THE BOURNE SPECTRE.

You'd think from reading the assembly newspapers (there's not many such) that Senator Jonathan Bourne had the voters of Oregon by the heels. Said newspapers are more afraid of Bourne than a pickaninny is of "gobbeins." Bruce Dennis, old man Bennett and the Oregonian staff shiver all night at the Bourne spectre.

Now the great mass of the plain people think Bourne's all right, and love him for the enemies he has made fighting the fight of the people, but just the same he nor no other man can boss the Oregon voters.

At the late primary, Bourne threw the whole weight of his influence for Dimick but couldn't keep enough votes from straying to Abraham and Hofer to prevent the nomination of the assemblyite, Bowerman.

Likewise, Bourne inclined to Reed for Congress in this district, but the voters had seen and heard and liked Lafferty and refused to be stampeded Reed wise.

Fact is the Oregon voter thinks he knows what or whom he wants better than Bourne or the Oregonian—and he does.

DON'T MICS THIS ONE.

The head and front of the assembly movement in Union was an attorney, George T. Cochran. He's one of those high brows, who think the common run of people haven't sense enough to come in out of the rain, let alone choose their officers.

Cochran did the bidding of the assembly push, then went to Portland and claimed his reward—the assembly nomination for superintendent of water division two, a nice office with a fat salary and nothing to do when a fellow like Cochran holds it.

He was nominated because he had no opposition.

But he will not be elected for the same reason. F. M. Saxton of Baker county is his opponent, and all reports agree that Saxton is a competent man who will devote his time to the work. His number will be 55 on the official ballot.

Don't forget to give Cochran what's coming to him, by voting for No. 55, F. M. Saxton.

ONE LIVE WIRE.

A. W. Lafferty, insurgent Republican nominee for congress, is about as sure of election as anyone can be of political office, but he shows the stuff he is made of by getting right out among the people and working as if he was in a race for his life. He is a bundle of nerves and brains and means to make good if making good is within the possibilities.

Mr. Lafferty translates making good as doing something for Oregon. Doing something for Oregon means, for instance, in seeing that this state gets fair treatment in reclamation work, and a fair share of the fund for that work.

Lafferty is no "dead one." He's a live wire. Joe Cannon can't lead him around by the nose.

Let's roll up a big majority in Wallowa for Lafferty.

GET ONE DEER.

Landlord Perry Blanchard served venison to his many guests, Sunday, as a reminder he was a mighty hunter and had just returned from a hunting trip. His son Will, W. H. Durham, Sam Lefel and Walter Kivette wore other members of the party and they spent a week on the Sheep and in the mountains east of the lake.

P. B. Lefel shot the deer.

GREGG PLANER SOLD.

The Gregg planing mill in the northwest part of town has been bought by C. M. Boejan and W. H. Ruggles, formerly of Sherman county. It will be opened for business as soon as a thorough overhauling is completed.

The deal includes the lots, buildings and all the machinery except the engine and boiler, which were sold to M. Stubblefield, who has installed the same in his new laundry.

COUNTY WINS DECISION.

The Supreme court has affirmed the decision in the C. R. Elliott road case. The circuit court awarded Elliott much less damages for a new road than he claimed, and he appealed. The higher court found no error, and ordered the costs of the appeal to be collected from Elliott.

Small Boy Gives Officers the Slip

Lad From Caldwell, Idaho, Proves Slippery Customer—Keeps Sheriff Marvin Busy.

Elmer Small, late of Caldwell, Idaho, has been keeping the officers hereabouts quite busy lately. He is an undersized 12 year old boy, but active as a ferret when it comes to getting away. He has made three escapes within a week and the Idaho sheriff will be lucky to get him back home, Thursday.

Elmer broke into a laundry, took what change there was in the till and smashed an adding machine under the deluded notion it was a cash register. For all this he was sentenced to the re-form school. The sheriff left him at his parents' home until he was ready to take him to the school, but Elmer and his sister Elsie disappeared one night.

Word was sent to Sheriff Marvin and the lad was found at Wallowa going to school, while Elsie was working in a hotel. The boy was brought to Enterprise Saturday by N. J. Crofut. He was so little and afraid that Charlie Giovannoni, the court house janitor, kept with him that night in the jail. About 3:15 a. m. Charlie awoke, found his bedmate gone, and he locked in. The lad had taken the keys from Charlie's pockets about a quarter of an hour before, slipped out and locked the door. Charlie raised a big hullabaloo, hollering and shooting off his revolver, and was finally released.

Sheriff Marvin went to Wallowa the next morning in an auto and searched there just as Elmer, footsore and weary, turned up Main street from the railroad track, down which he had tramped from Enterprise. Marvin started with the lad in the afternoon train Monday, but the train was hardly out of Wallowa before, Elmer made a pretense of wanting a drink, then dashed out the door and off the train. Marvin was right after him, and captured him after a short chase. He walked him to Lostine and came in a day the rest of the way.

The Ada county sheriff will come for Elmer today.

BURLEIGH DELIVERS STRONG ADDRESS

REPLIES TO DAN MORGAN SMITH AT UNION TEMPERANCE MEETING.

The union temperance meeting Sunday night was attended by an audience that filled every seat in the Methodist church, and applauded the many good points made by the speakers, Rev. B. F. Meredith presided, and familiar hymns were sung, a large choir leading.

Rev. S. Harris in a short address replied to Dan Morgan Smith's statement that preachers had no right meddling in everyday business affairs.

Rev. W. P. Samms made a short and witty talk, in which he made considerable fun of the anti-prohibition orator. B. F. Miller replied to certain parts of Smith's speech.

The main address was made by Mayor J. A. Burleigh in his usual masterly style. Mr. Burleigh devoted the major part of his argument to proving by the testimony of state officers of prohibition states, that state-wide prohibition is a success wherever given an honest and fair trial. He answered the argument that dives exist under prohibition by proving they flourish even more alongside the open saloon and under strict regulation. The personal liberty plea, the so-called "home rule" amendment and the logic of the midnight search of private homes were shown to be specious and false.

The address was argumentative in nature, logical in arrangement and clear and forcible in delivery throughout.

LAFFERTY AT JOSEPH.

A. W. Lafferty, Republican nominee for congress, addressed an enthusiastic audience in Joseph, Monday night, there being a good turnout in spite of the rain. He repeated his antiprimary pledges, and his position on the forest reserve question was especially applauded.

Mr. Lafferty spoke at Elgin Tuesday afternoon and at Union in the evening. Hon. J. F. Rusk, candidate for representative, also spoke at Elgin and Union. Lafferty will speak in 21 towns of the district on his trip through eastern and central Oregon.

Bunch of Porkers Stolen At Lyman

Nineteen Duroc Jersey Brood Sows Worth $300, Disappear From Murdock Ranch.

Lyman, Oct. 16—One of the strangest occurrences that has taken place in north Wallowa county is the disappearance from the Murdock stock farm of 19 valuable Duroc Jersey brood sows that were last seen on the morning of October 3 while C. Murdock & Son were on their way out to Wallowa with a drove of pigs.

These young sows weigh around 140 pounds each, were marked with blue in right ear and silt in left ear. They were the cream of their lot, years old and the loss is a considerable one as they valued them at more than $300.

They are offering $50 reward for any knowledge of the missing stock. Up to this time they have no track or any suspicion as to how they could have disappeared from the 400 acre hog tight pasture.

It having rained often that week made it hard to track them by the time they were first missed.

AUTO IN TROUBLE.

From Flora Journal.
Mr. and Mrs. F. D. McCully and Mrs. McCully's sister, Mrs. Johnson, and Mr. Branson, all of Joseph, came into Flora Sunday evening with their auto badly broken. They were compelled to lay over all day Monday while blacksmiths D. D. Conley and Louis Frater, repaired the machine. They left here to continue their journey to Lewiston Tuesday morning. In Deer Creek canyon they collided with the rear end of a wagon and had to send to Anatone for a team to pull them through to that point.

To Voters.

Less than 300 voters in the district affected signed the Washington-Multnomah county annexation petition; 500 in the district have signed a remonstrance, practically all outside the district are against annexation, yet you are called upon to vote the addition of practically one-fourth of Washington, one of the smallest counties, to Multnomah, already the wealthiest, most influential and powerful. Voters of the state outside of the counties affected can know but little of these county division measures. We of Washington know nothing of the merits of those not affecting us, and believe such questions should be left to the citizens affected. Washington county cannot afford to lose this territory and Multnomah does not need it. We ask you to vote 333 X No.—W. D. Wood, Chairman Anti-Annexation Committee, Hillsboro, Oregon.
