The Animals in the Zoo.

The sleeping hours of the animals at the zoological gardens in Regent's park vary as much, according to the families to which they belong, as do their other characteristics and habits. The orang outang goes to bed at sundown, draping its head in a blanket and refusing to see visitors after dusk. It is also an early riser. With the lions, tigers and other members of the cat tribe the night finds them at their liveliest, and they sleep most between the midday meal and supper time. The eagles go to sleep just about the time their neighbors in the owl cage are waking up, while the bears during the winter months apparently sleep all day and night too. The residents of the monkey house object seriously to being disturbed after dark, and if one of the keepers happens to take a light into their quarters they scold him unmercifully. On the other hand, it would probably take a dynamite bomb to arouse the rhinoceros, and it is not uncommon, the keepers say, to find rats biting holes in its thick hide with impunity.—London Mail.

"Foley Kidney Pills Have Cured Me"

The above is a quotation from a letter written by H. M. Winkler, Evansville, Ind. "I contracted a serious case of kidney trouble. My back gave out and pained me. I seemed to have lost all strength and ambition; was bothered with dizzy spells, my head would swim and specks float before my eyes. I took Foley Kidney Pills regularly and am now perfectly well and feel like a new man. Foley Kidney Pills have cured me." Burnaugh & Mayfield.

A Ban on Patterns.

"There is one kind of correspondence sometimes received by women clerks that makes heads of firms hopping mad," said the pretty stenographer. "That is dress patterns. They don't mind letters and magazines, but if a girl wants to keep on good terms with her employer and maybe keep her job she had better advise pattern companies to send their communications to some other address. I know one employer of about 100 girls who has put up notices in the workroom to the effect that no patterns can be received at that office. Not many men go that far, but all hold the same grudge against patterns. A girl who has a new dress to make up can't help spreading the pattern out the minute she gets it. Then every other woman in the office becomes interested. Nothing is so disorganizing to women clerks as patterns. Nothing takes up more time that belongs to the firm, so you really can't blame the bosses for putting a ban on patterns."—New York Press.

A Wretched Mistake

to endure the itching, painful distress of piles. There's no need to. Listen: "I suffered much from piles," writes Will A. Marsh, of Siler City, N. C., "till I got a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and was soon cured." Burns, boils, ulcers, fever sores, eczema, cuts, chapped hands, chilblains, vanish before it. 25c at all druggists.

The Peanut.

The common peanut, beloved of the small boy, grows in a way that is distinctly original. The little plant sends up its shoots, with the fruit on the end of a somewhat stiff stalk, and then before it ripens the stem bends over and carefully pushes the fruit underground. As pigs are said to be especially fond of these, it has been suggested that the plant does this to hide its nuts from the porker's too inquisitive investigations.

When the stomach fails to perform its functions, the bowels become deranged, the liver and the kidneys congested causing numerous diseases. The stomach and liver must be restored to a healthy condition and Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets can be depended upon to do it. Easy to take and most effective. Sold by Burnaugh & Mayfield and all good druggists.

Japan's National Beverage.

Sake is the national beverage of Japan. It has a peculiar flavor not comparable to any European drink. It is made from fermented rice by an intricate process in winter time and contains from 11 to 14 per cent of alcohol. It is a necessary constituent of every ceremonial Japanese dinner, is served in little, ampulla-like jars and drunk with much formality from squat, earless sake cups containing approximately about two ounces. To the European palate it tastes sour at first, but a preference for it is readily acquired. Curiously enough, it has a much more powerful effect on the Japanese than on Europeans. A stronger variety, shochu, contains from 20 to 50 per cent of alcohol. Another form, mirin, is more or less a liqueur.—London Lancet.

The world's most successful medicine for bowel complaints is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It has relieved more pain and suffering, and saved more lives than any other medicine in use. Invaluable for children and adults. Sold by Burnaugh & Mayfield and all good druggists.

Cheering Him Up.

New Boarder—How's the fare here? Old Boarder—Well, we have chicken every morning. "That's first rate. How is it served?" "In the shell."

The Way of It.

Knicker—Life is an irony. Bocker—Yes. By the time you have the money for a grand stand seat your home team no longer wins.—New York Sun.

We make our fortunes; we call them fate.—Alroy.

Must Be Above Suspicion.

Kidney and bladder ailments are so serious in their consequences, and if unchecked so often fatal that any remedy offered for their cure must be above suspicion. Foley Kidney Pills contain no harmful drugs, and have successfully stood a long and thorough test. Burnaugh & Mayfield.

"You didn't tell the barber you were in a hurry." "No. I didn't want him to know it."—Pittsburg Post.

Blessed is the man who has found his work. Let him ask no other blessing.—Thomas Carlyle.

Foley's Kidney Remedy will cure any case of kidney and bladder trouble not beyond the reach of medicine. No medicine can do more. Burnaugh & Mayfield.

Drives away Flies, Mosquitoes and Gnats. It protects horses and cattle from attacks of insects, enabling them to feed and sleep in peace. It prevents loss of weight and strength from worry caused by attacks of insects, and from the irritation of their bites and stings. There is a satisfaction in the relief it affords domestic animals from the scourge of maddening parasites and flies, besides the profit in returns. Horses do more work on less feed and cows yield more and better milk when relieved from the frenzy incited by constantly fighting a swarm of voracious, insatiable insects. Four sizes, 25c, 50c, 75c and $1.25. Ask your merchant for it. HOYT CHEMICAL CO., Portland, Oregon

NEWS PARAGRAPHS FROM OTHER CITIES IN OREGON

Portland's postal receipts for June, 1910, compared with those of June last year, show a greater percentage gain than those of all other cities of the West, except Los Angeles.

The Vesuvius mine in the Bohemia district has resumed work, after having been idle for nearly a year, and the large 30 stamp mill will be in operation within another week.

Peach day will be celebrated in Freewater this year on August 17, and preparations are under way for the biggest occasion of the kind that has ever been held in the Walla Walla valley.

Mayor Straw of Marshfield has sent to the mayors of all of the cities in Oregon invitations to some to Coos Bay during the week of August 15 to organize a state association of mayors.

The preliminary survey work has all been done on the Cottonwood irrigation project, a small one, located near Westfall. The project, when completed, will irrigate about 20,000 acres of land.

Portland rounded out the fiscal year ended June 30, 1910, with heavier wheat exports than any other city or customs district in the United States, except New York, according to figures made public by the department of commerce and labor.

John S. Coke, circuit judge in the second judicial district, has filed his declaration of intention to be a candidate to succeed himself. Coke was appointed by Governor Chamberlain when the office was created by the legislature last winter.

Word has been received from Boston, that all papers necessary to construction of the railroad from Union by way of Elgin to Walla Walla have been signed and the dream of years of a competitive road and one across the mountains will soon be realized.

The state treasurer filed his semi-annual statement for the six months ending June 30. The balance on hand, held by the state January 1, 1910, amounted to $821,820.55, while the receipts derived from different sources swelled this amount to $2,764,484.02.

Harvey Lambert, who murdered his wife by firing three bullets into her body while she held their 6-month-old babe in her arms, on July 2, at Portland, and then fired a bullet into his own breast in an attempt to end his own life, is thought to be dying.

At a special meeting of the city council of Medford, a resolution was adopted for the submission to the people at a special election called for August 2 on the question of amending the city charter, so as to authorize the levy of a special tax for the purpose of maintaining a Carnegie library.

Fifty-five thousand acres of the Rogue River Valley will be irrigated, at an expenditure of at least $2,000,000, within the next few years, as the result of the closing of a deal whereby the Rogue River Valley Canal company, composed of a party of Spokane capitalist, headed by P. Welch, acquires ownership of the property of the Fish Lake Water company.

The railroad laborers employed on the new Natron extension east of Eugene, encountered a large vein of coal near Natron. The coal seems to be of good quality, and steps will be taken by several men interested in property in that vicinity to trace the vein and open it further to ascertain its extent.

Three Japanese on the hill near the wireless station were observed talking pictures of the mouth of the river, especially in the direction of Fort Stevens. From that point with strong glasses a view can be had directly into the forts. What attracted particular attention was the peculiar camera they were using, as the lens was in what looked like an extension telescope.

In regard to the establishing of a state trout hatchery on the McKenzie river east of Eugene, H. C. McAllister, former state fish warden, has written the Eugene Commercial club that if the legislature at its coming session in January will make some provision whereby the game fisheries can be put under the supervision of the master fish warden, it will not be necessary to go to the expense of building an additional hatchery on the McKenzie, as the one now used for hatching salmon can be utilized for trout as well.

On August 1, when the annual apportionment of the common school fund interest is made between the counties the state treasurer will have on hand to distribute the largest amount ever apportioned in the history of the state by about $30,000. The semi-annual statement of State Treasurer Steele given out shows there was on hand June 30, $295,959.82, and the receipts for July will bring the figure to a point somewhere between $220,000 and $230,000. The amount apportioned one year ago was $308,300.65, which was the largest amount ever apportioned.

Distance is a great promoter of admiration.—Diderot.

Saved at Death's Door.

The door of death seemed ready to open for Murray W. Ayers of Transit Bridge, N. Y., when his life was wonderfully saved. "I was in a dreadful condition," he writes, "my skin was almost yellow; eyes sunken; tongue coated; emaciated from losing 40 pounds, growing weaker daily. Virulent liver trouble pulling me down to death in spite of doctors. Then that matchless medicine—Electric Bitters—cured me. I regained the 40 pounds lost and now am well and strong." COUNTY CONVENTION NOTICE.

The Socialist Party of the county of Wallowa is called to meet in County Convention at Local Enterprise Headquarters, at Enterprise, Oregon, on the 31st day of July and the 1st day of August, 1910, for the purpose of nominating a county ticket for Wallowa county, and electing delegates to the State Convention to be held in Portland on the 7th and 8th day of August, 1910.

(Signed) C. W. BARZEE, State Chairman of the Socialist Party of Oregon.

Comrades are advised to meet at the appointed place on Sunday, July 30, for the purpose of preliminary their ticket, and the regular County Convention can follow on the 1st day of August, wherein the ticket may be legally confirmed and delegates to the State Convention receive their credentials signed by the chairman and secretary of the convention.

If the county does not wish to make their county nominations on that date, the confirmation of the previously elected Delegates, in accordance with the S. P. Constitution (Art. 14, Secs. 1 and 2), must be made by placing the signature of the convention Chairman and Secretary on their credentials for presentation to the State Convention.

These credentials must also bear the signature of the Chairman and Secretary of the Local at which meeting they had been previously elected.

To explain: The Convention officers legalizes the delegates credentials to the State Convention in accordance with the Oregon statutes. The signature of the party, local, officers confirms the election of the Delegates as per S. P. Constitution.

We are advised by Attorney General Crawford that this course of procedure gives us a place on the state ticket without any filing fee. We have the privilege of using one or more pages in the candidates election advertising sheet for the purpose of setting forth our party principles.
