H. W. Hough, a prosperous rancher living five miles from Enterprise, visited Enterprise on business Monday of this week.

Mr. Hough owns a large acreage on Swamp Creek, and has in considerable wheat and 150 acres of rye. He states that this fall he will put in all the winter wheat he is able to get in.

Elmer E. Shawl, traveling representative for the Crescent Manufacturing company of Seattle, Wash., was in Enterprise during the past week.

An era of building is expected in Enterprise during the coming summer. Business places and residences will doubtless be erected with steady persistence, and Enterprise continue her determined growth in keeping with the continued settlement of the county.

Mrs. Polk Mays of Joseph spent Tuesday in LaGrande.

Mrs. O. J. Roe returned Tuesday evening from LaGrande whither she had gone with her father, Mr. Assmus of Wisconsin who returned to his home after a year's visit with Mr. and Mrs. Roe. Mrs. Roe accompanied him as far as LaGrande.

Jack Curran, once a resident of Joseph, now one of the most successful capitalists of Seattle, Wash., spent some time in Joseph last week over the project of erecting a two-story brick building in that place.

A. C. Miller, recently returned from a flying trip through the northern portion of the county, speaks enthusiastically of the outlook for Wallowa, but states that the season, this year, seems to be further advanced here about Enterprise than in the northernmost sections of the county. This, he believes, is occasioned by the exceedingly heavy snows up there during the past winter, keeping the ground too moist for spring work at the usual time.

CHURCH SERVICES.

Fred Zumwalt has bought two lots in Alder View addition from Daniel Boyd. Mr. Boyd is fast disposing of his holdings in this part of town having only six lots left from his original 54. This is a very desirable residence section and is building up rapidly.

Pioneer Visits Enterprise.

J. J. Blevins, ex-representative and one of the pioneer school teachers of Wallowa county, now living at Joseph, visited friends and acquaintances in Enterprise this week. Mr. Blevins is one of the best known residents of Eastern Oregon.

OSTEOPATHY'S SUCCESS IN RHEUMATISM

Osteopathy will clear up the blood by stimulating the kidneys and liver, also by regulating the bowels; by limiting the diet and keeping the skin clean the impurity is soon thrown out of the system and the rheumatism is gone. This is a natural and most permanent result. Some people who have sore inflamed muscles and joints from rheumatism say that they can't bear to be touched, hence osteopathy is not the treatment for them. This is a mistake. The tender joints and muscles do not have to be manipulated. There is no hurting required even in the most severe cases. The osteopath will merely go to the nerve centers in the spine for the kidneys and liver to increase the excretions. This will soon clear up the soreness by removing the deleterious material, that is causing the trouble, from the system.—Herald of Osteopathy.

PENDELTON MAN EXPECTS TO LOCATE PERMANENTLY.

Charles L. May, a resident of Pendleton, left Enterprise Wednesday morning, returning temporarily to his home city, expecting to come shortly to Enterprise to make his home here. He will settle on a stock ranch within a few miles of the county seat city. Mr. May has been looking around here for some time, seeking a location for a stock farm, and has found a place to suit him. While reticent as to the exact location he expects to make, Mr. May stated to a reporter that he will doubtless return here to locate permanently.

O. J. ROE SELLS MORE OF FINE FRUIT RANCH.

O. J. Roe last Saturday morning closed a deal with J. S. Fuller of North Yakima, Wash., for the sale of sixty acres of his fine Alder View fruit ranch, and for quick sales this probably beats anything of the kind in the county.

Mr. Fuller, who has been living near North Yakima, Wash., where improved fruit land is selling as high as $2,500 an acre, arrived in Enterprise last Friday evening, with a view of looking Wallowa county for fruit lands. Saturday morning Mr. Purdin, who lives near Mr. Roe's farm and at whose home Mr. Fuller was visiting, phoned to Mr. Roe and asked to meet him in the field. This was about 6:30 and by 7:30 everything pertaining to the sale was settled with the exception of making out the papers.

Mr. Fuller has been traveling over several of the fruit growing states of the west and says he saw nothing that pleased him so much as the land around Enterprise, hence his purchase of the sixty acres of Mr. Roe's farm.

Mr. Fuller will immediately set to work and put in fruit and will move his family here as soon as possible to make their future home on their new possession.

Mr. Roe still has 160 acres left of his ranch and says he can now more easily take care of his fruit raising and consequently produce better fruit.

FORMER WALLOWA COUNTY RESIDENT PASSES AWAY.

Mrs. Emaline Akins, aged 35 years, a former resident of Wallowa county, at Paradise, was taken seriously ill at Astoria, Wash., of rheumatic fever, and died there last Sunday morning. Mrs. Akins had a mother in Elgin, Mrs. Caroline Ray, who arrived at Astoria upon receiving word of the serious illness of her daughter. The remains were interred in the Astoria cemetery. The deceased was the mother of four children, all of whom are living, one being married. The married child resides in the reservation country, in Washington. The three minor children returned to Elgin with their relatives, where they will remain permanently. Mrs. Akins had removed from Wallowa county but two months ago, and was stricken with rheumatic fever about two weeks ago. Their many friends throughout Wallowa county will be deeply grieved at the demise of so good a friend and so helpful a mother.

The residence property on West First street, being erected by Mr. Emmons, is rapidly nearing completion.

TRAVELING MAN SPEAKS WELL OF THIS COUNTY.

Mr. Thomas Duncan, traveling salesman for the Wadham & Company, wholesale grocers of Portland, passed through Enterprise last week. In a brief interview Mr. Duncan, who has been making this territory for a number of years, spoke highly of Enterprise as a splendid growing city and of Wallowa county as a whole, remarking upon the fine openings here and the rapid, sure development of the towns of the county. He spoke particularly of the land opportunities in Wallowa county, of the increased value of all lands and the undoubted future increase with settlement and the coming into the county of further means of transportation. "I observed," said Mr. Duncan, "that several survey outfits are working about Elgin, directing north, and it is probable and practically inevitable that Enterprise and various portions of Wallowa county will be penetrated by transportation lines in the reasonably near future."

DEATH AND BURIAL OF WELL KNOWN GENTLEMAN

Mr. James Daugherty, who died some days ago at Salem, was brought to Joseph, and the funeral services held from the I. O. O. F. hall there, under the auspices of that order. Mr. Daugherty was forty years of age. The services were conducted at 11 o'clock Thursday morning, and the remains taken to Prairie Creek for interment.

LAND WITHDRAWAL REVOKED.

Boise-Payette and Klamath Acres Restored to Settlement.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The Secretary of the Treasury revoked the order to his department withdrawing from entry 167,000 acres in the Boise land district, in connection with the Boise-Payette irrigation project, the lands to become subject to settlement July 2 and entry August 1. He has restored 1700 acres in the Burns land district, Oregon, withdrawn for this project, these lands to be subject to settlement July 9 and entry August 8.

On June 2, 257,000 acres in the Blackfoot and Halsey land districts, withdrawn for Minidoka project, will be opened to settlement and to entry July 23.

About 154,000 acres included in the Klamath irrigation project, withdrawn in Southern Oregon, will be opened to settlement July 2 and to entry August 1.

Road Expert May Come.

PORTLAND—Senator Bourne has advised Secretary Bates, of the Oregon Threshermen's Association, that the Department of Agriculture will send a lecturer from the public roads division to Oregon, if a series of meetings can be arranged in numerous Oregon cities covering a period of several weeks. The lecturer will be equipped with a stereopticon, and will give an illustrated lecture on roadmaking.

Hermann is Very Weak.

ROSEBURG—Binger Hermann is still very weak and the swelling in his limbs has increased. It is an effort for the patient to converse, and for that reason visitors are denied.

NEWS PARAGRAPHS FROM OTHER CITIES IN OREGON

BEND—Bend has raised by popular subscription $7875 necessary to clear up the right of way and depot grounds for the Oregon Trunk railway.

PORTLAND—Lawyers of Portland are becoming much interested in the question of removing the judiciary of the state from politics.

HILLSBORO—A company of local business men is preparing to start an ice plant to have a capacity of three tons a day, which will be sufficient to supply the local trade.

LA GRANDE—Plans have been adopted for the $75,000 high school building to be constructed this Summer. The exterior of the building will be extremely attractive, being built of white pressed brick and terra cotta trimmings. The general style of architecture will be classical of the latest design.

MARSHFIELD—Realizing the great value of their farming land, the people of Coquille Valley section of Coos County are planning to open an experiment station for the purpose of ascertaining for the benefit of the farmers just what crops are best adapted to the locality.

SALEM—Maps that have been prepared jointly by the state of Oregon and the United States Government under appropriations made by both governments for the purpose of encouraging diversions of water for irrigation in the Willamette Valley, will be ready for distribution by State Engineer John Howard Lewis, within a few days.

TYGH VALLEY—Tygh Valley is soon to have an auto stage running between Nopinitia and Dufur to connect with the auto line from Dufur to The Dalles. This will be appreciated by people living in this part of the county, as they can visit The Dalles and return the same day. Commercial men will doubtless be glad to hear of this, as it will be quite an improvement over the present mode of traveling.

PORTLAND—Plans are maturing for an Oregon good roads convention, to be held in Albany this Summer, such as this state has never before witnessed. In conjunction with the Oregon Threshers' Association, under whose auspices the convention will be held, the Oregon Good Roads Association is working vigorously for the success of the meeting, and it is believed there will be in the neighborhood of 1000 farmers in attendance.

SALEM—In order to facilitate work and relieve the congested condition at the State Capitol Building, Governor Benson has ordered the excavation of the basement in the north wing of the structure and space made for storing records and material. For the past four years there has been a great demand for more floor space in the Capitol. The steady increase of business required a larger stock versity, by means of the school of education, is now prepared to train teachers for high school subjects and departments, superintendencies, principalships and administrative positions, and special teachers of music and physical training. The requirements for admission obtain in the School of Education as in the other departments. Among other things the bulletin notes that while the demand for teachers fluctuates from year to year, there are certain strong tendencies evident in all western universities, one of which is toward oversupply of teachers in English and history, and a scarcity of teachers in mathematics and physics.
