

Buy the Best

The best is always the cheapest. Cheap goods anywhere are never cheap at any price. But if you are not a judge, you must rely on the judgment of others. We have built up the largest Drug business in this locality by selling only goods of the highest character and never abusing the confidence of those placing reliance on our judgment.

A number of people have taken advantage of my proposition of Rough Dry Washing. You get it washed thoroughly clean, all starched pieces are starched ready to iron and the ladies say it irons better and nicer than anything they had imagined. They say, why its just fine. Try it. its done at Crandell's Laundry.

Some careless fellows broke down the footbridge railing in front of the reading room, one night last week. A few more little jokes like that and our dear friend Mr. Irving Matthews will need to build a new footbridge. Later the city council has put up barriers on the above bridge, and posted "Danger" notices. Something will surely happen now.

Death of Three Pioneers

Mrs. Lowe

Tryphena Lucy Fowler was born in Wheatland, Hillsdale county Mich. June 22, 1848 and died in Falls City Ore. Jan. 2, 1914 aged 65 years, 6 mo. 11 days.

In 1866 she was married to Jonah Lowe. To this union there were born four children. She is survived by her husband, two sons Ira and Harry Lowe of Portland, Ore., two daughters Mrs. Vina Miller of Vickeryville Mich. and Mrs. Stella Lowe of Falls City Ore.

Early in life she became a member of the M. E. church of which she was a faithful working member.

The deceased came to Falls City in 1900 where she has resided ever since.

Mrs. Lowe had been ill for many years yet through all her suffering she maintained a cheerful disposition. She was a faithful wife, a loving mother, a kind neighbor and a friend to every one.

Her funeral services were held at the home at 1 p. m. Jan. 4 1914 conducted by Revs. Marcy and Sadler.

The pall bearers were the following Masons, Messrs Nichols, Selig, Raines, Teal, Sammons and H. Brown. Her body was laid to rest in the I. O. O. F. Cemetery.

"She sleeps; her breathings are not heard
In palace chambers far apart;
The fragrant tresses are not stirred
That lie upon her charmed head.
She sleeps; on either hand upwells
The gold-fringed pillow lightly prest;
She sleeps, nor dreams, but ever dwells
A perfect form in perfect rest."

Horace Spencer Calkins

Horace Spencer Calkins was born in New York State, Nov. 19, 1841, and died at his home in Falls City, Or., Jan. 5, 1914, aged 72 years 1 month 16 days.

In 1865 Mr. Calkins moved to Michigan, and in 1867 he married Miss Emily Hicks.

Four children were born to them as follows:

Mrs. Carrie E. Lucas, wife of F. A. Lucas, now residents of Junction City;

Mrs. May Belle Courter, wife of H. C. Courter, of Portland;

William Calkins, who died at the age of 18 months;

Park S. Calkins, of Falls City.

Mr. Calkins and family came to Falls City, in 1893, where he resided until his death.

The entire family are members of the Christian church.

Mr. Calkins was a prominent citizen of Falls City for many years, having been a city councilman in 1898; auditor and police judge in 1900, and mayor in 1901. For the past six years ill health prevented his taking an active part in business and city affairs.

Mr. Calkins and his family have always been held in high esteem in this community, and his funeral on Monday was attended by a large number of our oldest citizens.

The funeral services were conducted at the house, at 2 p. m. Wednesday, Rev. Lee Sadler officiating, and the interment took place in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

Funeral director Chapman of Dallas, had charge of the burial exercises.

Clarence Aikman

Clarence Aikman died at his residence in this city January 8, 1914, aged 48 years 6 months 14 days.

Mr. Aikman was born July 24, 1865, near Oxly Ont.; moved to Michigan when 15 years old, with his parents; came to Oregon in 1894; was married to Rachel M. Syron Nov. 16, 1896, in the Siletz Basin; lived there until 1906, and moved to Falls City.

There were born three boys and three girls—one boy died in infancy. He has one brother in Michigan and one in Alberta Canada and a sister in Oxley Ont.

I. O. O. F. Banquet

By some mishap, the name of Rev. E. A. LaDow was omitted from the report of the annual banquet in The News of last week.

Rev. LaDow made an excellent address on this occasion and should have been given special mention.

The price will be 35 cents, and you will get all you can possibly eat, besides you will be in good company and at the same time be helping a worthy cause. You are invited.

Supper time will be from 6 p. m. to any old time.

Falls City Folks Astonish Druggist

We sell many good medicines but were told that buckthorn bark glycerine etc., known as Adler-i-ka, is the best we ever sold. Falls Citizens astonish us daily by telling us how quickly Adler-i-ka relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation. Many report that a SINGLE DOSE relieves these troubles almost IMMEDIATELY. We are glad we are Falls City agents for Adler-i-ka. M. L. Thompson.
