Lostine News Of Special Interest

Local and Personal Items From the Reporter of December 1.

Rich Van Pelt came in on Wednesday's afternoon train from Redmond, Ore., where he has been clerking in a store. He has been away for several years and will remain here on a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Van Pelt, until about the first of January.

Mr. and Mrs. Burnett and four little boys arrived here last week on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Ackley who live five miles south of town. Mr. Burnett has been working in the mines on Douglas Island, off the coast of Alaska, where he and his family have been for the past several years.

Mr. and Mrs. James Fitzpatrick and little daughter Gylene, left this morning for Portland and from there will go to Medford, Ashland and other Western Oregon points. They intend remaining away all winter. The change is made with the hopes of benefitting Mrs. Fitzpatrick's health which is very poor.

Mrs. O. B. Rich, who has been ill during the past summer, died at the family home one mile northwest of Wallowa early Sunday morning and the body was laid to rest in the Lower Valley cemetery Monday, the funeral services being held at 11 o'clock. The cause of death was from a complication of troubles, she having been seriously ill since the birth and death of their baby several months ago. The deceased was comparatively a young woman, and leaves her husband, one little daughter, Emma, aged six years, and two step-children, Fred Rich of Wallowa and Mrs. Dode Harris of Canada.

Arthur McMullen with his wife, laughter and three sons arrived here on Wednesday's afternoon train on a visit with Mrs. McMullen's brother, D. H. Harris and family who live south of Lostine. The McMullen family are old-time residents of Wallowa county. Mr. McMullen having been in the photograph business in the county until about four years ago. For the past several years they have made their home in Canada, but owing to the failing health of Mrs. McMullen they were compelled to come south. They will probably spend the winter in Wallowa where another brother, H. W. Harris, resides.

AN ELK

CHRISTIAN PASTOR RESIGNS.

Rev. Clifford Ernest resigned the pastorate of the local Christian church Sunday, and the resignation has been accepted.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest have not decided where they will move as their plans are not yet perfected but they expect to leave here for another field of work.

During their short stay in this city they have made many warm friends who regret to see them go and wish them good luck wherever their work takes them.

Mr. Ernest is true to his name and is a splendid Christian gentleman, who has labored faithfully and well in the Master's vineyard.

PRIZE YEAR FOR OREGON.

This is prize year for Oregon, and the taking of premiums at outside shows seems to have no end. Hood River not only took the first prize at Spokane for apples, but followed it up with capturing the sweepstakes at Chicago in competition with the whole country. Medford took first prize at the Canadian National Apple Show at Vancouver, B. C., a Madras man at the Dry Farming Congress at Spokane with an exhibit; and now comes a Heppner stock breeder who receives the highest average price paid for Shorthorn cattle at the International Livestock Show at Chicago. One two-year-old heifer sold for $675. The average price received was $380.

A store's advertising keeps a store's friendships in repair.

The alert ad-readers get the pick of the store-bargains—always. Those MOST ALERT are most fortunate. You shouldn't fail to see what your favorite store is advertising today. When your no-bigger competitor begins to use more newspaper space than you, don't let anyone tell you not to worry!

The prudent gift-buyer is watching the ads nowadays—and making some Christmas purchases betimes.

If bargain-hunting is EXTRA-VAGANDE, isn't it odd that bargain-hunters usually have the money to buy the bargains they find?

The Youth's Companion Calendar For 1911.

The publishers of the Youth's Companion will, as always at this season present to every subscriber whose subscription ($1.75) is paid for 1911 a beautiful Calendar for the new year. The picture panel reproduces a water color painting of an old-time garden in a flood of summer sunshine, with a background of Lombardy poplars through which one catches a glimpse of distant hills. The picture being in 12 colors, the tones of the original are faithfully reproduced.
