LOST HIS PORK-CHOPS

Last Sunday night Wm. Finley retired to rest at peace with mankind, and with visions of juicy pork-chops for breakfast. But he was doomed to a bitter disappointment. During the night some heartless wretch invaded the sanctity of the store room and swiped about sixteen pounds of said pork-chops, a cake and a lot of canned fruit. The door of the store room usually was locked, but had been forgotten and William refuses to be consoled.

BIRTHDAY DANCE

A birthday dance was given at the home of Frank DeWitt on Saturday night, January 16th in honor of the DeWitt twins.

About sixty-five friends gathered to do honor to the occasion. Many nice presents were bestowed among which was a beautiful water set to each of the twins, given by the friends assembled, and was highly appreciated. Supper was served at midnight with "sauerkraut as desert," to which Roy McMurphy did full honors.

Games and excellent music, and the hours passed too quickly. The guests departed wishing the twins many happy returns.

THE ANTI-LOBBY BILL

This measure has passed the house and will probably become a law.

It is aimed at professional paid lobbyists who pose as disinterested citizens.

It is also aimed at State officials, deputies and members of boards and commissions.

When legislature meets these on salary and many drawing mileage and expenses, come to Salem to lobby for more money.

Officials travel over the state and fill the newspaper with the wonderfull achievements, all to increase taxes.

These abuses are all struck at by the Anti-Lobby bill which will help hold down the volumn of freek and graft laws.
