Wanted—20 to 80 acres of land, with or without improvements. Must be good soil and price reasonable. F. Droege, Falls City, Ore.

C. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Munson and Mrs. Robinson were out automobile riding on the new Siletz road last Sunday. They say the road is all right.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Brown departed for Crystal Wednesday. Mrs. A. H. Dodd accompanied them as far as Benton Co., where she will visit her father and brother.

The Junior Bereans held their monthly class meeting in the basement of the Christian church Monday night. The regular routine of business was transacted after which ice cream and cake was served.

Tuesday Mrs. R. M. Wonderly took her Sunday school class over on Teal creek on a picnic and fishing trip. It was an ideal day for an outing and all enjoyed it hugely. At dinner time they found that while they were supplied with the 'loaves' they were short on the 'fishes.' They returned about 4:30 feeling that they had had quite a jaunt.

Locates in Dallas

W. P. Lewis has bought the confectionery of Ramey & Kelley at Dallas and has moved to that city. Since retiring from the office of city marshal Mr. Lewis has been casting about for some business proposition. He has investigated several but decided that the Dallas proposition suited him best and closed the deal Monday.

Mr. Lewis has been a resident of this city for a number of years having served as city marshal three years making a very efficient officer. We regret to see him and his estimable wife leave our city. However, we commend them to the good people of Dallas hoping that their venture may prove successful.

Mrs. Hattie Tice was in Dallas on business Wednesday.

The new domestic science teacher is in the city looking up a location.

Mrs. Mildred Cutler was taken to the hospital at Dallas Tuesday.

A. Byerly and wife accompanied by their daughters, Miss M. Byerly and Mrs. Blake of Dallas visited their son, Frank Byerly and family Thursday.

The K. of P. lodge will hold memorial services at the M. E. Church next Sunday and attend in a body. Rev. Marcy will deliver an address of fraternalism.

A Japanese boy at Black Rock was driving a nail Tuesday night and struck the nail a glancing blow, the nail flew and struck him in the face, cutting a wound on his forehead.

Alex Courter returned last Sunday evening from a three week's land hunting trip to Montana. His son in law, Roy Russell returned with him. Mr. Courter did not find any government land that looked good to him and has returned with the belief that Falls City is a pretty good place after all.

An Italian whose first name is Tony reported to City Marshal Pat Murphy Monday that his house had been broken into and a gold fountain pen valued at $8 or $10 stolen. Officer Murphy after looking over the situation went and hunted up George Ferguson, a 14-year old boy and found the pen in his possession. It being a state offense the boy was arrested by Constable Roy McMurphy and taken to Dallas Tuesday and arraigned before the juvenile court. The boy made some good promises that he would not be guilty of the crime again and was released.

Oakdale Items.

A number of our people attended the picnic at Rickreal.

Gladys Murphy spent several days with her grandmother.

Katie Barnhart is spending her vacation at home.

Sunday school was not in session at Oakdale June 6 as several members attended the baptizing at Dallas.

Alvin Rains has returned to Falls City.

Rev. Marcy was over from Salem Wednesday.

Reta Bowman and Gertrude Harrison were shopping in Dallas Wednesday.

The dinner given by the Ladies Aid of the Christian Church was a successful affair. Great credit is due Mrs. Conrad Elle for her most excellent management.

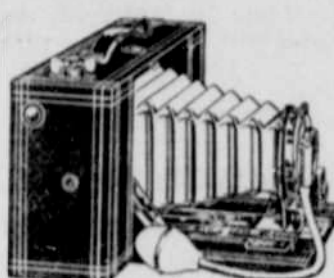

George Hislop and wife of Decorah, Iowa arrived Wednesday to visit their daughter, Mrs. Oren Syren. They have been visiting other children at Portland. Mr. Hislop is one of the old time printers who began his life's work forty-three years ago in the same shop he is still employed. He is out on a 90-day vacation, the first in all that time, and says that he locked up his house, left all worries and cares behind him and is out for a good time. He expects to be here several weeks.

Last week a party of young people took a hike to Teal Falls taking their lunch and spending the day. Dinner was cooked over smoking hot coals where each one took his and her hand at the frying pan. The journey to the falls was somewhat difficult as none of the party were familiar with the trail but all expressed their desire to return again. Those in the party were: Misses L. Meyers, E. Rhendols, A. Anderson, A. Pimm; Messers H. Deal and C. Graham.

Postmaster Ira C. Mehring returned last Saturday from Portland where he attended the Postmaster's convention. He says the attendance was good. Resolutions were adopted asking that there be a minimum size adopted for letters and packages. Much trouble is experienced in handling very small packages and small sized letters that some people use.

Mr. Reece of Kansas is visiting his cousin, Mrs. H. A. Walter this week. Mr. Reece is on his way home from the Exposition.
