Secretary Bryan asked Congress for an appropriation of $4,500 for a Special Assistant Secratary of State to be appointed by himself, presumably in order that he, Bryan, might give more of his attention to Chautauqua engagements. The House "brutally" turned it down.

On account of poisonous sulpher fumes from smelters near Redding, California killing timber and all vegitation the Forestry Department caused the smelters to close down. But now comes one Mt. Lassen and in open defiance and willful disregard of constituted authority, fills the air with poisonous vapors and scatters ashes broadcast.

Some newspapers and societies are having much to say about the "Low Grade Medical Schools" and appear to be greatly concerned about possible harm that might result thereby. If these schools are such a menace to the health, and happiness it is passing strange that they do not name these school that the unsophisticated youth who aspires to "peddle pills" might not be led into paths that appear unseemly to the "Regular."

VALLEY SCRIBES MEET IN DALLAS

Interesting Session of the Willamette Valley Press Association, Dallas, July 18

Editors from various parts of the Willamette Valley met in the city of Dallas last Saturday. They were met at the train by members of the Commercial Club and driven through the city and country adjacent. The trip was a delightful one and on their return to the city were dined at the Gail.

The business part of the meeting was held in the basement of the Public Library, the Socialists and Democrats having taken possession of the court house.

The meeting was not as well attended as should have been, yet the "free space,, grafter was in evidence.

Various phases of newspaper economics were discussed, particularly the "Free Publicity" as is being worked by the San Francisco Exposition bunch. While all were practically agreed that it is poor business policy, yet in all probabilities.there will be little or no change and the free space getters will continue to flourish and wax fat.

While it is improbable that very much financial benefit is derived from these meetings yet it is'good to get together and swap experiences and get away from the office.
