REWARD OF $2500 FOR CAPTURE OF MURDERERS.

The hunt for the murderers of Edward McCullough, the Haines saloon man, is still being pressed with undiminished vigor, although it is the opinion of many that the two men who committed the deed have by this time made good their escape.

Baker county has offered a reward of $1000 and the town of Haines has offered $500 for the capture of the murderers. In addition to this Governor West has telegraphed that the state of Oregon will give $1000 for their arrest and conviction, and many detectives are flocking to Haines to get in on the trail.

Flora Journal Changes Hands

Mrs. E. P. Skaggs Sells Flora Journal To Roscoe Gnormley and A. M. Bolden—News Notes.

Mrs. E. P. Skaggs, proprietress of the Flora Journal for the past nine years, has sold that rustling sheet to Messrs. Roscoe Gnormley and A. M. Bolden, who took possession of the plant Monday morning.

During the time Mrs. Skaggs has been at the head of the Journal she always tried and was very successful in getting out a bright, clean, newsy sheet which was fully appreciated by her faithful readers.

Mr. Gnormley of the new firm is now at outside points and expects to bring back with him new presses, paper cutter and other machinery to make the work of getting out a good paper much easier.

The new firm is intending to remodel the present Journal building, install new type and machinery and make the plant one of the best in the county. Here's hoping.

Miss Nettie Brock, who has been teaching the primary department of our schools, departed for her home in Enterprise, Saturday.

Mrs. N. N. Straley of Paradise departed for Asotin the first of the week, where she and her husband will make their future home.

Sheep are still dying at the Coffman sheep ranch. The report that it is all from hydrophobia, however, is greatly exaggerated. Frank Able, who has been herding at the camp, said this morning that but few had died from that cause, that the sheep being old and other conditions were responsible for by far the greater part of the deaths.

The last heard from James Fordice, who is in Portland, he was recovering from the operation he had recently undergone.

Dr. Gilmore has traded a portion of his town property to Walter Applegate for town property in Imbler. We are pleased to know that Mr. and Mrs. Applegate are intending to stay in Flora. We are in hopes, however, that the doctor will not conclude to leave us.

A dinner was given at the home of W. C. Straley, Sunday, in honor of that gentleman's 50th birthday.

M. H. Tucker of Enterprise was in town Friday night. Johnnie Maley, who is being treated for blood poison on one of his hands by Dr. Gilmore, was much improved Tuesday.

Troy. Sunday school was organized at Troy school house last Sunday. Eighteen were in attendance.

Mrs. Chas. Williams and daughter Lorene of Eden were at Troy Monday having some dental work done by Dr. King.

After working on the Troy Flouring mill for some time, Wm. Robinson returned to his home at Grouse last Sunday.

Quite an excitement has been existing on account of the long absence of A. J. Henderson and son, who went out for a six days hunt and were not heard from for 21 days, which was Wednesday. For three days Frank Peterson, Ora Parmer, Frank Eggleston, James Chadsey and Chas. Flemming searched in the mountains for some trace of them, the family at home being almost frantic with grief. At last a message was sent to Watsburg where relatives live and it was learned that those who had been thought lost had been there visiting and were now on their way home.

OREGON PRODUCTS ATTRACT BIG CROWDS

Indications are for great movement of Homeseekers into Oregon's rich unsettled parts during 1911. Fruit Industry interests Central States.

"The way to get people into the Northwest is to take the Northwest to them." This is what President Hill of the Great Northern has done for Oregon by completely equipping a car with Oregon products and sending it on a 7,000 mile tour through the eastern states with traveling representatives in charge who are well versed on western conditions.

good working field and the interested class seemed to be listed among the best people.

New Albany, Ind.—Nothing so far equals the attendance to the Oregon car such as we had at New Albany. Starting early in the morning we had a steady crowd of visitors for the two days. On the evening of the second day we passed through the car not less than 1,500 people between 7:30 and 9:00 p. m. It was necessary to do this, as we left at 9:30 p. m. I would has been nothing short of wonderful. Oregon is bound to gain from this practical publicity, and the value of it can only be reckoned when the colonial period is over and some idea can be had of the number of new settlers brought into the State.

The following reports of the Traveling Immigration Agents in charge of Oregon's Exhibition Car were furnished by E. C. Leedy, General Immigration Agent of the Great Northern Ry. Greenwood, Ind.—Fifteen hundred visitors, a great many of whom were farmers. A large per cent of interest was for homesteads in Oregon. The hall where the stereopticon lecture was held in the evening was crowded, and some were turned away. The apple display in the car is drawing many favorable comments.

Jeffersonville, Ind.—Tremendous crowd. At least 5,000 people visited the car. The crowd kept up all day long and the lecture hall was crowded in the evening. We estimated the attendance at about 1,400. The interest seems to be mostly in farm lands with a little for fruit culture. This is a estimate the attendance during both days at no less than 9,000 people.

Franklin, Ind.—Enthusiasm and interest shown here set a new mark for the Oregon Car. We had fully 4,000 visitors and the hall in the evening was filled to overflowing. I have never experienced quite such an enthusiastic audience as we encountered at our lecture. After the lecture we were kept busy for some time giving personal interviews. We also opened the car and allowed the people to look the exhibits over until almost 11:00 p. m. We secured the names of a large number of prospective homesteaders and tourists for Oregon.

Ansonia, Ohio.—Attendance about 600. At the stereopticon lecture in the evening every seat in the hall was taken. It was a rousing and especially interested crowd and the attendance was large considering the size of the town. Several came to me after the lecture in the evening and stated that they were going west this spring or summer.

S. S. Association Meets at Spokane

Expect 1200 Delegates To Be Present—Many Prominent Speakers To Lecture.

Spokane, Wash., March 7.—Twelve hundred delegates, representing all parts of eastern Washington and Oregon, north and central Idaho and western Montana, are expected to attend the annual convention of the Inland Empire Sunday school association in Spokane, April 25 to 27. They will be entertained on the Harvard plan, being provided with rooms and breakfast in private homes.

Rev. F. B. Foster, chairman of the reception committee, has arranged plans to meet every train coming in to the city on April 24 and during the time the convention is in session, and delegates will be escorted to their place of entertainment. Judge J. H. Bowers, chairman of the entertainment committee, announces that preparations are being made to care for all visitors. The delegates have been apportioned among the denominations as follows:

Presbyterian and Methodist, 250 each; Baptist and Congregational, 200 each; Christian, 150; United Presbyterian, 50; Methodist South, United Brethren, Evangelical and other, 25 each.

"Extensive preparations are being made for the entertainment of our friends, as well as making the programs of the three-day convention the most interesting and instructive in the history of the association," said Judge Bowers, "and we are looking forward to at least 1200 delegates, though we are in position to take care of several hundred more.

"There will be prominent speakers from the northwestern and coast states, also from eastern centers, and on the whole the program of the convention will be arranged on such lines as to give added interest to Sunday school work not only in the Inland Empire but throughout the Pacific slope country."

Do you know that all of the minor ailments colds are by far the most dangerous? It is not the cold itself that you need to fear, but the serious disease that it often leads to. Most of these are known as germ diseases. Pneumonia and consumption are among them. Why not take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and cure your cold while you can? For sale by all dealers.

CHAPEL CAR LECTURES TO BE IN COURT HOUSE.

The chapel car "St. Anthony" will arrive today (Wednesday). Lectures will be held every evening in the court house commencing Thursday, March 9, and continuing until Wednesday, March 15. Rev. Father Austin Fleming who is in charge of the car, is said to be one of the most eloquent speakers in the country and all are cordially invited to attend the lectures. A question box will be placed in the lecture room and all questions will be answered before the lecture, in a kindly spirit.

Mass will be said at the chapel car at 9:45 on Sunday and at 8 a. m. on week days.

Saves Thousands of Dollars to Farmers

Agricultural College Teaches Farmers How To Save Money By Using Right Methods.

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, March 7.—An actual saving of over $1,000 in horse feed resulted from the information gained by a prominent business man and farmer of Salem, Ore., in the winter short course at the Oregon Agricultural College. Last year he came himself to the course, and this year, being unable to attend he sent his ranch foreman. The knowledge gained in the course on feeding of horses alone netted him a saving of over $1,000 in his feed bills, and his animals are in finer condition than ever before, he says.

Over $5,000 would have been saved by S. W. Jamieson of Dell, Ore., he estimates, if he had taken the short course two years ago. Inexperience and lack of training when he came west two years ago to develop his holdings of 4,000 acres of fruit lands, caused Mr. Jamieson to make the usual mistakes of the beginner. Upon attending the course at the college this winter he discovered his mistake and made a careful computation of his consequent losses, which amounted to over $5,000.

These are but two of the large number of similar cases which have come to the attention of Dean Arthur B. Cordley of the college. It is a special aim of the college not only to equip young men to go out after graduation and develop the new lands to their utmost capacity, but to help the farmer, stockman and orchardman of the state who are already caring for lands of their own or in charge of large estates, to get the greatest possible value out of the land, and to help them to solve the problems that arise, and to get rid of the pests which injure crops.

NEW HOMESTEAD LAW.

Carl Roe, United States Commissioner, received a letter, Monday, from the La Grande Land Office, stating that a law was passed on February 13, 1911, which granted to all persons who have filed declaratory statements or made homestead entries in the state of Oregon, where the period in which they were required by law to make entry under such declaratory statements or to establish residence expired or expires after December 1st, 1910, are granted until May 15, 1911, to make such entry or establish such residence upon the lands entered by them.

This law allows those who under the former law would have had to establish their residences on their homesteads in March or April, until May 15 to do so. Or if they have failed to establish their residence in the time formerly prescribed by law, they now have until May 15 to do so, provided they did not file prior to June 1st, 1910.

Well Known Baker Photographer Dead

B. B. Bakowski, Well known Photographer, Thought To Have Perished in Crater Lake.

B. B. Bakowski, who will be remembered as spending several weeks in this vicinity a couple of years ago taking pictures of the scenery in Wallowa county, left Baker about two months ago intending to go to Crater Lake and take pictures of that well known lake. He has not been heard from since two weeks after his departure from Baker, and it is believed that he has perished.

It was at first thought that the unfortunate man had ventured too near the rim of the crater and had fallen into the lake, 2,000 feet below. It is believed now that he did not meet death in that manner, as he was familiar with the situation, having been there many times before and would not take chances on getting too close. It is thought by his friends that he left camp to take some pictures and got caught in a blinding snow storm and perished. Search parties from Fort Klamath, Ore., have found his main camp where was everything he took with him except his camera and snowshoes.

Bakowski made many friends while he was here two years ago who are indeed sorry and shocked to hear of his probable horrible death.

Always good news in ads.
