

The Free Is the Lightest Running Sewing Machine In the World

Reader, pardon my earnestness, but do realize what that statement means? Do you know this is no mere, empty brag? Are you aware the inventor has spent a fortune of years and money to make the claim absolutely true? Let me repeat

The Free Is the Lightest Running Machine In the World

Come to my store, lift the head of a Free Sewing Machine and discover THE secret, the greatest invention in sewing machines since the day of Elias Howe, the "ROTOSCILLO" movement, which together with the eight sets of ball bearings makes THE FREE the lightest running sewing machine in the world.

The public is invited to both the morning and evening union meetings.

Thomas Henry Feagins. (From Wallowa Sun.)

Thomas Henry Feagins was born in Fayette County, Ohio, October 14, 1855, and died near this city October 19, 1910, aged 57 years and 5 days. When a small boy he went to Iowa where he lived until about 20 years of age when he went to Utah where his mother and step-father resided. He later spent a short time in Umatilla, Oregon, before coming to Wallowa County 25 years ago, where he was numbered among the pioneers and has since lived an honored and respected citizen. He was married to Miss Ruella Jane Phillips on November 2, 1885.

He leaves to mourn his death a widow and eight children, five of whom are grown and the three oldest married. They are: Leonard Edward Feagins of this city, Mrs. Jack Hudson and Mrs. Robert Beles of near this city, and Thomas Oral, Ella Frances, Verna Viola, Stella Annie, and Albert Joseph. He is mourned by two brothers and a sister, John Feagins, of Oklahoma, Edward Lee Feagins, of Umatilla, Oregon, and Mrs. Annie Lane, of Los Angeles, Cal and a host of friends.

At the time of his death he had for some years been a member of the Re-Organized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

Thomas Bruce left last week for La Grande and the Lyric Theatre is now under the management of Mr. Thompson. The show is open every evening and is well attended.

Mrs. Frank Gillaspie, of Imbaha spent a few days this week with Mrs. W. A. Ross.
