Guess the people of Wallowa are still boss of their own county.

SHUTT SOLVES IT!

The whole state is agog with discussion of the meaning of the Home Rule amendment and there's talk of a test case being taken to the supreme court at once.

The whole fuss is unnecessary and the talk of Supreme court is all boosh. The Joseph Herald elucidated on the subject last week. Solomon Shutt has spoken and it is now all clear—as mud. He says Joseph being the only town in the county to vote wet (on the county option measure, presumably) it is the only town "entitled to saloons under the Home Rule law."

Entitled is a good word, but then neither towns nor individuals get all they are "entitled" to in this world, and Joseph may not get legalized saloons, it won't miss them.

The Roosevelt haters are blaming him for Republican defeat. Aldrich and Cannon ran the Grand Old party ship on the rocks and now their followers accuse of the wreck the man who attempted to rescue it.
