NEW TRAIL ACROSS GROSSMAN CANYON

BIG CONVENIENCE FOR WEST GROSSMAN PEOPLE—INTER-CANYON NEWS.

Promise, Dec. 29.—A new and better trail has lately been made across the Grossman canyon. It extends from Charley Sanner's homestead, crossing the canyon just below the forks going out on the west side past Mr. Owens. This gives the people of West Grossman an easier access to their mail which comes from Promise and is left on the Promise-Grossman mail route.

Rev. F. G. Potter preached at West Grossman schoolhouse Sunday to a fair-sized audience. He announced another service for the fourth Sunday morning of next month at 11 o'clock.

Mrs. Robinson and family, who have been in Wallowa during their sickness, have moved back to their homestead.

Mr. Abbot has commenced hauling lumber for Mr. Colpitts. The three Bursell brothers are sawing logs at Br. Colpitts for the mill.

Mr. and Mrs. Birdie Serette are visiting friends at Utopia this week. Rev. F. G. Potter will preach at Promise Sunday morning, Jan. 2, and at Utopia, Jan. 9, at 11 a. m.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Clomons spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Wray of Wallowa.

Miss Kate Ma'tory was reported as being a little better when last heard from.

Cannon Is Enemy Of Real Progress

Speaker Set Against Measures That Help Oregon and All Northwest.

The Portland Journal epitomizes the reasons why Joe Cannon is a stench in the nostrils of decent men everywhere regardless of party, in the following vigorous summing up: Cannon is narrow, fossilized, bigoted, vindictive, vengeful and in every way set against progress and the interests of the people. He stands against waterways, against reclamation of arid lands, against postal savings banks, against the parcel post, against conservation of coal lands and other national resources, against lessening the burdens of the people by lower tariff taxes. He stands for everything that colossal robbers of the common people want, for every swindling joker and trick in tariff trust, the steel trust, the coal trust, and every other chousing and gouging scheme of syndicated capitalists and vampires that can be proposed.

And the twin burden and iniquity of Cannonism in the house is Aldrichism in the senate. They are becoming intolerable to the rank and file of Republican voters, and either the Republican party will unload them in the near future or it will go out of business.

Chocolate Nut Sticks.

First mix carefully together one cupful of fine granulated sugar, one fourth of a cupful of melted butter, one unbeaten egg, two squares unsweetened chocolate (melted) three fourths of a teaspoonful of vanilla one half of cupful of flour and one half of a cupful of English walnut meats cut in pieces. Line a seven-inch-square pan with paraffin paper and spread mixture evenly in pan. Bake in slow oven. As soon as removed from oven turn from pan, and remove paper; then cut cake in strips, using a long, sharp knife. If these directions are not followed the paper will cling to the cake and it will be impossible to cut it in shapely pieces.—Woman's Home Companion for December.

A card from M. L. Harris at Flora says he and his cousin, J. M. Reed, have moved onto the farms near there recently purchased by them.

WEDDING BELLS.

M. M. Brown, a prosperous young rancher of this vicinity, and Miss Nettie Horrell of Elgin were married at Elgin, Sunday, December 26. The bride is a highly respected young lady in her home town, and is a sister of Mrs. Orville Littleton. Mr. and Mrs. Littleton, who now reside in Baker City, attended the wedding.

Inexpensive Candle-Shades.

At the five and ten cent store may be found Japanese candle-shades made with black lacquer frames and (generally) red Japanese paper. Tear out the paper and replace with panels of grass-cloth, silk, satin or even paper, which may be decorated with some artistic design, if preferred. This is an excellent way to follow out the color scheme of table decorations for dinner or luncheon in the candle-shades.—Woman's Home Companion for December.

Ready For Short Term At Corvallis

Animal Husbandry Department At O. A. C. Making Extensive Plans.

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Dec. 30.—Special.—The animal husbandry department of the Oregon Agricultural College is now hard at work making quite extensive plans for the coming short course to be held from January 4 to February 12. Work will be given in veterinary science, breeding, feeding and judging. The feeding and judging will be the most complete. The judging will consist of actual practice in judging at the barns. All the stock of the college will be available for this purpose, and in addition some very fine animals will be shipped in for the occasion. A. C. Ruby of Portland will ship down 12 head of his very fine imported stallions from that city among which will be three Percherons, three Belgians, three Shires and three German Coaches. Most of these animals have been imported during the past few months and are a very high class of horses. They will be a show in themselves. However, they will not be here all of the time during the short course, but only during the second week, January 9 to 15.

Another feature will be the Short-horns and Southdowns sent by Frank Brown of Charleston, during the fifth week of the course. The Short-horns will include the great bull Wapate and a number of females of well known merit. The Southdowns will include some of the prize winners that made such a stir at the fall fairs.

No entrance requirements are made for any of this work and it is intended that work will be of such a nature that it will benefit any one from the inexperienced boy to the expert stock man. Fare of one and one-third on all railroads.

CHURCH SERVICES. M. E. Church: There will be Roll Call and Church Rally services at the M. E. church next Sunday at 11 a. m. J. A. Burleigh will give an address and there will be special music and reception of members. Every member of the church is especially requested to be present. Preaching by the pastor at 7:30 p. m. Other services at usual hours. Everybody invited to these services. Rev. C. E. Trueblood, pastor.

Retaliation gratifies the flesh, but never answers argument. A skunk can not help being a skunk, and it seems very foolish to me for any decent animal to try to outskunk his stinkship. You leave the skunk in his proper element, while the other bears the scent of association, or at least of assimilation. If one feeds, moves and has his being in ugly, unjust criticism of brethren, then pray as Paul did, for God to deliver you from unreasonable and ungodly men. The natural food of a buzzard is carrion. Shall you, brother, go and eat food with the buzzard in order to teach his buzzardship the folly of eating such food? If so, you will be nauseated and carry away the stench of the buzzard, but will never convince him that carrion is not good food—for buzzards.

Brethren, think on these things and quit trying to outskunk the smutty fellow. "J. W. Denton."

To Our Friends and Customers and also those who are not our customers we wish A HAPPY NEW YEAR. Our business relations for the past year have for the most part been pleasant, with the exception that our re-building and consequent confusion has prevented us from giving at all times the prompt service that we wish to give. Our troubles in that line are now nearly over, however, and we want you to call on us in our new and enlarged quarters. Our stock will be larger and more thoroughly departmentized and our aim will be to keep every department stocked with the latest and best goods and to guarantee satisfaction in every detail. We are offering special inducements now in a great many lines of seasonable goods, especially Ladies' Coats and Furs. Come in and see us anyway. W. J. FUNK & CO.
