As Sometimes Happens.

"You'd like to have me give this a notice, I presume," said the literary editor.

"Indeed, I would," answered the author of the book; "the best in the world."

But the conscientious literary editor, after reading it, classified it as one of the worst in the world.

A Matter of Necessity.

"Papa, why don't you close your store on Christmas?"

"Why, child, mine's a cigar store. People have got to have their smokes on Christmas, same as any other day."

Her Indorsement.

"I want to get this check cashed," said the fair young matron, appearing at the window of the paying teller.

"Yes, madam. You must indorse it, though," explained the teller.

"Why, my husband sent it to me. He is away on business," she said.

"Yes, madam. Just indorse it—sign it on the back, so we will know and your husband will know we paid it to you."

She went to the desk against the wall, and in a few moments presented the check triumphant, having written on its back:

"Your loving wife, Edith."

To Be Sure.

"I see," observed the boarder who was looking over the newspaper, "an item here to the effect that wood pulp is likely to be used soon in the making of soups and plum pudding."

"Well, why not?" said the argumentative boarder. "Nothing is impossible to science. Don't you know that the Saratoga chip of commerce is made from basswood, shaved thin across the grain?"

SHIP SINKS WITH 156

Fierce Mediterranean Storm Drives Vessel on Reef.

ONE SURVIVOR REACHES LAND

Clings to Wreckage Until Picked Up by Fishermen—Engine Broke Down During Storm.

Palma, Island of Majorca, Feb. 12.—Driven helplessly from her course in one of the wildest storms that has swept the Mediterranean sea in 40 years, the French trans-Atlantic steamer General Chanzy crashed at full speed, in the dead of night, on the treacherous reefs near the Island of Minorca, and all except one of the 15 persons on board perished.

The sole survivor is an Algerian customs official, Marcel Rodet, who was rescued by a fisherman and who lies tonight in the hospital at Ciudadela, raving, as a result of the tortures through which he passed and unable to give an account of the disaster.

In the ship's company there were 87 passengers, of whom 30 were first cabin. The crew numbered 70. It is thought that there were no Americans on board.

The ship was in command of Captain Cayol, one of the most careful officers of the line. In his long experience he had never met with an accident. He had intended to retire from the service soon.

Passengers of the Chanzy were mostly officers and officials returning to their posts in Algeria, accompanied by their wives and children; a few soldiers, some Italians and Turks and one priest.

The only Anglo-Saxon names on the passenger list were Green and Stakely. They were members of an opera troupe of 11 that had been engaged to sing at the Casino in Algiers.

Among the victims of the wreck was the celebrated music-hall singer, Francis Dufor, as well as other prominent music-hall favorites.

The General Chanzy struck at 9 o'clock Thursday night, after Captain Cayol, with all his experience, had been unable to cope with the tempest of almost unprecedented violence.

Other ships in the neighborhood had safely ridden out the storm, but the Chanzy fell prey to the elements, was lifted off her course through the Balearic archipelago and brought on the coast of Majorca, near Ciudadela.

Fishermen at daybreak picked up Rodet, clinging to a piece of wreckage.

REVISED BIBLE IS READY.

Task of 38 Years Ended by London Scholars.

London, Feb. 12.—Bible students are keenly interested in the announcement of a new edition of a revised version of the New Testament, with full marginal references. The task has taken 38 years, having been begun in 1871 by the late Dr. Frederick H. Scrivener and the late Professor Moulton. The revised version published in 1898 contained only abridged references.

In recent years Drs. J. H. Moulton and A. W. Greenup have been engaged in completing the work. To many verses of gospel and epistles they have added nearly 100 marginal references, each bearing upon the text or meaning of the verse.

"I often worked 10 to 13 hours a day during my vacations," said Dr. Greenup, today. "To aid me I had large sheets printed with gospel text in large type and the amplest margins. On these I compiled a list of references. Reference to a single verse occupied me, from first to last, 13 years, returning to it, as I did, over and over again."

"The publication will take place in a few days and I presume the Bible students throughout the world will want the new work."

Davenport Quits East.

Middletown, N. Y., Feb. 12.—The Arabian horses, cattle, and other livestock owned by Homer Davenport, the famous cartoonist, which have been on exhibition at Senator Richardson's farm near Goshen, Orange county, were shipped to California today. The lease of one year on the Richardson farm has nearly expired. Owing to the action for divorce instituted by Mrs. Davenport and the condition of his health, it is not believed the cartoonist will return East. He is ill in San Diego, Cal.

$4,000,000 for Flood Victims.

Paris, Feb. 12.—The Seine rose only a few inches during the night and the hydrographic authorities predicted that the high level would be reached tomorrow, and would be about eight inches less than anticipated. The chamber of deputies unanimously voted the $4,000,000 for the aid of the flood victims which had been asked by the cabinet. The senate unanimously concurred with the chamber in the action. Many millions more will be needed.

Fortunes of War.

"But, Senator," asked the reporter, "who is to pay the cost of placing the country on a complete war footing and keeping it there?"

"My dear boy," said Senator Lotsum, "it's a tossup between our posterity and the posterity of some European or Asiatic power, and really doesn't interest us. Try one of those imported perfectos."
