

A Safeguard To Children.
 "Our two children of six and eight years have been since infancy subject to colds and croup. About three years ago I started to use Foley's Honey and Tar, and it has never failed to prevent and cure these troubles. It is the only medicine I can get the children to take without a row." The above from W. C. Ornstein, Green Bay, Wis., duplicates the experience of thousands of other users of Foley's Honey and Tar. It cures coughs, colds and croup, and prevents bronchitis and pneumonia. For sale by Burnaugh & Mayfield.

A Star That Winks.
 There is in the constellation Pegasus a little variable star that may reasonably be said to wink. Two or three times in the course of a single night this curious star can be seen to fade and then to brighten like a signal light. For about two and three-quarter hours it becomes fainter and fainter. Then comes a change, and at the end of two and three-quarter hours more it is as bright as at the beginning. Unfortunately it can be seen only with a telescope. Yet it ranks as a sun.—Harper's Weekly.

LaGrippe pains that pervade the entire system, LaGrippe coughs that rack and strain, are quickly cured by Foley's Honey and Tar. Its mildly laxative, safe and certain result Ancestors of the Ostrich.

 The ostrich is a descendant of a genus of bird which in prehistoric times attained an enormous size. In the alluvial deposits of Madagascar evidence has been found to show that ostriches fourteen and fifteen feet in height once lived on the island.

Fully nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism is simply rheumatism of the muscles due to cold or damp, or chronic rheumatism, neither of which require any internal treatment. All that is needed to afford relief is the free application of Chamberlain's Liniment. Give it a trial. You are certain to be pleased with the quick relief which it affords. Sold by all druggists.

For Their Own Calves.
 A couple of young men were out fishing one day and on returning were going past a farmhouse and felt hungry. They yelled to the farmer's daughters, "Girls, have you any buttermilk?" The reply was gently wafted back to their ears, "Yes, but we keep it for our own calves."
 The boys calculated that they had business away, and they went.

Sore Lungs and Raw Lungs.
 Most people know the feeling, and the miserable state of ill health it indicates. All people should know that Foley's Honey and Tar, the greatest throat and lung remedy, will quickly cure the soreness and cough and restore a normal condition. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar. For sale by Burnaugh & Mayfield.

Brilliant Idea.
 Fire Brigade Chief (to member arriving late)—What do you mean by turning up when the fire is finished?
 Member—I live three miles away from here, sir.
 Chief—Well, you'd better move and live nearer here.—Bon Vivant.

More people take Foley's Kidney Remedy every year. It is considered the most effective remedy for all kidney and bladder troubles that medical science can devise. Foley's Kidney Remedy corrects irregularities, builds up the system, and restores lost vitality. For sale by Burnaugh & Mayfield.

Tommy to the Rescue.
 Tommy's idea of punishment is being sent up to the school principal's room. When he went to Sunday school the well meaning teacher asked him if he knew where bad little boys go.
 "Yes, sir," Tommy promptly responded.
 "And do you know about the terrible being who rules there?" the teacher went on.
 Tommy stared in surprise.
 "Gee," he indignantly cried, "our principal ain't so bad as that!"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Hoarse Coughs, Stuffy Colds, pain in chest and sore lungs, are symptoms that quickly develop into a dangerous illness if the cold is not cured. Foley's Honey and Tar stops the cough, heals and eases the congested parts, and brings quick relief. For sale by Burnaugh & Mayfield.

Female Diplomacy.
 "My dear," he said, "I forgot to post that letter this morning."
 "Oh, you dear!" she cried. "That was just what I wanted. Now I can blame you when that supercilious Sadie complains that I don't answer her notes."—Exchange.

When You Need
 Foley's Orino Laxative. When you have that dull, heavy, feverish feeling, accompanied by constipation. When you have headache, indigestion, biliousness, pain in stomach and bowels, then you need Foley's Orino Laxative. It moves the bowels freely and gently, and thoroughly clears the intestinal tract. It does not gripe or nauseate and cures constipation. For sale by Burnaugh & Mayfield.

Choosing Colors For Houses.
 The safe colors for a house besides red are white, gray, yellow and brown, says a writer in Scribner's. Yellow or gray, with white trimmings, suits many a plain pitched roofed or square colonial house. Grays and browns are good for ugly nondescript ones, the grays always being pleasanter on the yellow shades than on cold blue tones. White suggests the formal type again. It is very good color for a country house, showing it up from a distance in fascinating glimpses, for it needs trees about it and flowers to sparkle against its walls. Such a house will be attractive when the leaves are gone from the trees, for the bare boughs will serve to soften the effect.

Don't Break Down.
 Severe strains on the vital organs, like strains on machinery, cause break-downs. You can't over-tax stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels or nerves without serious danger to yourself. If you are weak or run-down, or under strain of any kind, take Electric Bitters, the matchless tonic medicine. Mrs. J. E. Van de Sande, of Kirkland, Ill., writes: "That I did not break down, while enduring a most severe strain, for three months, is due wholly to Electric Bitters." Use them and enjoy health and strength. Satisfaction positively guaranteed. 50c. at all druggists.

WOMAN AND FASHION

House Party Frock.
 A most convenient and attractive dress to slip into the trunk for a house party. It is simple, will not take long to make and may be adapted for evening or afternoon, according to the material used. The illustration shows it made of olive green velvet, with tunic and sleeves of silk cashmere of same color. The yoke and lower part of the sleeves are tucked chiffon cloth of self color over net threaded with gold. A narrow band of black satin edges the tunic, and the whole is further trimmed with soutache in a darker shade of green. The tunic is belted in front, while in back it wrinkles gracefully at the waist and is fastened on the sides with a single large button. A touch of black is used on the sleeves and around the top of the collar. The velvet underskirt is of a plain circular cut.

Rhinestone Hatpins.
 Now that hatpins play such an important part in the accessories of the correctly dressed girl and woman they are much more carefully chosen and matched up than formerly. Four, at the least, are required to hold the modern hat securely on the head, and in many cases five and six are worn.
 It is the correct thing this winter, as it was last summer, to have the hatpins alike; if not in shape, the stones should be the same, and in the arts and crafts pins the design and enamel correspond in each.
 The preferred pin for this winter is set with rhinestones, the huge head being in cabochon, oval or diamond shape. With the satiny beaver hats and those of silky fur and panne velvet these pins are exceptionally smart. Another very good looking set of pins has huge cloudy cabochon sapphires surrounded with tiny rhinestones, and those of faceted jet are also popular.

Gaiters to Match Your Hat.
 It is English and a custom which many women on this side have adopted to look carefully to the gaiters when out for a walk.
 They are checked and are worn to match the covered hat. Blue and white gaiters look smart with a blue turban, gray and white with the gray, brown and black with the brown, and so on through the variety of tones of this winter's millinery.
 This "mania for matching," as one observing man called it, necessitates a good supply of gaiters, but the possession of a variety gives a certain distinct individuality to the outfit of a woman.

Velvet In the Hair.
 Women who can wear a fat band around the head, and the majority of them can, are substituting this for the heavy coil of hair worn under the hat. The ribbon is for evening and makes the coiffure quite brilliant. It carries out the color scheme of the gown. The pastel shades, which are commonly considered suitable for the hair, are rarely used. Instead one sees plum purple, royal blue, burgundy red, plum black, jade green and sapphire.
 Satin and velvet ribbon are used; also tulle. The oriental style of using this ribbon is to finish it above the ears with gemmed cabochons.

New Umbrella Top.
 One of the big shops shows distinctly new and clever inventions in umbrella tops. There is a fattened round gold top which opens with a tiny spring to disclose a fascinating little variety box with mirror framed in the gold top, crystal lined hollow for powder and a tiny puff.
 The lid of the box is jeweled or engraved with a monogram.
 Other umbrellas with tall directorio handles have leashes of plaited leather thongs in red, green and white curled around them like a whip.

Brocade Blouses.
 Blouses of brocade are being worn with the high waisted tailored skirts and long coats to complete the street costume. They are velled with net and chiffon in the color of the suit and are most attractive.
 With elaborate costumes blouses of flowered brocade are worn, and these are velled with fine spotted net or rows and rows of fine valenciennes lace joined with fine gold or silver braid.

Humbling a Lawyer.
 A prominent Indianapolis lawyer tells a story of a letter he dictated to a new stenographer to a client in Cincinnati. The client, a new one, had asked his opinion as to certain business relations here. He dictated like this:

"Dear Sirs—Yours of the 6th inst. at hand. My first blush opinion as to the matter," etc.
 The new stenographer wrote the letter and submitted it to the lawyer. Since she was a new stenographer he read the letter with care—to his everlasting relief. She had written it:
 "Dear Sirs—Yours of the 6th inst. at hand. My first gush of opinion as to the matter," etc.—Indianapolis Star.

It Saved His Leg.
 "All thought I'd lose my leg," writes J. A. Swensen, of Watertown, Wis. "Ten years of eczema, that 15 doctors could not cure, had at last laid me up. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured it, sound and well." Infallible for skin eruptions, eczema, salt rheum, boils, fever sores, burns, scalds, cuts and piles. 25c at all druggists.

Ekimo Wrestling.
 Next to gambling the Ekimo men like to wrestle. The usual way of doing this is a test rather of strength than skill. The wrestlers sit down on the floor or in any convenient place side by side and facing in opposite directions, say with right elbows touching. Then they lock arms, and each strives to straighten out the other's arm.
 Medicines that aid nature are always most successful. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy acts on this plan. It loosens the cough, relieves the lungs, opens the secretions and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. Sold by all druggists.

Throwing Rice.
 Throwing rice at a wedding symbolizes not the expression of good luck, but it is a metaphorical flight of arrows shot at the bridegroom. In uncivilized ages most nations were accustomed to the forcible capture of a bride by her lover, and the attempts on the part of her male relatives to prevent her husband from carrying her away is typified by a volley of rice instead of more fatal missiles.

The Lash of a Fiend would have been about as welcome to A. Cooper of Oswego, N. Y., as a merciless lung-racking cough that defied all remedies for years. "It was most troublesome at night," he writes, "nothing helped me till I used Dr. King's New Discovery which cured me completely. I never cough at night now." Millions know its matchless merit for stubborn colds, obstinate coughs, sore lungs, grippe, asthma, hemorrhage, croup, whooping cough, or hay fever. It relieves quickly and never fails to satisfy. A trial convinces. 50c, $1.00, trial bottle free. It's positively guaranteed by all druggists.
