

LEAVES HOUSE TO HER PETS.

Dead Woman's Dogs and Cats Occupy Home That Was Hers.

Elizabeth, N. J.—Occupying a house in Ashwood avenue, a company of dogs and cats, which were the pets of the late Mrs. Mary Romaine Wright, will be allowed to enjoy undisturbed their present abode until they voluntarily seek another home. Such request is contained in the will of Mrs. Wright. Mrs. Wright's daughter, Mrs. Frederick C. Kelley, is named to see that the strange request is carried out.

In accordance with the dead woman's desires her late home is kept heated and the animals fed regularly. Mrs. Kelley said she hoped the animals would become sufficiently attached to her to make their abode at her house, which is only a short distance from the Wright homestead. Mrs. Wright was well known in this vicinity as a friend of dumb animals. With her husband, the late Seaman L. Wright, she lived for more than forty years in the old homestead.

DOG FINDS $1; TAKES IT HOME

Shep Is Honest, but Thinks Everything Belongs to His Master.

Muncie, Ind.—Edward Gottlieb of Muncie has a shepherd dog which for intelligence he believes cannot be surpassed. It is not unusual for the animal to bring home things that he finds in the streets, but the other day it surpassed all its previous endeavors by coming home with a brand new $1 bill in its mouth. It is said the dog picked up the money in South Walnut street, in the center of the business district. Mr. Gottlieb is now endeavoring to find the person that lost the money.

"Shep does not mean to be dishonest," said his owner, "but he thinks that everything of value he sees should belong to me."

EPITAPH ON STEPPING STONE

Found on Slab Just Turned Over After Fifty Years.

Columbia, Conn.—Needing a flat stone for repairs that he was making, Edward Phillips pried up one which for over fifty years had been used as a stepping stone near the farmhouse back door. To his surprise he saw on the reverse side, in fairly plain letters, the inscription:

In memory of Emily, daughter of Mr. Joseph and Mrs. Eunice Smith, who died April 15, 1814, aged six months and fifteen days.

Rest, thou, sweet slumberer, in the peaceful grave;
Short was thy life; forgotten soon shall be.

Except the few who, drowned in sorrow's wave,
With painful pleasure still remember thee.

Nobody knows where the stone had been used or where it came from. Mr. Phillips' father bought the house over fifty years ago and the stone was at the back door then for a stepping stone. It is five feet long and nearly two feet wide.

LAST SHOT OF CIVIL WAR.

Woman Asked Police to See if Old Gun Was Loaded—It Was.

New York.—The "last shot of the civil war" was fired recently in a courtroom. It came from a gun which had been hanging for years on a wall in the home of the late Willard H. Hodgson. The musket had been carried in the war of the rebellion by Mr. Hodgson's father.

Mr. Hodgson's sister was preparing to move to another house, but was afraid to take down the old musket. She called in Lieutenant Henry Brown of the Flatbush police station and turned the gun over to him. He took it around to the station house and showed it to Attendant Patrick O'Loughlin of the Flatbush court, which is in the same building.

Standing in the corridor O'Loughlin pointed the gun at the door and pulled the trigger. The old war musket was heavily loaded, and there was a report which startled the police reserves and the people in the courtroom.

Whole Family Benefited By Wonderful Remedy

There are many little things to annoy us, under present conditions of life. The hurry, hard work, noise and strain all tell on us and tend to provoke nervousness and irritability. We are frequently so worn out we can neither eat, sleep nor work with any comfort. We are out of line with ourselves and others as well.

A good thing to do under such circumstances is to take something like to relieve the strain on the nerves. Mrs. J. B. Hartsfield, 82 Plum St., Atlanta Ga., writes:

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills

"I have on several occasions been vastly relieved by the use of your medicines, especially the Anti-Pain Pills, which I keep constantly on hand for the use of myself, husband and two sons. Nothing in the world equals them as a headache remedy. Often I am enabled by the use of one or two of the Pills to continue my housework when otherwise I would be in bed. My husband joins me in my praise of the Anti-Pain Pills and Nervine."

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills

are relied upon to relieve pain, nervousness and irritability in thousands of households. Of proven merit after twenty years' use, you can have no reason for being longer without them.

At all Druggists, 25 doses 25 cents.

BAD TEMPER CAUSE APPENDICITIS

Abdominal Specialist Says It Causes Inflammation

San Francisco, July 1.—As a man thinks so is his appendix.

So says Dr. S. J. Winter of Boston, wellknown specialist on abdominal surgery, who is attending the convention of the American Medical association here.

If you are fretful, hateful, morose, peevish or peppery, your appendix will suffer and you have to have an operation.

According to Dr. Winter, marked intestinal enlargement and an abnormal number of appendicitis cases are noted in insane patients, proving that there is some connection between a diseased mind and appendicitis.

Dr. Winter scored the appendicitis "fad" and the carelessness of unskilled physicians in attempting wholesale surgical operations for intestinal disorders.

"There are more unnecessary operations and fewer necessary ones performed on the appendix than any other organ of the body," he declared.

SENECA HAS TABERNACLE.

Men Built It in a Single Day—Seats 1,000 Persons.

Seneca, Kan.—A community tabernacle was built here in one day. At 8 o'clock the business and professional men of the town gathered with hammers, saws, planes and nails and went to work. By 6 o'clock the immense building was completed.

The tabernacle has a seating capacity of 1,000 people and will be used during the summer for the Sunday night meetings and for a community center for social affairs.

The band boys co-operated in its erection and will use it for their weekly concerts. The ladies of the city prepared and served dinner at noon to several hundred people.

The Rev. Charles A. Richard is the community pastor and one of the prime spirits in the erection of this tabernacle.
