INJURED BY FALLING TREE

Carl Anderson Has Shoulder Dislocated by Falling Tree Monday Afternoon.

Carl Anderson, age 27, a rigging slinger at Powell's camp was caught by a falling tree Monday afternoon about three o'clock and seriously injured. The donkey engine was dragging a log when the hook of the cable caught a tree about 8 inches in diameter pulling it down. Anderson was given warning and started to run, but the sun was shining in his face blinding him and he miscalculated just where the tree would fall. The tree struck him on the left shoulder dislocating it and otherwise bruising him. That he was not killed outright is due to the fact that the tree fell across some logs keeping the weight off him. He was taken to this city and thence to the hospital at Dallas on the 5:40 motor.

Card of Thanks

At this time we wish to thank the many friends who assisted and comforted us in our bereavement and for the many beautiful flowers, also the 6th grade of the Falls City school for the beautiful floral offering.

Mrs. Addie Montgomery visited her daughter, Mrs. A. C. Peterson at Dallas the first of the week.

Work started Monday on laying the foundation for a new $1200 school building at Black Rock.

Mrs. J. C. Talbott of Brooklyn, Iowa who has been visiting her grandson, Josh Talbott returned home Wednesday. Mrs. Fred Talbott accompanied her to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Redfield of Cashmere, Wash., are visiting relatives in this city. Mrs. Redfield is a sister to Mrs. S. H. Tetherow, Mrs. Wm. Ford and F. K. Hubbard. They have been motoring in eastern Oregon and will take in the Panama Exposition before their return. It has been ten years since they were here and they are much impressed with the great improvements that have been brought about in that time.

Three men were seen coming into town late Wednesday evening and at first they were taken to be tramps. A close look, however, revealed that it was W. B. McKowan, Morris Fowl and F. K. Hubbard. It appears that F. K. had invited them to take a ride with him in his "Hup-Mobile" over to Kings Valley where he hied himself with a load of berries. On the return trip something went wrong with the "Hup's" pulmonary apparatus and it refused to even cough. There was only one thing to do, and they proceeded to do it. Blithely humming the old familiar tune, "Tramp, tramp, tramp, the boys are marching" the trio headed for town where they arrived hot, dusty and thirsty. Falls City is blest with an abundance of cool, delicious and invigorating water that was used both internally and externally with very gratifying results both in outward appearance and inward feelings. The remains of "Hup" was towed into town Thursday afternoon by another automobile and taken to the hospital where Dr. Brown will perform a surgical operation.

SCHOOL CLOSURES

The public school closed a very profitable and satisfactory term Friday, June 4 with graduating exercises at the Wagner hall at night. The following program was rendered:

- Overture—High School Orchestra
  - Invocation—Rev. M. A. Marcy
  - Address—M. S. Pittman of Oregon
  - Violin Solo "Simple Confession"—Leona Hanson.
  - Class Prophecy—Conrad Cockerline.
  - Piano Solo, "Alpine Glow"—Helen Treat.
  - Valedictory—Edith Johnson.
  - Presentation of Diplomas—Supt. H. C. Seymour.
  - Benediction—Elder B. L. Hicks.
- The graduates are as follows:
- Elvin Snider Winfield Johnson
  - Mae Hanson Hanvey Deal
  - Mildred Chapin Conrad Cockerline
  - Edith Johnson Helen Treat
  - Fay Wells Katie Barnhart
  - Lorraine Hailey George Otte
  - Lester Bowman Geneva Sayre

The faculty and students are justly proud of their work during the past year and the receiving of diplomas is the reward worth the price. An education is as Treasures laid up "where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break thro' nor steal." Fortune may frown upon you and deprive you of all worldly goods, but an education is with you always.

Work for the coming year is being planned and it is the aim of the faculty to profit by the experiences of the past year and, if possible, make a better record this year. While we may be divided on the subject of politics, religion and many social questions, we should all be as one on the question of education. Give a girl or boy a practical education and he can take his or her place in this hustling, bustling world with a feeling that they will be able to meet any emergency.

"Big Eats"

The Ladies Aid of the Christian Church will serve one of their famous dinners at the basement of the church Thursday, June 17, from 11:30 o'clock, a.m. until 2 p.m. It is not given out at this time just of what the "feed" will consist, but it was told, confidentially, that it will be great, and that everyone that partakes of its bounties will look "prosperous" ere they leave. The cost will be only two-bits.

Dodd-Brown Wedding

A pleasant wedding took place Thursday noon at the home of Elder A. H. Dodd and wife when in the presence of twenty-six relatives and friends their daughter, Cecil Muriel was united for life with Mr. Fred Grant Brown of Crystal, Klamath County. During the ceremony the couple stood on the front porch before a large heart of white roses attended by Mr. Francis Brown of Crystal and Miss Myra Hukill of Corvallis. The impressive marriage service was officiated by the father of the bride, assisted by Elder Hicks; the signing witnesses being Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hopkins, the same parties who, twenty-nine years ago were witnesses at her parents wedding in Michigan.

The groom is a young man of sterling moral worth, a graduate of the State College at Corvallis, a surveyor and civil engineer, and an energetic business man.

The bride was reared in this city, educated at the Falls City and Corvallis school, a successful teacher and is too well and favorably known in this community for the News to add a word of commendation to her Christian integrity.

If the wishes of their friends can avail, they will have a successful and prosperous married life.

IN MEMORIUM

Lambert E. Sheppard was born in Lewisville, Oregon May 12, 1879 and lived in southern Oregon until his marriage in Oregon City Oct. 11, 1900 to Mollie Leatherwood. He came to Falls City in 1908 and had been working in the camps until the time of his death June 3rd, 1915.

Lambert Sheppard was a large hearted man and well liked by all who knew him. He leaves to mourn his loss, a wife and five children, two sisters, one brother and four half brothers.

Funeral services were held Sunday at the M. E. Church. Interment was made in the Odd Fellows cemetery.

He is not here, but far away
The noise of life begins again,
And ghastly thro' the drizzling rain
On the bald street breaks the blank day.
I stretch lame hands of faith, and grope,
And gather dust and chaff, and call
To what I feel is Lord of all,
And faintly trust the larger hope.
—From Tennyson in Memoriam.

The Spaulding Logging Co., have received a new "donkey."

Miss Edith Gardner was a Dallas visitor the first of the week.
