The Little Things That Tell.

A south side mother was dressing for a tea the other afternoon when the front door bell rang. She instructed the maid that if the visitor appeared to be about to make a formal call to say she was not at home. But the mother had not counted on the five-year-old daughter playing in the front yard.

The maid, seeing a woman dressed as if for calling, obeyed instructions. "She is not at home," the maid said. "Why, she is, too, Missie," came a sharp interruption from the child on the lawn. "I saw her lower the curtain just now."

"Perhaps she just came in," the maid responded weakly. "I'll see."

The situation was saved by the fact that the visitor was the mother's sister, whom the maid did not know.—Kansas City Star.

Shepherd Is Guilty.

VALE—The jury in the case of Charles Wear returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the second degree, as charged by the indictment. Wear is a shepherd, and in a fight over grazing ground near Jordan Valley on Sunday, April 3, killed Domingo Aldecoa, a Basco shepherd.

Siberian Camels.

The native camels of Siberia are a source of constant wonder to travelers. On the Mongolian plateaus, for instance, the thermometer often registers a temperature of 40 degrees below zero, but the camels do not mind it at all, walking about as blithely as if the weather were as balmy as spring. On the other hand, the temperature on the Gold desert in summer is sometimes 140 degrees above zero, and the beasts mind that heat just as little as they do the extreme cold.

An Afterthought.

Nervous and inexperienced host rising hurriedly at the conclusion of a song—Ladies and—gentlemen, before he started to—er—sing Mr. Baynall asked me to apologize for his—er—voice, but I—er—omitted to do so—er—so I—er—apologize now.—London M. A. P.

What Kept Her From It.

"Have you ever thought of going on the stage?"
"Yes, frequently."
"What has kept you from doing so?"
"The managers, the mean things!"—Chicago Record-Herald.

Data for Revolution Set.

CHANGSHA, China, May 10.—The general uneasiness has been greatly increased here by the appearance of a large number of posters unsigned, demanding the destruction of foreigners and of native Christians, and setting May 27 as the date for a general anti-Manchu uprising.

Ze Game of Golf.

He had come over from France and had just been asked to give his views on the ancient game of golf. With much gesticulation he did so.

"Ah," he said, "your game of golf! Fees, I know him. You put on ze tunic to red as ze Inglesch rosbif underneath done. You strap your sack of sticks on ze back of a boy twice so small as ze bag."

"He scrape a mud pudding to make balance a little white ball. He make three had tries to balance him, then very angry you call aloud, 'Fuur!' Then you what you call address ze ball, and, ma foi, your address is sometimes of language to make afraid."

"You strike, and ze ball find himself in ze long grass."

"You call aloud for ze nib lunge stick and beat ze ground till your partner say, 'Ho, chuck it!' You say—But, my friend, I excuse myself to repeat what you say."

"Ah, my friend, you are a great nation, but your golf game gives me what you call ze pip!"—Pearson's Weekly.

Willing to Chance It.

Here the lecturer threw upon the screen the portrait of a man well known in the financial world, says the Chicago Tribune.

"This," he said, "is one of the great captains of finance. I do not need to mention his name. His face is familiar to all of you. Look at his corrugated brow, the furrows in his cheeks, the pouches under his eyes, the deep lines about his mouth. That face, my friends, bears the unmistakable and ineffaceable stamp of care. Anxiety has marked it indelibly. It shows the traces of sleepless nights, weary days and bitterly fought campaigns, with millions of dollars at stake. Success brings such a man no happiness. Look at him! How many of you, my friends, would change places with him? How many of you would be willing to take his wealth if compelled to assume the terrible burden of responsibility that goes with it?"

His hearers rose en masse.

"I would!" they shouted in unison.

His Unfortunate Investment.

"It's astonishing," the old settler in the little town was saying, "how real estate has advanced in this town since I came here. The corner lot this building is on, for instance, sold once for $450."

"What is it worth now?" asked the stranger.

"Five thousand."

"Well, you had a chance to get rich by investing in land yourself. I suppose you bought some real estate?"

"Yes, I bought one lot—just one."

"That has increased in value, hasn't it?"

"Yes; over 600 per cent."

"That was a good investment."

"Not so awfully good, mister," said the old settler gloomily. "I paid $10 for it, and it's worth $75 now, but it's in the cemetery. The way I figure it I've lost a heap of money by not dying forty years ago."—Youth's Companion.

Punishment in Persia.

Among the Persians the usual mode of punishment is the bastinado, from which men of the highest rank are not exempt. It is inflicted with very great severity, frequently so as to render the sufferer almost a cripple for life. The victim is thrown upon his face, and each foot is passed through a loop of strong cord attached to a pole, which is raised horizontally by men, who, twisting it round, tighten the ropes and render the feet immovable. Two executioners then strike the sole alternately with switches of the pomegranate tree well steeped in water to render them supple. A store of these switches is generally ready for use in the pond which adjoins the courtyards of the houses of the great. The punishment frequently lasts for an hour or until the unfortunate victim faints from pain.

All orders shipped same day letter is received. We ship C. O. D. on approval. You do not pay a cent until you have examined and found them strictly as represented. We know that you will be so well pleased that when you want a bicycle you will give us your order. We want you to send us a trial order at once, hence this remarkable fire offer.

IF YOU NEED TIRES—don't buy any kind at any price until you send for a pair of the special introductory price quoted above, or write for our big Tire and Sundry Catalogue which describes and quotes all makes and kinds of tires at about half the usual prices.

DO NOT WAIT—but write us a postal today. DO NOT THINK OF BUYING a bicycle until you have a pair of tires from anyone until you know the new and wonderful offers we are making. It only costs a postal to learn everything. Write it NOW.
