To maintain health, a mature man or woman needs just enough food to repair the waste and supply energy and body heat. The habitual consumption of more food than is necessary for these purposes is the prime cause of stomach troubles, rheumatism and disorder of the kidneys. If troubled with indigestion, revise your diet, let reason and not appetite control and take a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and you will soon be all right again. For sale by Burnaugh & Mayfield.

Not Smooth Enough.
Anxious Mother—Mr. Wyde N. Woolly is a most estimable young man, my daughter. Why won't you accept him? He is a diamond in the rough.
Daughter (pertly)—Because I don't care to do the polishing.—Puck.

The Best Plaster.
A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Liniment and bound on the afflicted part is superior to any plaster. When troubled with lame back or pains in the side or chest, get it a trial and you are certain to be more than pleased with the prompt relief which it affords. This liniment also relieves rheumatic pains and is certain to please anyone suffering from that disease. Sold by Burnaugh & Mayfield.

Realistic.
"Why is Rosalie weeping so?"
"She and Bessie and I were playing at keeping house. Rosalie was the wife and I was the husband."
"I hope you were not cross to her. Husbands and wives should never quarrel, you know."
"Oh, we didn't fight. Bessie was our maid, and she quit without giving us notice."—Minneapolis Journal.

Such a medicine is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has gained a world wide reputation by its remarkable cures of the most common ailment, and can always be depended upon. The Maiden's Choice.
Oh, Janet, Janet, maiden fair,
With soft blue eyes and golden hair,
When I observe you walking there,
I would that I had wealth galore,
That I could give you of my store
And place you in a coach and four.
How grandly would you ride! Ah, me,
That you must walk in poverty!
"Nay, nay," she cried; "I do not care."
My heart went dancing light as air:
How beautiful her eyes and hair!
"To have a coach and four, dear Hugh,
A large red touring car would do."
—Lippincott's Magazine.

Money Comes in Bunches.
To A. A. Chisholm, of Treadwell, N. Y., now. His reason is well worth reading: "For a long time I suffered from indigestion, torpid liver, constipation, nervousness and general debility," he writes. "I couldn't sleep, had no appetite, nor ambition, grew weaker every day in spite of medical treatment. Then used Electric Bitters. Twelve bottles restored all my old-time health and vigor. Now I can attend to business every day. It's a wonderful medicine." Infallible for Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, Blood and Nerves. 50c. at Burnaugh & Mayfield's.

Origin of the Word "Mustard."
Our English word "mustard" is traceable to the French "moutarde," the origin of which is curiously given. In 1382 Philip the Bold, duke of Burgundy, granted to the town of Dijon the privilege of bearing his armorial ensigns, with the motto "Moutie tardie" ("I wish ardently"), in return for a handsome contingent of a thousand men furnished to him at his expense. Pleased with the royal concession, the authorities ordered the device to be affixed over the principal gates of the city. Time or accident at length obliterated the middle word and the two remaining, moutie tardie were printed on the labels which the merchants of Dijon pasted on pots in which they sent this commodity all over the world.

If people with symptoms of kidney or bladder trouble could realize their danger they would without loss of time commence taking Foley's Kidney Remedy. This great remedy stops the pain and the irregularities, strengthens and builds up these organs and there is no danger of Bright's disease or other serious disorder. Do not disregard the early symptoms. For sale by Burnaugh & Mayfield.

"No, sir; I will not resign," said the officeholder. "Why should I? There are no charges against me."
"But I understand that charges have been formulated."
"Have, eh? Well, you don't expect me to resign under fire, I hope. Never!"—Philadelphia Ledger.

"How fast does a motor car take you?"
"It depends on what you mean," answered Mr. Chugrina. "Over the roads it goes at the same pace as most of them, but when it comes to running into debt, it's got them all beat."—Washington Star.

"Do you not rejoice on the days when your husband comes home with his salary?"
"Not at all," answered Mrs. Stingy-hub. "It simply means that I must resolve myself into a collection agency for the butcher, the grocer and the landlord."—Kansas City Journal.

Tommy (who had just been chastised by his father)—Mamma, was Adam the first man?
Mamma—Yes, Tommy.
Tommy—Didn't he have any papa?
Mamma—Of course not.
Tommy—Gee, but he was lucky!—Chicago News.

Logical.
Husband—I suppose you realize that was pure luxury. Why, then, did you buy it? You must have known that we couldn't afford it.
Wife—Of course I did. But, you see, my dear, if it had been a necessity we would have had to get it anyway.—New York Life.

Inventor of Roller Skate.
It will surprise many old and young American boys and girls to learn that the inventor of the roller skate was a Dutchman named Merlin, who visited England in 1700. Eight years later he exhibited a "pair of skates contrived to run on wheels" at a museum in London and also gave public exhibition of his prowess in skating over a smooth floor, playing a violin the while. It appears, however, that his demonstrations were on occasions rather more exciting than successful, for it is recorded that he used to fall about and smash into mirrors and pictures which covered the walls of the room.
