

BRANDEGEE KINCAID & CO.
CLOTHES.

THERE'S a certain touch of smartness to Brandegee Kincaid & Co. Clothes," that clever dressers cannot overlook.

It doesn't make any difference where you happen to be, if you are clothed in these excellent garments you are beyond criticism.

In the village, in the city, in the metropolis or the country, their correctness cannot be questioned.

We can easily see how you might consider our conversation very lightly, but if you will inspect our clothes you'll appreciate the heaviness of every argument.

These clothes are not only smart as to their general lines; they are also made from fabrics which are very handsome and certainly very unusual.

The Courage of Life.

The two virtues that help us along most in life are trust and courage. Apart from the tragedies invited by sin and violence and self indulgence, a large part of our trouble comes from anxiety, distrust, apprehension. It was not all frivolity that dictated the answer of a young girl who, being urged to prepare herself for a profession or a definite work, responded: "I'm not going to look ahead and worry. I can do a lot of useful things. I can mend, and make salad, and amuse children, and be patient and economical, and help people to enjoy themselves, and I don't believe nice girls starve." Courage and faith are always assets. Even if life goes back upon them and fails to come up to expectations the practice of these virtues is just that much to the good, and we have at least not lived in the evil moment until it arrived.—Harper's Bazaar.

Give Relations. "Do advise that man's constituents to stand by him?" "Yep," replied Farmer Cornfossil. "I advise 'em to stand by close enough to watch everything he does."—Washington Star.
