Business in the police court this week has been unusually good. on "bad" would be the better word.

Falls City has the finest water in the state, and there is nothing more conducive to health, happiness and long life than good water, and then that isn't all the good things either.

The Oregonian says that Pendleton Oregon was thrown into a state of amazement by half dozen society women appearing on the streets in Pasha pants. We don,t know anything about "Pasha" pants, but we'll bet they beat none these cool mornings.

Pendleton, Oregon is certainly letting people know "she" is on earth. The explanation lies in the greater velocity of water as it falls. A cerning the fact of guilt or innopipe of a certain size will transmit cence; if the sole purpose and in- any number of gallons a minute if tent were to establish whether the speed of flow be increased or decreased. The faster the speed the law had been violated or not, the more water delivered per minute or per second. As a constant number of gallons is transmitted and as the velocity increases the size of the jet must get smaller to accommodate it to the speed. At an infinite velocity the stream would be zero in diameter

> Many natural phenomena demonstrate the above facts. Waterfalls, for instance, get smaller the further they fall, and sometimes reach the bottom in the form of spray. This fact is due, however, to the resistance of the air. Geysers, as the water gets slower going up, have a continually increasing stream as they ascend, and the largest diameter is at the top of the spout.

> The stream of molasses pouring from a jug contracts just below the mouth by surface tension, for this force tries to squeeze the liquid into the smallest space possible for the outside surface and that is, of course, a circle. So the stream be-comes cylindrical almost immediately after it leaves the mouth of the jug .- New York World.

vention or mediation are looking toward the betterment of the conditions of the oppressed in Mexico. But it is doubtful if that feature would be considered a minute were it not for the landed interests of cold-blooded corporations and millionsires. Some of the revolutionists are in favor of repudiating the titles that these corporations and millionaires have acquired and turning the land back to the people. Should intervention, or should the mediators, or more properly speaking, the self-appointed dictators accomplish their aims all would be well with the high-collared gentry and the peons could live in poverty and filth. But should the other side get the upper hand and repudiate these large land grants it would not be pleasing in the sight of John D. et al.

Niodest Goldsmith.

Oliver Goldsmith was an underpaid man from start to finish. Two hundred and fifty dollars for "The Vicar of Wakefield" was bad enough, yet for "The Traveler" he got but $100 and $25 for his "English Grammar." For "The Deserted Village," however, his publisher sent him $500. This he at once returned, with the message: "It is too much. It is near 5 shillings a couplet, which is more than any book owner can afford or, indeed, any modern poetry is worth." So he died with $10,000 worth of debts. "Was ever poet so trusted before?" said Dr. Johnson.

Resfused to Accompany Her.

'A noted German lyric soprano, who may as well be nameless here, as she is no longer before the public, d eveloped in her later years a habit of singing out of tune. One night at a small company, being asked to sing, she promptly consented, and her hostess then went to Otto Lessmann, the German critic, who was present, and said:

"Elerr Lessmann, will you accom pany Mme. Blank ?"

"With pleasure. Where is she go ing?"

"Why, to sing." "No, p ardon me, not there."

the city and for the people. But this is only one feature.

There's another that is seldom given much thought, and that is that the newspapers of any town or city are a paying investment for such place as industrial institutions. People welcome with open arms and loud acclaim any factory costing a few thousand dollars and they think the town is wonderfully fortunate in securing a plant that will give employ-Polk county, including attendance ment to a number of people. at the Independence race meet last Sometimes they even put up a Saturday. bonus to secure such a plant.

thought of it. The money that comes to the paper is spent in the town or city where it is published. None of it goes away, except for ink and paper and some other small supplies that cannot be bought at home. The newspaper is essentially a home institution. It works day and night to build up its home town and state, and spends its money free-ly with home people. It is pub-lished on strict business prin-ciples these days, and that is the reason for the growth and pros-perity that has come to many papers during the past few years.
