CHICO TATTLINGS.

Chico, May 23.—Chico farmers are busy sowing grain and putting in spring crops.

Mrs. Marion Barnes and sister, Mrs. Hattie Edmand, of Calf creek, spent Saturday at Jeff Stikney's, where Mrs. Edmand's daughter, Mrs. Florence Finley, is cooking for the lambing crew.

Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham and son left for Pendleton to be gone for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Harris are stationed at Chico after spending the winter at Seattle, Wash.

Calvin Smith and family are making preparations to leave for Canada soon.

Charles Daugberty from Elk Mountain was visiting his mother Sunday.

Dallia Mays from Swamp creek brought out a load of salt last week.

J. R. Edgman is sowing grain on his lower ranch.

Mrs. Vest Tippett was on Chico streets last mail day.

Giles Daugberty and Frank Greenwood are working the Elk Mountain road.

Dance given Friday night at Fine's hall in honor of Mrs. Barnes, who leaves for Harvard, Neb., soon.

Maggie Edmand took Sunday dinner with her sister, Mrs. Finley, at Stikney's camp.

R. C. Edgman left for Oregon City for 10 days' stay to attend the Grange convention.

Jeff Stikney and one of his clerks were out in the valley the first of the week.

Ford Hillman and family have moved back to the ranch after wintering in Joseph. We are glad to welcome all the neighbors back.

Charley Tippett is home from Joseph creek, where he has been for some time.

In a Quandary.

The young lady sighed deeply and was almost affected to tears.

"Harold," she said, "declares that if I don't marry him he will end his life. And I am afraid he will."

She stifled a sob, then continued: "And Randolph declares that if I don't marry him he will go into politics and become great and famous, and then he says I shall see what I have missed. And I am afraid he will keep his word."

Overcome by emotion, she buried her face in her hands, not knowing whether to save a life or to spare the country another politician.—Exchange.

An Amendment.

"Are you ready to live on my income?" he asked softly.

She looked up into his face trustingly.

"Certainly, dearest," she answered. "If—"

"If what?"

"If you get another one for yourself."—New York Journal.

The Dreaded Doctor.

"How did you like your dinner?" inquired the epicure.

"Well," answered the dyspeptic, "it was admirable in every respect. But my doctor has put me into such an apprehensive frame of mind that whenever I really enjoy eating anything I become utterly miserable."

The Analysis.

"Did you have the soil of your back yard analyzed by the agricultural department?"

"Yes. They said it consisted largely of glass, tin and putty, with traces of builder's lime, and suggested that it might do to raise a mortgage on."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given, that the undersigned has been duly appointed by the County Court of Wallowa County, Oregon, administrator of the Estate of Emeline Akin, deceased, and has qualified as such administrator. All parties having claims against said estate are hereby notified to present them duly verified to the undersigned, at the office of Burleigh & Boyd, Enterprise, Oregon, within six months from the date of the first publication of this notice, May 26th, 1910.

C. A. RAY,
Administrator of the Estate of Emeline Akin, Deceased.

The High Cost of Living.

Increases the price of many necessities without improving the quality. Foley's Honey and Tar maintains its high standard of excellence and its great curative qualities without any increase in cost. It is the best remedy for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough and all ailments of the throat, chest and lungs. The genuine is in a yellow package. Refuse substitutes. Burnaugh & Mayfield.

WE HAVE THE GOODS TO PROVE IT, TOO.

Mrs. E. M. Davis, living on a ranch in the Slope district, kindly brought to this office a hen's egg that takes the prize thus far in and about Enterprise. The "fruit" is 2 1/4 inches in diameter the smallest way, and 2 3/4 inches long. In circumference the small way it measures 7 5/8 inches, and the circumference the long way is 8 1/8 inches. Its weight is 4 1/2 ounces.

Misinterpreted.

A delicate point of pronunciation is involved in this story. A country cousin once went to spend Sunday with an Edinburgh friend. After a long day spent in sightseeing they found themselves a long way from home. "No, mon," said the townsman, "we've a long way to gang. Shall we tak' a tram?"

"Tak' a tram?" cried the other in surprise. "Ye dinna mean to tell me that in Edinburgh the public houses are open on the Sawbath!"—London Family Herald.

Right and Wrong.

Things should not be done by halves. If it is right, do it boldly; if it is wrong, leave it undone. Every day is a little life, and our whole life is but a day repeated.

A really great man is known by three signs—generosity in the design, humanity in the execution and moderation in success.—Bismarck.

The White

OF BENEFIT TO ALL

Kasparilla is the name of a new remedy most successfully prescribed for a "world of troubles." For derangements of the digestive organs it is a natural corrective, operating directly upon the liver and alimentary canal, gently but persistently stimulating a healthy activity. Its beneficial influence extends, however, to every portion of the system, aiding in the processes of digestion and assimilation of food, promoting a wholesome, natural appetite, correcting sour stomach, bad breath, irregularities of the bowels, constipation and the long list of troubles directly traceable to those unwholesome conditions. Kasparilla dispels drowsiness, headache, backache and depression due to inactivity of the liver, kidneys and digestive tract. It is a strengthening tonic of the highest value.

Foley's Honey and Tar has been a household favorite for all ailments of the throat, chest and lungs. For infants and children it is best and safest as it contains no opiates and no harmful drugs. None genuine but Foley's Honey and Tar in the yellow package. Refuse substitutes. Burnaugh & Mayfield.

Fenced In.

Near Harvard square, in Cambridge, stands the old elm under which Washington first took command of the American army. Around this tree is an iron picket fence inclosure perhaps a couple of rods across. One night a man who had imbibed too freely stumbled against this circular fence. Grasping his way painfully round and round the outside of the inclosure about a dozen times. Finally he sank down in utter despair. "Oh, ain't it awful—fenced in and no gate to get out of it!" said he as a party of students rescued him and took him home.—National Monthly.

A Memory of Edwin Booth.

My season with Edwin Booth was delightful. I found him one of the kindest and pleasantest men of the profession. He also possessed what I consider a great quality—simplicity of manner. Some stars have the idea that it is necessary to be baughty and inaccessible with the members of their companies. They put on airs. They like to crush their fellow actors and pose as a kind of divinity before them.—From Mme. Modjeska's "Memoirs" in Century.

A Story of Robespierre.

The story is told of Robespierre that at one time when at the height of his power a lady called upon him, beseeching him to spare her husband's life. He scornfully refused. As she turned away she happened to tread upon the paw of his pet dog. He turned upon her and asked, "Madam, have you no humanity?"

On the Safe Side.

"May I see my father's record?" asked the new student. "He was in the class of '77."

"Certainly, my boy. What for?"

"He told me when I left home not to disgrace him, sir, and I wish to see just how far I can go."—Buffalo Express.

The Advantage.

Tenant—Look here, that house I took from you is extremely damp. House Agent (bluntly)—Well, don't you see the great advantage of that? If it gets on fire it won't burn.
