ORDINANCE.

An Ordinance prohibiting the sale or disposal of spirituous, malt, vinous or any intoxicating liquors within the corporate limits of the City of Enterprise, Oregon; providing for the regulation of the sale of intoxicating liquors upon prescription; defining common nuisances and providing for the abatement thereof within the corporate limits of said City of Enterprise, and providing penalties for the violation of this ordinance.

The city of Enterprise does ordain as follows:

Section 1. No person or persons shall sell, exchange, barter or give away, within the corporate limits of the City of Enterprise, Oregon, any spirituous, malt, vinous or any intoxicating liquors, provided, however, that the provisions of this ordinance shall not apply to the sale of wines to church officials for sacramental purposes, nor to the sale of alcoholic stimulants used as a medicine, provided such alcoholic stimulants for medicinal purposes shall be sold upon the written prescription of a regularly licensed and practicing physician.

Section 2. All places within the corporate limits of said City of Enterprise wherein any spirituous, malt, vinous or other intoxicating liquors are sold, or shall be sold, bartered or given away in violation of this ordinance, or where idle or dissolute persons congregate or are permitted to congregate for the purpose of drinking any of the liquors described in Section 1 of this ordinance, or in which any person or persons are permitted to remain and lounge about, or where any of said liquors described in said section 1 of this ordinance are kept for sale, exchange, barter or gift, as a beverage, are hereby declared to be a common nuisance, and any person or persons keeping or maintaining any place within the corporate limits of said City of Enterprise, wherein any of the liquors described in said section 1 of this ordinance, are sold, bartered, exchanged or given away in violation of this ordinance, shall upon conviction thereof before the City Recorder of said City of Enterprise, be fined in a sum of not less than Ten Dollars, and not more than Fifty Dollars, or be imprisoned in the City Jail of said City of Enterprise for not less than five days nor more than twenty-five days, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of said City Recorder.

Section 3. In all prosecutions under this ordinance, it shall not be necessary to allege the kind of such spirituous, malt, vinous or other intoxicating liquors sold; nor to show the knowledge of the principal to convict for the acts of an agent or servant; and in all cases the persons to whom any of the liquors described in Section 1 of this ordinance shall be sold in violation of this ordinance, shall be competent witnesses. The possession of a license or internal revenue special tax stamp issued by the federal government to any person for the sale of any of the liquors described in said section 1 of this ordinance, shall be prima facie evidence that such person is selling, exchanging or giving away the above mentioned liquors in violation of this ordinance.

Section 4. Whenever it appears to the said City Recorder of said City of Enterprise, by affidavit or duly verified complaint showing a probable violation of this ordinance and describing the place, and if known, the name of the person or persons, violating the provisions of this ordinance, said City Recorder shall issue a warrant commanding the City Marshal of said City of Enterprise, to search such place and fully and completely inspect the premises of such person or persons, and if the law or this ordinance is being violated, to arrest and complain against and prosecute all such persons found violating the same.

Section 5. Any person or persons found guilty of violating or failing to comply with the provisions of this ordinance, other than section 2 thereof, which provides a penalty for the violation thereof, shall be by said City Recorder of said City of Enterprise, punished by a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than fifty dollars, or be imprisoned in the City Jail not less than five days nor more than twenty-five days, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of said City Recorder.

ty-five days, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of said City Recorder, and in case any person shall be convicted a second time for violating any of the provisions of this ordinance, such person shall be punished for the second and each subsequent offense by both fine and imprisonment in the City Jail.

Section 6. Inasmuch as there is an urgent necessity for the immediate passage of this ordinance in order to promote the health, peace and good order of the inhabitants of said City of Enterprise, an emergency is hereby declared to exist, and this ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and approval by the Mayor of said City, and its publication in one issue in the News Record on the 26th day of March, 1910.

Approved this 25th day of March, A. D. 1910.

B. MAYFIELD, Mayor.

Attest: W. E. TAGGART, City Recorder.

Beggary.
King Cophetua, as the story runs, had wed the beggar maid and was suspecting nothing when to his considerable uneasiness he discovered that his wife was worth $10,000,000 in her own right.

"What faux pas have I been unwittingly guilty of?" exclaimed his majesty, for he was very scrupulous. The queen tapped his cheek roguishly. "In Pittsburg, where I was brought up," she explained, "a girl who has only $10,000,000 is to all practical purposes a beggar."

And if he thought with regret of the ideals of a former age it was too late to insist on them.—Puck.

The Midnight Oil.
A hush is over all. The noisy town, wearied of strenuous work, is gone to rest. To sleep, childlike, upon its mother's breast, while silence, like some huge and somber crown, upon the peaceful night comes brooding down. Anon there echoes from the neighboring dark in answer to gay roisters the bark of honest watchdog. In a shabby gown, with locks unkempt, the room in disarray, all heedless of the rapid flight of time, working while others sleep in broken chair. That mournful creaks to his frail body's sway, and fingers moving to a merry rhyme. The poet darts his socks, his only pair.—Judge.

Up to Date Domestic.
Having recently engaged an eighteen-year-old colored girl to do housework, a New York woman was adjusting the various questions of privileges. "You will have Monday and Thursday nights off, Eliza," the mistress of the house said. "On'y Monday 'n' Thursday nights!" the other exclaimed, rolling her eyes. "My Lawd, Mis' Blank, dat won't do now. Dat ain't enough. You see, ma'am, I's a debyttante!"—New York Sun.

Weatherby's Ride.
Swift as a shot in his automobile Weatherby sped, with fate at the wheel. Swift as a rocket the first mile was run; Fifty-three seconds the second was done. Lo, but the third was even faster than that! How the wind whistled through Weatherby's hat! Then on the fourth they literally flew. Sudden a roudhouse hove into view. There they slowed down and went in for a "wink." Thus was Weatherby driven to drink.—Buffalo News.

A Perfect Disguise.
"Was Jimmie Ruffhouse at the masquerade?" asked Willoughby. "Yes," replied Addleton. "He had the most perfect disguise I ever saw. Nobody recognized him." "What did he go as?" asked Willoughby. "A gentleman," said Addleton.—Judge.

When Money Came.
When money came a-jinglin' I said, "Here is my chance!" It sounded like a fiddle, And I took my place to dance. All night they heard me shuffle Until the break o' day, But the tune was changed completely When the fiddler was to pay!—Atlanta Constitution.

Precaution.
He—If you love me, why did you at first refuse me? She—I wanted to see what you would do. He—But I might have rushed off without waiting for an explanation. She—I had the door locked.—Spokane Spokesman-Review.

Storming.
"Twins on the ocean first we met. Mid bounding waves and passing ships I brought my batteries to bear And stormed her fascinating lips. We married, and, like other men, I sometimes got home late to tea. She gets provoked, and thus, I find, The lips I stormed now storm at me."—Yonkers Statesman.

A Highbrow.
"They say Min has went and married a highbrow." "Yes; he's one of them guys that always waits till they're through eating before he drinks his coffee and then don't put any milk in it."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Courtship Pointers.
When she says the clock's correct She is neutral, we suspect. When she says the clock is fast You are making time at last. When she says the clock is slow You are done for; better go.—Pittsburg Post.

A Better Style.
"Are you fashionable enough to get into the divorce courts?" "My dear, how behind the times you are! Why, I belong to the up to date set that keeps out of them!"—Cleveland Leader.

Inconsistent.
The manager canned the leading dame Because she kicked and cut up rough. He also fired the gay soubrette Because she didn't kick enough.—St. Paul Dispatch.

The Natural Reason.
"Why is Mrs. Cashitt's fine new whispering gallery, with its rubber plants, so unpopular?" "Paradoxically because it is a telling success."—Baltimore American.

Merely a Suggestion.
Wills of rich men oft remind us, If in our graves we'd rest content, We should in dying leave behind us For heirs and lawyers—not a cent.—Judge's Library.

Joy and Boy.
Old Boy—I get up early for the sun and air. New Pop—I get up at all hours. Same reason. Son and heir.—Brownings Magazine.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are safe, sure and reliable, and have been praised by thousands of women who have been restored to health through their gentle aid and curative properties. Sold by all druggists.

Some folks think the president made a mistake in trying the pinchout on the insubordinate forester and burned his fingers.

Not wise to allow zero weather to tempt you to spend all your savings until next summer's ice bills come in.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets invariably bring relief to women suffering from chronic constipation, headache, biliousness, dizziness, saltness of the skin and dyspepsia. Sold by all druggists.

That's the Trouble.
"Few people can talk on all subjects." "I know it. But most everybody does."—Exchange.

Medicines that aid nature are always most successful. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy acts on this plan. It loosens the cough, relieves the lungs, opens the secretions and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. Sold by all druggists.

A Shivery Jest.
"What does chivalry mean, Tommy?" "Please, ma'am, it's when you feel cold."—Lippincott's.

A Man of Iron Nerve.
Indomitable will and tremendous energy are never found where stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels are out of order. If you want these qualities and the success they bring, use Dr. King's New Life Pills, the matchless regulators, for keen brain and strong body. 25c at all druggists.

Lincoln's Funeral Coach.
That the first Pullman sleeping car, constructed in 1864 in the shops of the Alton and Chicago and called the Pioneer, served as a funeral coach for President Lincoln will be news to many persons. Its cost was $18,000, which was regarded in those days as most extravagant, and as it was higher and wider than the ordinary cars and so wider and higher than the clearances of station platforms and bridges when it was decided that it should be the funeral coach of the president many changes were involved. Gangs of men were set working night and day to cut wider clearances all the way from Washington (by way of New York and Albany) to Springfield Ill.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Fully nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism is simply rheumatism of the muscles due to cold or damp, or chronic rheumatism, neither of which require any internal treatment. All that is needed to afford relief is the free application of Chamberlain's Liniment. Give it a trial. You are certain to be pleased with the quick relief which it affords. Sold by all druggists.

The Chinaman's Dress.
Those who understand the subject have to admit that when it comes to the question of rational dress the Chinaman has very much the best of it. American clothes are not made for the performance of much stooping or domestic gymnastics, but the Chinaman in his loose, easy fitting clothes is as free to stoop, jump, run or turn hand-springs as a small boy in bathing. In a Chinese suit of clothes you can lie down and sleep with the same amount of comfort that you can stand up and walk.

Don't Break Down.
Severe strains on the vital organs, like strains on machinery, cause break-downs. You can't over-tax stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels or nerves without serious danger to yourself. If you are weak or run-down, or under strain of any kind, take Electric Bitters, the matchless tonic medicine. Mrs. J. E. Van de

No Latitude.
An Irish school inspector was examining a class in geography. He had propounded a question regarding longitude and received a correct answer from the lad undergoing the ordeal. "And now," he said, "what is latitude?" After a brief silence a bright youngster, with a merry twinkle in his eye, said: "Please, sir, we have no latitude in Ireland.
