Golden Wedding Anniversary

Wednesday, January 28 was the fiftieth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ford, of this city. Mrs. Ford was Miss Lydia Hubbard, and the wedding occurred at the home of the bride's father, Rev. David Hubbard, on what is known as the Fenton place, near Falls City, on Jan. 28, 1864.

This pioneer couple came to Oregon from Illinois in eighteen-fifty-three, and since their marriage have resided in this vicinity.

Six children were born to them, two boys and two girls. One boy, John, died in infancy; one girl, Mollie, died at the age of 30.

Of the four children living, Mrs. W. L. Frink, lives on the old Ford place; Miss Flora Ford resides with her parents; J. R. Ford, of Eugene; Mrs. Walter Sears, now in Texas.

Mr. Ford was born Feb. 23, 1833, and Mrs. Ford was born Feb. 6, 1846.

Mr. and Mrs. Ford have a host of friends here, who wish them many happy returns of their wedding anniversary.

News and Comment

C. W. Lee went to Salem last Sunday, and returned the same day, accompanied by Mrs. Lee, who had been at the home of Mrs. W. H. Looze for a week. Mrs. Lee is in the care of Mrs. J. W. Halsey, and is recovering from an attack of pleuro-pneumonia.

The lively pages of the February American Boy contain valuable, interesting, informative articles for the boy chicken fancier, the boy gardener and the young electrician. Under the heading, "Novel Inventions and Natural Wonders" is gathered a pictorial record of the most interesting achievements of the scientist, and inventor. There is a page of vigorous editorial comment and a page of fun, and whether the boy be interested in carpentry, science, photography, philately, he will find his hobby among the many departments. Take home a copy to the boy. $1.00 a year. Published by The Sprague Publishing Co., Detroit, Mich.

Buy Belmont Orchard

Stephen Crocker, of Galveston, Texas, arrived here Saturday, and soon afterward purchased the Belmont Orchards, from J. L. Bell.

Mr. Crocker has returned to Galveston for his family and personal property, and will take possession about March 1.

Mr. Bell and family will remain here for some time, as his business with the railroad company will continue to be in this territory.

Mr. Crocker intends to still further improve the place.

Belmonts Orchards consists of 53 acres, and a portion of it contains a fine prune orchard, besides other fruits, berries, etc., in a high state of cultivation. The only prune drier in this community is on this property.

J. A. Bowman is working for Mr. Crocker.

Boy Scout Program

A program will be given by the Falls City Boy Scouts in Wagner Hall Feb. 13, 1914. This is given for the purpose of showing those who are not acquainted with it, some of the things a scout has to know.

The Boy Scout movement is a worldwide movement, for the betterment of character and the making of good citizens.

Some of the men connected with this movement in the United States are: President Wilson honorary Pres.; Theodore Roosevelt and William Taft honorary vice-presidents.

A collection will be taken to defray the expenses and to prepare for future work.

The numbers on the program are as follows:

- 1 Piano Solo,
- 2 Introduction and Salute,
- 3 History of the flag,
- 4 Treatment of fractures
- 5 Roller and Triangular bandages,
- 6 Solo,
- 7 Fainting, poison, and fits.
- 8 Collection, piano accompaniment, The Boy Scout March
- 9 Firemans lift,
- 10 Comparison of brush,
- 11 Stretcher act,
- 12 Talk by Mr. Miller, of Dallas,
- 13 Resuscitation from drowning,
- 14 Comparison of deer,
- 15 Map drawing,
- 16 Dialogue—"Daniel Boon and the Dandy."

Fatal Accident

J. E. Erdman, hooktender at Gerlinger's logging camp west of Black Rock, was struck on the head by the swinging block on the tight line logging cable, Friday afternoon of last week, and his skull was crushed in a frightful manner. He was taken to the Dallas hospital by special train that evening.

Mr. Erdman died Sunday evening. He was 28 years old, and he leaves a wife and two children.

The Erdmans came here from Pennsylvania about two years ago, since which time Mr. Erdman had been employed at the Gerlinger camp.

The burial took place in Portland Tuesday.

The First Chains

The first pattern for chainmaking was obtained in England in 1634 by a blacksmith named Philip White. The patent was for fourteen years, and in consideration of it White had to pay £5 in lawful money yearly "at the exchequer, Westminster, at the Feast of the Blessed Virgyn and Saint Michell the Archangell by even and equal process."

His patent is described as follows: "A way for the wearing of ships with iron chaynes by finding out the true heating (pre)pareing and tempering of Iryon for that (pur)pose and that he hath nowe attayned to the true vse of the said chaynes and that the same will be for the great saving of cordage and safety of shippers and will redound to good of our Comon Wealth."
