Couldn't Forget It.

"Saturday night some miscerent lug of a whole cord of my wood, and somehow I can't forget about it," declared Elias.

"Have you tried to forget it?" inquired his friend.

"Yes. Sunday morning I went to church, hoping I could get it off my mind, and before I had been there five minutes the choir started in singing 'The Lost Chord,' so I got out."

Reckless Gambling.

"I'm afraid my husband is developing the gambling instinct," sobbed the bride.

"What's the matter, dear? Has he been playing poker?"

"No, but yesterday he offered to match pennies with Brother Frank to determine which one should pay the car fare."—Detroit Free Press.

Getting Down to Business.

Mistress to new servants—There are two things, Mary, about which I am very particular. They are truthfulness and obedience. Mary—Yes'm, and when you tell me to say you're not in when a person calls that you don't wish to see which is it to be, mum—truthfulness or obedience?

Defined.

Precocious Child—Papa, tell me what is humberg? Parent (with a deep drawn sigh)—It is, my dear, when your mamma pretends to be very fond of me and puts no buttons on my shirt.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

Department of the Interior,
U. S. Land Office at La Grande, Oregon, May 16th, 1910.

Notice is hereby given that Michelle Baker, whose post-office address is Enterprise, Oregon, did, on the 20th day of July, 1909, file in this office Sworn Statement and Application, No. 06831, to purchase the W 1/2 SE 1/4, Sec. 8, and N 1/2 NE 1/4, Section 17, Township 1 North, Range 45 East, Willamette Meridian, and the timber thereon, under the provisions of the act of June 3, 1878, and acts amendatory, known as the "Timber and Stone Law," at such value as might be fixed by appraisal, and that, pursuant to such application, the land and timber thereon have been estimated and valued by applicant at $400.00, the timber estimated to be worth $200.00, and the land $200.00; that said applicant will offer final proof in support of his application and sworn statement on the 10th day of September, 1910, before John A. Rumble, U. S. Commissioner, at his office, at Joseph, Oregon.

Any person is at liberty to protest this purchase before entry, or initiate a contest at any time before patent issues, by filing a corroborated affidavit in this office, alleging facts which would defeat the entry.
