Irving Mathews is experimenting with a new paint and dyestuff. He believes that he has discovered a very valuable process. He also has a new process for making brick.

J. R. Ford and wife of Eugene have been visiting at the home of D. F. Courter and Wm. Ford. J. R. Ford is an architect and has drawn plans for Dr. Hellwarth's new bungalow.

The condemnation suit against Irving Mathews brought by the city to open up Third street across the Luckiamute was tried at Dallas Wednesday resulting in a verdict in favor of the city.

The regular monthly business meeting of the "Anti-Cants" will be held at the home of Martin Deal April 21, 1915 at 7:30. Everyone is welcome and a good time is planned for all. If you don't know what or who the "Anti-Cants" are come and find out.

In making repairs on the Dayton street bridge a beam gave way and it is believed that nothing short of a new bridge will answer. It is likely that it will be closed up for the season as the taxpayers have about all they can say grace over and will certainly rebel at more expense this year.

Ed Sampson was severely injured Friday, April 9th while operating a grader on the new county road. They were working on a sidehill when the grader struck a boulder overturning and catching him under it bruising him badly. That he was not more seriously injured is a wonder. He was out again Wednesday overseeing the work.

The special meetings held at the M. E. church, last week, were a success in every way. Rev. Marcy had charge of the sermons and Rev. DeLong of the singing. Every part of the services was well worked out, the music especially receiving many compliments. The meetings were well attended, especially the Sunday service. Several young people were converted and four united with the church and there are prospects of more. The meetings were a great benefit to the church and the community and we hope that their influence will be long felt and remembered for good in our city.—Contributed.

WEDDING BELLS

A quiet but pretty wedding occurred in this city at 12:00 o'clock Monday, April 12, 1915 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Boje.

The contracting parties were Mr. A. H. Persey of Sheridan and Miss Dorothy Boje of this city.

Rev. Gross of Salem solemnized the marriage in a very impressive manner. Miss Mabel Otte was bridesmaid and Mr. George Otte "best man."

The house was beautifully decorated with ferns and apple blossoms. The groom was dressed in conventional black and the bride was elegantly attired in pink silk and lace trimming, and carried a beautiful bouquet of tulips. After the ceremony all were conducted to the dining room where a sumptuous dinner was served.

The groom is a highly respected citizen of Salem where he has had charge of a garage, and recently engaged in the automobile business at Sheridan, where they will reside.

The bride is the wellknown and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Boje of this city and is a trained nurse.

The many friends of the couple wish them happiness and prosperity and that in after years when traveling down the western slope of life that this day may stand in memory as one of the happiest period of their lives.

The following guests were present:

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Persey and two children of Salem. Mr. and Mrs. Sellers; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hubbard and two children; Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Stanton, of Dallas. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Persey and child; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bohle; Mrs. Otte and Harry; Mrs. A. B. Brown; Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Boje; Mabel and George Otte.

Making The Garden

Come out into the garden, Maude,
Come out and watch me make it;
I've got two spades, two pecks of seeds

And a rake with which to rake it.
Come out and watch with what deft skill

An Irishman I hire;
And help me sit upon the fence
To watch the man perspire.

When I was young and foolish, Maude
I used to do that work;
And showed big blisters on my hands
As proudly as a Turk

But now, although my head is bald,
It's twenty times as foxy,
And when the gentle springtime comes,
I garden it by proxy.
