COLLEGE STUDENTS STUDY SOCIALISM

INTERNATIONAL SOCIETY HOLDS CONVENTION—DOZEN LARGE COLLEGES REPRESENTED.

(From the Portland Journal.)

New York, Dec. 29.—The Socialist movement among collegians is attracting much attention among the literary circles of this city and the popularity of the movement among the student body is evidenced by the preparations made to accommodate members of the intercollegiate Socialist society at their annual convention to be held in this city today and tomorrow. The program provides for morning and afternoon sessions at which addresses will be made by J. G. Phelps Stokes, the millionaire Socialist and president of the society; Lincoln Steffens, the well-known publicist, and John Spargo, author of several books on Socialism.

The culminating feature of the conference will be the dinner on Friday evening. The topic for the evening will be "The Place for College Men and Women in the Socialist Movement." An enlightening treatment of the subject is insured by the presence of the following list of speakers: Dr. Albert Spidekum, for 11 years Socialist member of the German reichstag; Mrs. Florence Kelly, well known in the field of labor legislation; Upton Sinclair, Socialist author; Franklin H. Wentworth, speaker and writer; Miss Elizabeth Dutcher (Vassar 1901), especially active in the woman's trade movement; and Walter Lippman (Harvard 1909), formerly president of the Harvard Socialist club. J. G.

Phelps Stokes will preside.

Among the colleges where affiliated chapters for the study of Socialism exist are: Harvard, Yale, Columbia, Barnard, Wellesley, the City College of New York, New York University Law school and the New York School of Dentistry; the Universities of Pennsylvania, Minnesota, Michigan, Wisconsin, Washington and Oklahoma, Stanford university, Clark college, Kansas State Agricultural college, Marietta college, Meadville Theological school and other institutions.

The society was organized in 1905 "to promote an intelligent interest in Socialism among college men and women."

Paradise Reports Rumor of Railroad

Extension Down Grande Ronde May Be Started Early in the Spring.

Paradise, Dec. 30—Quite a snow blizzard is raging here now. The snow is several inches deep.

The mad coyote scare is still on. Several have seen coyotes supposed to have rabies.

New Year's dance at Flora tonight.

Max and Paul Wilson and their families of Joseph are visiting with friends and relatives here.

Born to the wife of George Garwood, a son, December 23.

Bale Shelton and family are up from the Grande Ronde river visiting relatives.

It is reported that work will begin early in the spring on the O. R. & N. extension down the Grande Ronde river. Nothing would help this part of the county any more than a railroad.

LARGE RECEIPTS IN CLERK'S OFFICE

TOTAL FOR 12 MONTHS $4297—RECORDING FEES HEAVY THROUGHOUT YEAR.

During the year ending December 1, 1910, the receipts in County Clerk Boatman's office amounted to $4,297.40, by far the largest total in any 12 months since the county was organized.

The receipts by months were: December, 1909, $469.95, January, 1910, $287.60, February $246.70, March, $277, April $407.75, May $343.30, June $256.50, July $413.40, August $316.20, September $327.45, October $475.20, November $476.25, total $4297.40.

Of this total, circuit court fees amounted to $804.50, county and probate $279.50, marriage licenses $183, recording $2991.40, stallion licenses $39.

The total receipts do not include fines or forfeited bonds.

The circuit court fees were the heaviest during the two court term months and the months immediately preceding each term. During February there were no county court or probate fees and only $7.50 for each of two months, April and November.

The banner month for recording was December, 1909, when the fees amounted to $377.95. No other month exceeded $300, though October, 1910, pushed that mark close with $297.30. The third largest month's receipts was April, $294.25, and the smallest was May, with $191.80.

December was the favorite month for mating, the receipts for licenses
