Candidates for Governor are becoming very numerous. Some are good, some are fair and one is dangerous. The belief is now, among the knowing ones, that if Smith is not nominated by the Democrats, and if Bennett should be nominated by the Republicans, there will be a loud call for the present governor to become a candidate.

The new 8-hour work-day law for Oregon is meeting with much adverse criticism, and some decided opposition.

The News is under obligation to County Judge Teal for a large map of Falls City's four election precincts.

Minstrel and Musical Show

The minstrel show given at the opera house both Monday and Tuesday evenings, under the auspices of the Polk County Band, was well patronized and both nights the house was well filled. There has not been a home talent show in this city in a long time that has given such universal satisfaction as the one put on this week. While the cast was quite large, and it would be difficult to mention each individual taking part, all showed careful training and executed their parts admirably. Harry Ennis under whose direction and training the minstrel was put on, is certainly on to his job and as comedian he is an expert and keeps the audience in a constant uproar from start to finish. It was really a night of laughs and the niggers reminded one of the old times away down in Tennessee. The singing by the young ladies was good. Altogether it is one of the best shows our people have had the pleasure of seeing in many a day.—Independence Enterprise.

This show, "A Night of Laughs," is now being rehearsed nightly in Wagner hall, by Mr. Ennis and a company of local young people. The entertainment will be given, February 20 and 21.
