Mrs. S. C. Wells, who has been visiting her nephew, J. H. Flowers, left on Monday morning's train for her home in Denver, Colorado.

It is claimed the taking of the dam out at the hatchery has made a big difference in the run of fish, and that there are many salmon in the river now.

Judge A. S. Bennett of The Dalles, a great believer in as well as a large owner of Wallowa county real estate, is in town on court business. He is one of the counsel for W. B. Hunter.

A fine new sidewalk, one of the best in town, now extends to the city limits on the north side of Greenwood street. It is a fine improvement and is a great convenience to the enterprising householders along that pretty street.

Boswell & Son of the Red Front barn have sold three horses, including the fine big draft team of W. A. Moss, to John Caviness of the Grande Ronde for $550. They have bought the well-known team of black ponies of L. E. Jordan.

The Ind. Telephone company has started work stringing a copper line from La Grande to Joseph. The increase in business needs two metallic circuits. A force of men from La Grande started Tuesday. Lloyd's gang will start Thursday.

Friday afternoon's train killed two fine milk cows belonging to W. J. Gollnick. The cattle were in a lane near the old LaCerte place. The cows were of the famous Ayshire breed, and Mr. Gollnick says he wouldn't have taken $125 apiece for them. They were brought from Madison, Wis.

Mrs. J. A. French gave a delightful little party the evening of November 6, in honor of her niece, Miss Nellie Brusha of Pendleton, and of her son, Irving's, seventeenth birthday anniversary. Twenty-five were present and a jolly evening was spent, the enjoyment of delicious refreshments being not the least part of the good time.

R. C. Sagg's of Weston, nephew of Mayor G. W. Staggs of that town, who recently bought the Howard land north of Enterprise, was here the first of the week. He is expecting to move onto the M. Hodge place soon. Other Weston land buyers here were O. C. Turner, who bought the W. J. Watson place, Clyde DeGraw, James Harris and Messrs. Reed and DeGraw.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Read spent Tuesday night with Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Martin. Mr. and Mrs. Read were married, Monday, in La Grande by Reverend McCloud. The bride is the beautiful and popular Lorraine girl, Lenore Goodman, who moved with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Goodman, to Coquille, Coos county, last spring. Miss Goodman came from Coquille meeting Mr. Read at La Grande where they were quietly married at the parsonage of the officiating clergyman. Mr. Read is a fine young man and both he and his bride have many friends who wish them much joy and happiness. They will reside at Lostine.

WEDDING BELLS.

Lee-Leslie.
Miss Agnes Leslie and Augustus F. Lee of Joseph were married in the Enterprise Hotel parlor, Tuesday afternoon, by Circuit Judge Knowles. His Honor says he doesn't make a practice of marrying couples but allows an exception in case of lawyers. Mr. Lee is a brilliant young attorney from Georgia who has resided at Joseph the past summer but will shortly locate in Portland. His bride is one of the fairest daughters of our sister town and has many friends who wish her much happiness.

PARADISE POSTMASTER.

W. C. Straley has been appointed postmaster of Paradise, the news of the appointment reaching him since he came to Enterprise, where he is on jury duty. Mr. Straley is the well known merchant of Paradise. His son Nova, was the former postmaster. Peter Fordney, who also runs a store out there, was also an applicant for the office.

PARADISE.

Paradise, Nov. 12—Snow and rain at present here.

Deputy Sheriff O. S. Clark was here to subpoena witnesses.

O. L. Berland is working the road in Deer Creek.

All schools acknowledge Nature as the real physician and we know that the uncertainty of drugs is a handicap to her processes. At times the fortunate selection and administration of some drug may save life, but what of the thousands and thousands who are hurried to their graves by the unfortunate selection and administration of drugs that prove to be contra-indicated.—Herald of Osteopathy.

Chinese Barbers Don't Use Lather.

"One of the chief trials of the average man is the way his razor pulls when he proceeds to raise the beard from his face," remarked a traveler. "Some years ago I was in China, and I noticed that the cunning barbers of that country, instead of putting lather on the faces of their customers, used a number of very hot towels. I went through the experience and became a convert to the Chinese system. To this day when I go to shave, in lieu of soap, I steam my face with hot water and find that this method takes all the wiriness out of the whiskers far better than lather, so that if the blade is reasonably sharp you can shave without any torture incurred in the 'pulling' process."—Baltimore American.

Athletic Women of Other Days.

A searcher after curious facts has learned that athletic women are by no means a modern product, as is generally believed. They flourished in the days of sal volatile, hoops, patches and snuff—in the days when George II. was king. Ladies of the court took part in races arranged for them at the regular meetings, so that there were lady jockeys as well as gentlemen jockeys, and once a series of foot races for ladies in Hyde park was organized. The first one was run amid great enthusiasm of the populace, and the betting was high. Then stepped in some cross grained old fellow, who persuaded the government that such races were unseemly, and they came to a sudden end.

The Habeas Corpus.

The substance of habeas corpus was given in the famous Magna Charta of 1215, but as today understood the habeas corpus refers to the act of 1679. This act provides that any man taken to prison can insist on being brought by his accuser before a judge, who shall immediately decide whether or not bail is to be given; that the accused shall have the question of his guilt decided by a jury of twelve men and not by a government agent; that no one can be tried twice on the same charge; that every one may insist on being examined within twenty days of his arrest and tried by jury the next session; that no defendant may be sent out of the county for imprisonment.—New York American.

His Sound Sleep.

Lord North slept in the house of commons, says Mr. Spencer Leigh Hughes, more than any other man who ever led it, but even he was awake at times. There was an occasion on which some gentleman was denouncing the noble lord in really very fine style, and the noble lord gave every indication of being not only asleep, but fast asleep and snoring. The indignant member exclaimed, "Sir, even in this crisis in the history of our nation the noble lord is asleep." Lord North opened one eye for one moment and made the memorable remark, "I wish to heaven I was," and then he resumed his attitude of repose.—London Scraps.

division of the Department of Agriculture, who will be in attendance. Others of note will speak.

The convention will be held in the W. O. W. hall on Eleventh street, near Alder. Attendance promises to be unusually large because of the fact that the Oregon State Horticultural society holds its annual meeting just before the dairymen's convention and many will attend both gatherings.

to exhort you to action in regard to the meetings that are going on in Enterprise. There have been a great many souls converted and I know there is not one soul that is not converted that does not feel God's spirit striving with him to become a Christian. So while the Spirit is working let all of us work together for the salvation of every unsaved soul in Enterprise. We need your co-operation and God will bless you in your effort. Your brother in Christ.—Frank Hamblen.

You Hear the Truth.

It is wonderful to see the success Dr. Pratt, the union evangelist speaker, is having. He is a boon to the country and is the kind of an orator that impresses you that he knows what he is about. He puts the truth to you in such a way that you can't help but see where you stand. He is bringing the lost ones to the fold. There have been more than 180 additions to date. When you hear him you hear the truth.—Earl Paack.

Over 175 Converts.

There is no question but that the meetings have been a success in every respect. I will venture that no one at the outset expected as large and as far-reaching results as have already been realized. The work has been quiet, deep and thorough. Had it been a campaign of emotionalism, the fact that about 175 or more have confessed Christ would have been occasion for spreading the news in every paper in this northeastern part of Oregon. As it is, the soul-saving work has gone on so quietly and with so little of the spectacular that people little realize what is being accomplished.

It has been my privilege to take a more or less active part in several evangelistic campaigns. In none have I seen a more sound or simple presentation of the Scriptures; in none, a stronger and more manly appeal to reason and good judgment; in none a more careful instruction of the converts; in none a more urgent insistence upon obedience to the Word, intensity of prayer and open confession. In consequence the conversions have been bright and intelligent. It is hoped that every one will avail themselves of the privilege of the meetings during the few remaining days they are to continue.

S. Harris.

Unity of Spirit.

The Evangelistic campaign being held under the direction of Dr. Pratt is accomplishing a great deal of good. His presentation of the plan of Salvation and his appeal to the reason and conscience is leading those who accept Christ to do so with earnestness and determination. Another good result is the unity of spirit with which all Christian people, both old and new converts, are working together.

J. S. Kay.

Opportunity of Lifetime.

The revival meetings now in progress deserve the support of every person who is interested in the welfare of the community. Dr. Pratt has shown himself to be an able expositor of the Scriptures, and an earnest preacher of righteousness. He has shown an earnest purpose of leading us to "Get Right with God," and is doing his best to establish the converts in the Christian life. These meetings afford an opportunity to learn the way of truth that will not occur again in the lifetime of many of us. You cannot afford to miss this opportunity. C. E. Trueblood.

Unabated Interest.

The union revival meetings at the rink continue this week with unabated interest. The cold weather proves but little hindrance. The house is made quite comfortable and with wraps on no inconvenience is suffered. The work is deep and pervasive. The outward manifestations are encouraging; about 140 have professed faith in Christ. Monday night's theme dealt with social evils. Dr. Pratt spoke in no uncertain sound on the evils of the modern "round dance" where hugging is set to music and inflamed passions hold sway. The round dance permits and displays a liberty between the sexes that no barbarous or heathen people of earth tolerate. It ministers to the lower life and furnishes an ever increasing army, who enter the fallen life, and sell themselves at the altar of lust to demoralized man. If the town people's esteem virtue and have any regard for personal purity they should abominate and flee from this death-breeding plague of your social system.—W. H. Gibson.

Ring of Sincerity.

In reference to the evangelistic meetings now in progress in our city, I desire to say, in my opinion they present a rare opportunity for our people to hear the word of God presented in a clear and convincing manner by a thorough Bible student and teacher. Dr. Pratt is certainly a very forceful speaker, and his earnest desire to preach the truth regardless of any and all criticism appeals to me as being an admirable qualification in a minister of the gospel, and evidently meets with the approval of all who hear him, judging from the large congregations and conversions at these meetings. It is also very evident that our people appreciate hearing the truth boldly expounded by a sincere man of God. Such preaching has the ring of sincerity and earnestness and comes as a two-edged sword to the heart of the unbeliever. It is my earnest desire that every unsaved person in or near Enterprise may attend these meetings and be led to Christ.—G. W. Hyatt.

Spiritual Uplift Wondrous.
The spiritual uplift of our city is wondrous. The moral tone is being magnified. The sheaves of golden grain are being garnered from an abundant harvest. The grace of God reigneth.—W. F. Rankin.

Strengthens Christians.
The evangelistic meetings being conducted by Dr. Pratt at this place cannot be too highly spoken of. His discourses are powerful in strengthening Christian people and warning sinners. There should be a larger attendance and most especially of laborers of the divine origin of the Bible. He is a man of God's word. He is a power on the questionable amusements of the day.—B. F. Miller.

Permanent Good.
A work for good is being done in the union meetings in this town that will be permanent. Christian friend, are you and I doing our part?—G. W. Franklin.

NOTICE TO BIDDERS.
Sealed bids will be received for the work and material for the erection of a steel bridge over the Grande Ronde river at Troy, Oregon, by the County Court of Wallowa County, Oregon, up to Saturday noon, December 11, 1909. The bridge is a single span, 175 feet long, and rests on cylinder piers. Bidders shall submit a lump-sum price for the construction of the sub and superstructure and approaches complete, including the furnishing of all the material and labor, and may be required to furnish satisfactory proof to the County Court of their qualifications, equipment, experience and ability for performing this work expeditiously and satisfactorily. The evidence of a certified check will not be construed as sufficient in this connection. All bids, however, must be accompanied by a certified check for five (5) per cent of the amount of the bid, and the successful bidder will be required to put up a bond for the faithful performance of the work. Right is reserved to reject any and all bids. Complete plans and specifications on file in the office of the County Clerk, to whom all communications should be addressed.
