Remember cleanup day April 12 have the junk out in the street and report to the marshal.

Council Meeting

The city council met Tuesday night in regular session with all members present. The newly elected Mayor and Councilmen and Auditor were present, doubtless to take lessons in parliamentary usages. Many other visitors were present also.

The usual business was transacted. Albert Teal reported that the bridge on Dayton street could be repaired and put in a safe condition for about $30. He was ordered to make the necessary repairs. The city marshal's report regarding the light service the city was receiving and it was shown that they were short several large lights the city was paying for and the finance committee reduced the bill accordingly. The management of the light plant assured the council that the lights would be brought up to the required number and the complaint would not probably be made again.

Four ordinances relating to the electric light plant were submitted to the council and a committee was appointed to confer with the electric light people and come to some understanding and then present ordinances and a franchise to the council for passage.

T. D. Hollowell, who has always opposed the payment for the construction of the curb on Third street made a motion that the bill be paid. He apologized for so doing by saying that he with other councilmen had approved of the contract for putting down the curb at 65c per foot when they had formerly paid only 40c. He still maintained that it was a poor job, but it is to be inferred that the payment in this instance is a sort of a penance. His motion was not perfectly clear on the matter, but it might be construed that as the council had erred in making a contract at an exorbitant price that it was intended by the motion that the councilmen guilty of the act should go down into their socks and pay the bill, as it would be unfair to make Mr. Toller suffer for their mistakes and it is believed that Uncle Tom wants to act fair.

A motion was made that an ordinance be prepared making it a crime to pluck, or in anyway injure flowers, shrubs or trees planted in the park strip or on the property along the street.

The Auditor was instructed to furnish the city attorney with the names of parties who are delinquent with street assessments together with a description of the property involved that action may be brought at once to collect

Last Wednesday a load of merry makers with well filled baskets repaired to the home of Mrs. A. H. Dodd to treat her to a birthday surprise. Owing to sickness Mrs. Dodd has been shut in all winter and expressed great pleasure at being thus remembered. The luncheon was a decided success and was especially enjoyed by the lady who occupied the seat of honor in the vehicle. The way things disappeared at her end of the table, especially the onions was a wonder. The day was filled with good cheer and fellowship. Those present were: A. H. Dodd, and Mesdames Dodd, Averill, Bourtourney, Conrad Elle, Russell, Paul, Ward, R. Wonderly, Dorman and Seymour.
