

"It cured me," or "It saved the life of my child," are the expressions you hear every day about Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. This is true the world over where this valuable remedy has been introduced. No other medicine in use for diarrhoea or bowel complaints has received such general approval. The secret of the success of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is that it cures. Sold by all druggists.

Business to the Last.

A clergyman was sent for in great haste by a man who was very ill and thought the end was approaching. He said to the minister: "I have been a great sinner. I am afraid my time is short. I want you to pray with me. You must be brief, but fervent."

If you are not satisfied after using according to directions two-thirds of a bottle of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, you can have your money back. The tablets cleanse and invigorate the stomach, improve the digestion, regulate the bowels. Give them a trial and you will be well. Sold by all dealers.

A Slang Phrase.

"Bull con," a slang phrase which means to flatter, to praise with ulterior motives, had its origin in the west years ago. When the gold brick game was started the bunko men sprang a fine, high sounding combination of words upon the simple farmers. They called it an investment in "bullion consolidated." Years after the words were cut down to "bull con" and came to mean any graft that depended upon the gift of gab. Still later it was used to describe the method of fattery.—Indianapolis News.

Lame shoulder is almost invariably caused by rheumatism of the muscles and yields quickly to the free application of Chamberlain's Liniment. This liniment is not only prompt and effectual but is no way disagreeable to use. Sold by all druggists.

A Sure Market Barred.

The young daughter of the editor of a prominent New York magazine was bewailing her literary lot.

"Just think," complained she to a friend, "I have written some poems which papa says are very good, but he won't accept them because he doesn't want any one to think he is partial to a contributor from his own family!"

"But why worry? Don't you know there are many other magazines to which you can send them?"

"I know, but papa is such a clack!" —Woman's Home Companion.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will brace up the nerves, banish sick headache, prevent despondency and invigorate the whole system. Sold by all druggists.

We do first-class job work.

Embarrassing.

"Dear me, Tommy," remarked the young man who had been calling five years, "this is a fine thick rug in front of the sofa."

"Yes; pa gave it to sis," confided Tommy.

"Very nice of him, I am sure."

"Yes; he did it on your account, though."

"My account?"

"I should say so. Pa said he was afraid you were getting cold feet."

But just then a small boy was grabbed by a blushing young lady and locked in the basement.—Chicago News.

Scared Into Sound Health.

Mr. B. F. Kelley, Springfield, Ill., writes: "A year ago I began to be troubled with my kidneys and bladder, which grew worse until I became alarmed at my condition. I suffered also with dull heavy headaches and the action of my bladder was annoying and painful. I read of Foley's Kidney Pills and after taking them a few weeks the headaches left me, the action of my bladder was again normal, and I was free of all distress." At Burnaugh at Mayfield's.

A Beginning.

Hobbs—Alas, I fear that boy of mine is going to develop into a newspaper humorist. Dobbs—Why do you think so? Hobbs—A school essay he wrote began, "The natives of Iceland are a cold and distant people." —Boston Transcript.

What a Summer Cold May Do.

A summer cold if neglected is just as apt to develop into bronchitis or pneumonia as at any other season. Don't neglect it. Take Foley's Honey and Tar promptly. It loosens the cough, soothes and heals the inflamed air passages, and expels the cold from the system." Burnaugh & Mayfield's.

Elaborate Revenge.

"Paw, wasn't that a horrible dinner?"

"It was, Tommy."

"But you handed the waiter a dime when we went away. What did you do that for?"

"I wanted to convey the idea to him, Tommy, as delicately as possible that if he'd brought us a good feed it would have been a half dollar."—Chicago Tribune.

The Conservation of Nature's Resources.

Apples as well to our physical state as to material things. C. J. Budlong, Washington, R. I., realized his condition and took warning before it was too late. He says: "I suffered severely from kidney trouble, the disease being hereditary in our family. I have taken four bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy, and now consider myself thoroughly cured. This should be a warning to all not to neglect taking Foley's Kidney Remedy until it is too late." Burnaugh & Mayfield.

NEWS PARAGRAPHS FROM OTHER CITIES IN OREGON

PRAIRIE CITY—The First National Bank of Prairie City, Or., has been authorized to begin business with $25,000 capital.

Larsen in a saloon quarrel, was found guilty of murder in the second degree.

SALEM—Governor Benson has granted the requisition of the Governor of Missouri for William Allen, in jail at Marshfield, Or., and wanted in Missouri for killing Hank Gibbs in that state in July, 1897. Allen is said to have confessed the crime to a fellow prisoner in the Marshfield jail. The murder grew out of a quarrel over a gambling debt of $12.

SALEM—The Frank L. Smith Meat Company, of Portland, has made complaint to the State Railroad Commission regarding alleged loss and misuse of livestock on the O. R. & N. The company asks the aid of the commission in recovering from the railroad company for alleged losses in Oregon and will take up with the Federal authorities alleged abuses and losses on interstate shipments.

Hair Monstrosities.

French theater managers in the eighteenth century had worse evils than picture hats to contend against. Marie Antoinette, who was short even according to French standards, set the fashion of high coiffures, and ultra-fashionable women prided themselves on measuring four feet from their chins to the tops of their heads.

These structures took about six hours to erect, the hairdresser mounting a ladder in the process. Some coiffures were almost as broad as they were long, with wings sticking out about eight inches on each side of the head. For the "frigate" coiffure the hair was ripped in a huge pile to represent the waves of an angry sea and surmounted by a fully rigged ship. As a consequence of these monstrosities disturbances in theaters occurred almost daily until an ordinance was issued against the admission of women with high coiffures to the floor of the house.—Chicago News.

Yet He Meant Well.

Just as the train was leaving the Fifty-eighth street elevated station a man who had got off there hurried along the platform and spoke to a passenger sitting by an open window in the smoking car.

"Quick!" he cried. "Please hand me that package. I left it on the seat when I got out just now."

"Sure," said the passenger, picking up the bundle and tossing it out of the window.

"Thanks!"

"Hey, there! What are you doing that for?" demanded the wrathful, red faced man sitting next to him.

"Why, he?"

"You double dyed idiot, that package belonged to me! It was $15 worth of laces and ribbons I was taking home to my wife!"

Over the scene that followed let us draw a veil.—Chicago Tribune.

"All Things Come."

The magnate looked up impatiently from his work.

"Well, my good man," he snapped at the diffident rural person who stood twirling his rusty hat, "what can I do for you?"

"I guess ye don't remember me, Hank," faltered the caller. "But you an' me use ter go swimmin' together in th' ol' town. Then you got a job in th' bank, an' I got a job in th' grocery store."

"This is all very interesting, and I seem to remember your face. But come to the point—my time is valuable."

"Yes, Hank. You got a better offer and left the old village. I stayed plugging along in th' grocery store."

"Well, well!"

"Well, Hank, when you left you owed $73.62 on a grocery bill. Here's where you pay up!"—Cleveland Leader.

Perfumes in Ancient Days.

Old as the history of the world itself is that of the queen of flowers. The ancient Greeks and Romans reveled in roses. They were used lavishly at their feasts. In the time of the republic the people had their cups of Falernian wine swimming with blooms, and the Spartan soldiers after the battle of Cirrha refused to drink any wine that was not perfumed with roses, while at the regatta of Balaia the whole surface of the Lucrine lake was strewn with flowers.

College Chap CLOTHES
BRANDEGEE, KINCAID & CO.
TAILORS
110 N. W. 4th St., Astoria, Or.

WHEREVER you happen to see a group of young fellows you are most certain to find them wearing clothes of rare style and individuality. We don't claim that these clothes are always of an exceptional quality, but we do claim that young men affect certain features which older people don't. In "College Chap Clothes" we have been fortunate enough to find a quality which is not by any means expensive, and features which are strikingly young though not too young, for men who wish to regain their youthful appearance.

The Normandie, The Norfolk, the College Chap and the College Chap, Jr. are four styles of young men's garments. They are classed under the name of "College Chap Clothes." They are a branch of "Modern Clothes," made by Brandegee, Kincaid & Co., tailor shops at Astoria.

If you are particularly sensitive to style you had better make it your business to call at our shop and inspect these garments. You may rest assured of good treatment at the hands of skilled salesmen.
