AFTERMATH OF THE OREGON ELECTION

West's Plurality Over Bowerman Will Reach 6000--Prohibitionists Lose Ground.

Portland—Oswald West's plurality for governor of Oregon will approximate 6,000. West carried every county carried by Chamberlain for United States senator two years ago except Lake; in addition he won Benton, Douglas, Marion, Tillamook, Wallowa, Washington, Curry and Yamhill.

On complete returns received, nine counties gave pluralities for Bowerman and thirteen for west. The Bowerman counties are as follows: Columbia, Coos, Gilliam, Hood River, Josephine, Lake, Umatilla, Wasco and Wheeler. The other counties believed to have gone for Bowerman are Klamath, Lane, Morrow and Sherman.

Counties carried by West are as follows: Baker, Benton, Clatsop, Douglas, Jackson, Linn, Marion, Multnomah, Polk, Washington, Yamhill, Union, Wallowa. Counties placed in the West column by majorities as yet undetermined, Clackamas, Crook, Curry, Lincoln, Malheur, Tillamook, Union and Wallowa. Grant county's vote is very close.

Republican Congressmen.

W. C. Hawley and A. W. Lafferty, republicans, were elected to congress in the First and Second districts respectively. Hawley has defeated his democratic opponent, Robert Smith, by 6,000, and Lafferty has defeated John Manning, democrat, by 8,000.

W. R. King and W. Slater, non-political democratic candidates for the supreme court, were defeated hopelessly in every county.

The legislature will be strongly republican, although there will be a scattering of democrats in both the branches. The organization of the senate and house will be in the hands of the republicans.

Unofficial election returns indicate conclusively the defeat of two of the U'Ren measures, and the probable defeat of the other two. The two U'Ren measures certainly defeated are the official gazette bill and proportional representation. The two in doubt are the bill providing for primary election of delegates to national conventions and the constitutional amendment providing for verdicts by three-fourths of the jury in civil cases.

Tax Amendments All Lose.

All three of the proposed tax amendments to the constitution have been defeated, according to the incomplete returns. The initiative amendment giving each county the right to regulate taxation within its borders received a larger vote than did either of the amendments proposed by the legislature.

The county bill, providing a local method for creating new counties is defeated. The vote indicates that the total majority against the bill will be about 4500.

Home Rule Leads by 3000.

The home rule liquor amendment is nearly 3000 to the good in a total count of 89,000 votes. The vote on this measure and on the prohibition amendment will probably run up to a total of 95,000 to 100,000. On the home rule bill, therefore, approximately nine-tenths of the vote is represented in the figures that give the present majority of 3000.

Prohibition did not fare well in the general election. They lost considerable territory in addition to the proposed state-wide measure, and in addition the defeat was made more telling by the triumph of the home-rule measure.

None of the counties already wet voted dry, but seven of the dry counties went against prohibition. These were Gilliam, Morrow, Malheur, Polk, Tillamook, Umatilla and Klamath.

Leslie Butler has the distinction of being the only prohibitionist candidate to carry a county. Butler is a banker at Hood River, and was a candidate for state treasurer. He received 567 votes to the 478 given Thomas McKay, republican.

Only One Normal Wins.

Only one normal school will receive state aid out of the three that submitted the proposition to the electorate. The successful school is located at Monmouth; the Ashland and Weston schools went down to defeat.

The employers' liability bill carried, and the bill proposing the creation of a commission to draft a liability bill was slaughtered. The measure for an asylum in Eastern Oregon carried. The extension of the direct primary law to party candidates for president and vice-president and delegates to national conventions was adopted.

Goods roads were favored and the woman's suffrage measure was turned down.

LOSTINE CHARTER CARRIES.

An entire new charter was adopted by the voters of Lostine at a special election held November 10. The vote stood 35 for the charter to 5 against.

County High Wins Two More Games

Prevents Joseph And Wallowa From Scoring—Eighty Students Now Enrolled.

The second team of the Wallowa County H. S. won a one-sided game of football from the first team at Wallowa, Saturday, the final score standing 37 to 0.

A week ago Saturday, the first team of the county school won from the first team of Joseph by 15 to 0. Quite a crowd drove up from Enterprise to witness the game.

The County High boys are playing great ball this fall and so far have found nothing to hold them. La Grande had a taste of their mettle during fair week and want no more of it. The local team has greatly improved since then under the effective coaching of Professor Shirk, and today is one of the strongest teams in Eastern Oregon.

High School Notes.

There are now 80 pupils enrolled in the county high school.

The class and literary work is of high order this fall, and all the instructors are gratified at the progress of the students.

TWO SPECIAL TRAINS CATTLE AND SHEEP

ANOTHER HEAVY SHIPMENT OF LIVESTOCK FROM ENTERPRISE—LAST OF BEETS.

The sheep numbered 4800 and were sold by Jay H. Dobbin and Mr. Bonner to North Yakima parties.

The cattle were picked up on the Imnaha and Snake from many cattlemen by James Henry of Seattle to which point they were shipped.

Monday morning the last car load of beets of this season's harvest went to the La Grande factory. The total beet shipments from this station this fall number 140 cars carrying an average of 35 tons of beets each.

All the beets grown near here were pulled except a few car loads, the Japs quit work when the weather grew cold and the labor contractors will have to make good the loss to the sugar company.

The last five weeks have witnessed by far the heaviest freight traffic on the branch since it was completed, most of the freight originating at this station.

Besides the 140 cars of beets, scores and scores of cars of cattle, pigs and sheep, there have been many carloads of hay, lumber, lime grain shipped. There is lots of strain and hay to go out yet but the bulk of the stock is gone, probably not over 12 or 15 cars of cattle to be shipped and few hogs and sheep.

The incoming freight has also been heavy for many weeks past, the merchants receiving their big stocks of fall and winter goods. So far this month 10 car load lots have been received at Enterprise station.

TOTAL VOTE WAS 1670.

The total vote cast in this county at this election was 1670, or nearly 200 less than at the June election in 1908, when the county seal and other momentous issues brought out the largest poll in the history of the county.

WRIGHT FORFEITS BOND.

George Wright, who was arrested fair week charged with selling liquor, and put under a $200 cash bond, was indicted by the present grand jury, but failed to show up and his bond was forfeited.
