband, J. B. Stoffle of Echo, were remarried at La Grande, Wednesday.

CURTIS PRAISES BEAUTY OF SLOPE

GREATEST OF NEWSPAPER MEN ADDS HIS VERDICT TO ALDER.

Looking up at the exquisitely beautiful fringe of irrigated land that surrounds this city, William E. Curtis, the greatest newspaper man in the world, said, Wednesday morning, it is the prettiest and most inviting scene in all his travels.

Alder Slope has no rivals in the United States—nor in the world for that matter—in picturesque, splendid beauty. It is impossible to describe it. It must be seen to be appreciated. The Rhine and the Hudson are more famous but in the judgment of those who have seen all, are inferior.

The most perfect view of this magnificent Slope is from the Alder View addition to Enterprise and the day is surely coming when the view alone will add $100 to the value of every lot.

Wm. WARNOCK OF IMNAHA BUYS ENTERPRISE LOTS

T. M. Littleton has sold two lots in Littleton's subdivision to Wm. Warnock of Imnaha. It is understood Mr. Warnock will build a residence on the property. The sale was made through Clarence E. Vest.

Mr. Littleton has also sold two lots near the planing mill to S. K. Clark the plumber, who owns the adjoining property.

Mr. Vest sold four lots on North River street to Fred Holmes for $450.

WILL EXPORT LIME.

C. V. Christy, the lime kiln man of Hurricane Canyon, was on Wednesday's train bound for the outside to buy modern machinery for the kiln. Mr. Christy is going to rig up a first class plant and expects to ship lime out of the county.

Normal Ends; Examinations.

The summer normal conducted by Superintendent Conley and Prof. H. H. Bronson closed Tuesday evening after a very successful five weeks term. The remainder of this week is given over to the teachers examinations, 28 teachers being in attendance.

Two Winners From This County.

L. A. Tulley of Wallowa was one of the first 1500 winners in the Coeur d'Alene land drawing Monday, and R. W. Jickling of Lostine drew No. 2274 on Tuesday. So far they are the only Wallowa county men whose names have appeared.

J. S. Horner of Turlock, Cal., who is here on a visit to old friends and neighbors, was stricken with appendicitis. He was at the Lewis Hotel but was removed to the residence of W. W. White. He is slowly improving and it is hoped an operation will not be necessary.
