Mrs. Beza Gearhart Morrison is a woman of versatile talent. As a reader and character actress she has no superior, and she gives a varied program, that includes music and pleasing everyone of her big audiences.

The old, old story, told times without number, and repeated over and over again for the last 36 years, but it is always a welcome story to those in search of health—There is nothing in the world that cures coughs and colds as quickly as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

MEXICAN TROOPS PUT REBELS TO ROUT

Revolutionists Lose 15 Killed and Many Wounded in Engagement.

Chihuahua, Mex.—In an engagement near this city 600 Federal troops routed a force of 400 Maderoists, driving them repeatedly from a strong position and compelling them to take to the mountains.

The revolutionists lost 15 killed and many wounded. There were no fatalities on the Federal side, but several, including three officers, were wounded. General Navarro was in command of the Federal troops.

Near Fresno, 12 miles out, one of the squads of cavalry fell behind to guard the road. They were ambushed by the rebels, who opened fire from hills on both sides of the highway.

Captain Florentino Gavica with 50 troopers drove the enemy from their positions. He waited for a portion of the Federals, who had gone forward, to reinforce him before pursuing the insurrectionists.

Within half an hour, General Navarro reached the scene with his infantry and opened fire. Again the rebels retreated, only to seek a new position, from which they were again dislodged.

Laredo, Texas—Francisco Madero, leader of the revolutionary faction in Mexico, is now on United States soil with a band of his followers. This information, said to be authoritative, was received here and puts an end to the mystery of the whereabouts of the rebel commander. The message further states that Madero is organizing his forces and will again cross the border to resume activities within a short time.

PORTLAND-SEATTLE CENSUS

Washington.—The population of Portland is 207,314, compared with 90,426 in 1900, and 46,385 in 1890. The increase from 1900 to 1910 therefore is 116,788, or 129.3 per cent.

The population of Seattle is 237,194, an increase of 156,523, or 194 per cent over 80,671 in 1900. The population in 1890 was 37,834.

Census Director Durand said that until the complete returns for Oregon are published, showing the population of Portland's suburbs, a just comparison of the population of the two cities could not be made. Seattle has annexed its suburbs; a very considerable population, similarly contiguous to Portland, is outside its corporate limits.

The revision of the Portland figures resulted in the elimination of 15,745 names. The number taken from Seattle's count was 11,188.

Dredging to Begin.

Marshfield.—Dredging in the channel between Marshfield and the ocean, for which the Port of Coos Bay will collect a tax of $300,000 and the government has appropriated $50,000, has been begun, and it is expected that by the time the Panama Canal is completed Coos Bay will become a harbor of importance.

22 GIRLS DEAD IN NEW JERSEY FIRE

Inadequate Means of Escape and Panic Leads to Large Death Roll.

New York.—Twenty-two girls known to be dead, burned, suffocated or crushed, some killed instantly and others morally injured; eight dying at hospitals; 15 missing, their bodies supposed to be lying under tons of smoking debris; 38 more seriously injured—is the tragic toll of a fire in an antiquated four-story brick factory at 216-228 High street, Newark, N. J.

When the fire broke out it trapped 50 girls employed on one of the upper floors. A panic ensued. Many of the girls leaped from the windows. There is an engine house next door to the factory, but before the firemen could give any assistance at least 20 of the girls had jumped.

The building in which the fire occurred is a four-story structure. It is believed the blaze started on the second floor, in the rear, among a lot of rubbish. Within a minute or two after it was noticed it had made its way into a lot of waste paper, from which it connected with the upper floors. In all, about 200 persons were employed in the building.

Brazilian Sailors Surrender.

Rio Janeiro.—The mutinous sailors of the Brazilian fleet surrendered to the officials the vessels which they have held for several days. The surrender followed the granting by congress of the demands of the mutineers. These demands include amnesty to all concerned in the revolt, higher pay and less work for the sailors, and the adjustment of minor grievances. The warships in the hands of the mutineers included the two dreadnaughts, Minas Geracs and Sao Paulo, the Bahia, the Rio Grande Sul and Diado. They reentered the harbor, no longer flying the red flag.

STATES SHARE PROFITS

Nineteen States Will Participate in Forest Returns Division.

Washington.—Nineteen states will participate in the 25 per cent division of national forest revenue for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1910, according to a bulletin issued by the forest service. The state's portion, which is for road and school purposes, amounts to $506,194, an increase of $67,492, or slightly more than 15 per cent over the amount distributed last year.

The amounts which will go to the far western states are: Idaho, $66,074.55; Oregon, $39,635.87; Washington, $23,671.59.

Glavis Divorced.

Seattle.—In a divorce battle, waged entirely by deposition, with the principals absent from the courtroom, and represented only by their attorneys, Judge Frater granted a decree of divorce on her cross-complaint to Maude E. Glavis, wife of the former chief of the Seattle division of the field service of the interior department, for desertion and cruel treatment.

Taft's Friends Win

Waterway Delegates Quash Attack in Resolutions.

St. Louis.—An attack on President Taft was thwarted at the final session of the Lakes-to-the-Gulf Deep Waterway Association convention here, after the resolution committee had asked approval of its report. Friends of the chief executive rushed to the platform and appealed to the delegates to eliminate what Governor Dehean, of Illinois, termed an "insult."

After two hours of warm discussion the objectionable section was stricken out.

The section which caused the heated debate, follows:

"And in bitter disappointment and in sorrow we are compelled to deplore the course of the executive in delaying the creation of the board provided for in the last rivers and harbors act, and in finally appointing a board which proved unfriendly to our policy, and our projects, despite our patriotic effort to aid him by information concerning these physical and commercial conditions better known to us than to others."

TO REGULATE CORPORATIONS

Portland.—The doctrine that the public has an interest in the use of the property of corporations engaged in a public service is to be whipped into shape by Dan J. Malarkey, senator from Multnomah county, and a bill creating a public service commission is to be introduced in the session of the Oregon legislature, which will convene at the state capital early in January. The act will be one of the first measures presented for the consideration of the senate, and will provide means for the regulation of street car transportation, power, light, water, telegraph, telephone and all other corporations selling their goods to the people while making use of some of the property of the people.

The bill will be modeled somewhat after the law now in operation in the state of New York, but it is not intended to divide the state into districts.

By making the bill state-wide in its application, Senator Malarkey hopes to secure the support of those who are now advocating the creation of a public service commission for Portland, and who have threatened to secure a law by initiative at the next city election.

20,000 Acres to Be in Orchards.

Medford.—Professor P. J. O'Gara, pathologist in charge of Jackson county orchards, estimates that 1,500,000 fruit trees, principally pears and apples, will be planted in the Rogue river valley this winter. These trees will require 20,000 acres of land for planting, making the total area of orchard land in the Rogue river valley approximately 85,000 acres. On the foothills and slopes, where irrigation is impossible, peaches and grapes will be planted, and near Eagle Point a large tract will be set to figs.

Portland Apple Show Opens.

Portland.—Seventeen hundred boxes of prize apples are on exhibition at the apple show which opened on Wednesday morning in the Majestic theater building. Of the largest exhibits are two consignments of 300 boxes each. One came from Dufur, Ore., and was gotten together by the commercial club of that town, while the other came from the Hillsboro commercial club. Each city is in the field for the big purse of $250 offered for the largest collective exhibit.

BRIEF NEWS OF THE WEEK

A sweeping investigation into the rates charged by the Pullman Company for sleeping car berths and parlor car seats is to be instituted by the interstate commerce commission at a hearing to begin Wednesday in Chicago.

The Tennessee supreme court held as constitutional the act of the Tennessee legislature of 1909 prohibiting the manufacture of whisky in Tennessee.

A meeting of Democratic leaders in Baltimore with Democratic National Chairman Mack and Champ Clark resulted in the decision to hold a general conference of Democrats from all states in Baltimore on January 17.

ITEMS OF INTEREST THROUGHOUT OREGON

Chronicle of Important Events of Interest to Our Readers.

Six-Year Term for All Judges.

Salem.—Judges of all courts in the state of Oregon will hereafter be elected for terms of six years, according to an amendment adopted by the people at the last election. This will include county judges, now elected for four years and justices of the peace elected under the present laws for a term of only two years. At present the terms of judges of the supreme court are already for six years.

The attorney-general holds in an opinion that county judges and justices of the peace elected at the last election will not be affected by this new constitutional provision. Only the future elections will be governed by the amendment.

Union Wants Branch Asylum.

Union.—Union is preparing to present its claims to the state commission for the location of the branch insane asylum, to be placed at either Union, Baker or Pendleton. Within 60 days from the time the governor declares the bill a law the location will be made. This place will claim a central location, fine soil, pure water, a temperate climate, state land already bought and other advantages.

Reclaim Umatilla Land.

Hermiston.—The large seepage lakes on the Umatilla irrigation project, near here, are to be drained, reclaiming about 400 acres of good land. This work is to be done by the government under the supervision of E. P. Dodd. While a large part of the water is to be drained off in ditches, the balance will be removed with pumps and used to irrigate additional lands.

McCarthy Wants Probe.

San Francisco.—In a letter to the grand jury Mayor P. H. McCarthy has called upon that body to begin forthwith an investigation of his official acts, with a view to determining whether any foundation exists for rumors which he says have been persistently circulated by political enemies of the present union labor administration, and that he recently accepted two bribes of $10,000 and $60,000, respectively.

Hankers for Ballinger's Job.

Washington.—Representative Englebright of the First California district, who was defeated for re-election wants Secretary Ballinger's job in the cabinet, according to a well defined rumor. Englebright is reported to have written to several senators and congressmen concerning the matter, giving his opinion that Ballinger will soon resign.

When told of the Californian's reported prediction, Ballinger made his usual denial regarding his possible resignation.

Saturday Special, Dec. 3---16 pounds any kind Beans for $1.00 cash.

$10 GOLD FREE Every Saturday Night Money In Your Pocket to Read This

Commencing Monday, November 28, buy goods with red tags on them, we remove the red tag, write your name on it, and deposit it in a locked box in our office. Every Saturday night we will blindfold a child who will draw out two tags. The names appearing on these two tags will each be paid $5 in gold.

We are adding more goods to our Red Tag Sale every day and it is all good stuff, too, and cut to such a low price that all can afford to buy. In this sale are ladies' and children's coats, remnants of dress goods, ladies' furs, mittens, fascinators, shoes, house slippers, felt lined shoes and slippers, infants' shoes, children's shoes, men's shoes, men's hats, men's clothing, men's rubbers and felts, underwear, shirts, sweaters, and lots of other good seasonable stuff, and on everything we have cut the life out of prices; not 25 per cent off, but twice that. Come and see for yourself. Sale runs every day.

We are doing this because we need money and must have it and are willing to stand a loss to get it. When we get the money we need, then we will take off the red tags. But don't you wait for us to do that. Ask any of your friends and neighbors if we have cut our prices any on this Red Tag Sale.

This is to be strictly cash, and no goods returnable. But you can try the goods on here and examine them all you want to. At the extremely low price that we are selling this stuff we could not afford to give the time to make exchanges, because we are going to be good and busy.

Remember every Saturday night some one is going to get those two $5 gold pieces

P. S. If you live out of town and draw this money we'll send you our check
