DOUBLE WEDDING

Miss I. V. DeWett and Mr. Guy Lewis and Miss Nettie Hunter and Mr. R. V. DeWett are joined in Wedlock Sunday Afternoon.

Last Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock the home of F. J. DeWett one mile southeast of Falls City was the scene of a beautiful double wedding. The contracting parties were Miss I. V. DeWett and Mr. Guy Lewis, and Miss Nettie Hunter and Mr. R. V. DeWett, all residents of this vicinity.

Promptly at 2:00 o'clock the arrangements for the wedding was prepared and the young people took the marriage vow solemnly which was administered by Rev. E. A. LaDow. After the ceremony, the friends of the young people, of whom there was a large number, gathered around and congratulated them.

The wedding was performed in the open air under the tall fir trees. The ground was beautifully decorated with flowers of various varieties furnished by Mrs. G. A. Wolf. The brides were elegantly dressed and each carried a bouquet of Hydrangeas which were furnished them by Mrs. Frank Butler. The best man and bridesmaid to the DeWett-Lewis wedding, were Charley Johnson and Miss Sylvia Phillips. The Hunter-DeWett were, Berl O'Brien and Miss Mable Hunter.

After the ceremony a sumptuous repast was served. In the wedding cake was placed a five and ten-cent piece which was an emblem of the weddings to be in the future. The finders were Misses Ruby McGee and Mable Hunter.

The guests formed in a line behind the young couples and a photograph was taken by C. E. McPherren, the efficient photographer of this city. Pictures were also taken of the bridesmaids. The cigars were then passed by the grooms and the lovers of the weed were soon enjoying a stimulating smoke.

Mrs. Lewis is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. DeWett who have been residents of the county for four years, coming here from eastern Oregon, and is an estimable young lady with a host of friends.

Mr. Lewis is a native of this county and has been employed at the mill of the Falls City Lumber Co., for some time and is a young man of excellent qualities.

Mrs. DeWett is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hunter who came here from southern Oregon four years ago, and is an excellent young lady of winning ways and of a benevolent disposition that has made her many friends.

Mr. DeWett is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. DeWett and a brother of Mrs. Guy Lewis and is an excellent young man of good habits and is well liked and respected by his friends. He has been employed for some time as sawyer for the mill company.

The News joins their friends in wishing them a pleasant and successful career through life's journey.

Those present were: Mrs. J. P. DeWett, Barney Phillips, Miss Ritta Alderman, Mr. and Mrs. John Walker, Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Singleton, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zuver, Mr. and Mrs. LaDow, Miss Sylvia Phillips, Mrs. F. A. Wolf, I. A. Johnson, N. L. Roberts, Ruth Lewis, Goetha Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Seymour, Winona Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McPherren, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. S.

Mrs. Kathrine Anfinson
On July 31st occurred the death of Mrs. Kathrine Anfinson, mother of Mrs. Ed Sampson, Mrs. Wm. Kieney of Olix, eastern Oregon, and Mr. John Gilbertson of McMinnville.

Sampson-Taylor
Tuesday evening at 7:30 occurred the wedding of Miss Louise Sampson to Mr. Harry Taylor. The event was solemnized at the Methodist Parsonage and was witnessed by Miss Miriam Kieney and Mr. Harry Sampson. The beautiful ring ceremony was used.
Mr. and Mrs. Taylor expect to leave at once for eastern Oregon. Best wishes to them.

Mrs. Anfinson was born in Norway Dec. 3, 1830. Her husband died 24 years ago and she has been staying with her daughter, Mrs. Sampson since that time. For the last twelve years she has been an invalid. Death came as a sweet sleep after a well earned rest. She leaves fifteen grandchildren and twelve great-grandchildren to mourn her loss.
The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Marcy at the home of Mr. Sampson. Interment made in the Odd Fellows cemetery.
