

Good Printing Is Never An Expense

It is an investment it brings direct returns in increasing business, increased prestige in your line of trade, increased satisfaction that your printing is helping to sell goods. Cheap printing is expensive at any price, and in printing, cheapness is determined not by what you pay for it, but by what you get for what you pay.

Printing produced here brings business—its appearance gives you standing of worth—it is cheap only in price.

WOOLWORTH PAYS BILL.

Cancel Old Circus Debt of 50 Cents in Town of Boyhood.

Watertown, N. Y.—Frank W. Woolworth, many times a millionaire, is worth at least 50 cents less than when he arrived here. It was a persistent creditor known far and wide in this section as "Huckleberry Charlie" Sherman that took Mr. Woolworth's measure.

Forty years ago, when the big syndicate man and "Huckleberry Charlie" played as boys in the fields near Great Bend, the future multimillionaire needed just 50 cents to go to a circus that had struck town. On Charlie's money they both saw the show.

Recently, as Mr. Woolworth alighted from his automobile, Charlie was on hand to press his claim. Mr. Woolworth did not temporize. He acknowledged the debt, and, what's more, he paid it.

"We are both from the same town, you know," explained Mr. Woolworth after the settlement. "It seems good to see Charlie once more, even if it has cost me half a dollar. Anyway, that was the best show I ever saw."

KEPT COFFIN THIRTY YEARS.

Eccentric War Veteran Arranged His Own Funeral.

Newcastle, Ind.—Moab Turner, seventy-seven years old, was buried in a coffin he had made thirty years ago when he suffered his first stroke of paralysis. It was built from a great walnut chest which had been in his family for years. The coffin had been in the care of a local undertaker for ten years.

Turner, who was eccentric and arranged his own funeral, lived in Tennessee when the civil war broke out. He was conscripted by the south, and after six months' service succeeded in having himself taken prisoner so that he could join the Union army. He was captured at Cumberland Gap, exchanged, saw service daily in the Atlanta campaign and was again captured.

SHE IS QUEEN RAT CATCHER.

Girl of Twelve Demands Bounty on Bodies of Seventeen.

Marquette, Wis.—Pearl Parimeter, twelve, has given another proof of woman's encroachment on provinces heretofore occupied by men. She took seventeen dead rats into the office of Menominee's city clerk and asked for the bounty of 5 cents a head.

In the number of rats caught Pearl is second only to Lloyd Mason, the champion six-year-old rat catcher of Menominee, who has killed and collected bounties on fifty-four rats.

TURN FAUCET AND GET APPLEJACK COCKTAIL

Enjoyed Until Cider Makers Find New Dump For Refuse.

Reading, Pa.—For some weeks the city water bureau has noticed an amazing increase in the water used in this city. Inspectors and registrars alike were unable to account for it. People who seldom used water except to wash in have been seen indulging in amazing quantities. Men who have not used it as a tippie for a long time have been forsaking bars and clinging to water attachments in public places in lieu of pumps.

Analysis of the water discovered a peculiar taste. It was like three fingers of Bourbon diluted to the eighth degree. This failed to solve the mystery, however, as no one supposed for a moment that a distillery had been located near any of the reservoirs.

By accident the key to the puzzle has just been found. One of the inspectors of the state health board patrolling the water shed found several cider mills along the Maiden creek, which supplies the city, were dumping the waste and pulp from the apples used in making cider into the stream. This pulp, fermenting in the shallow places, produced the alcoholic juice that lent its peculiar applejack flavor later noticed in the city water.

Even the fish showed the effects. Fishermen reported that the fish would not bite, but seemed to be running around recklessly in the water and indulging in antics that no fish in its right mind would think of.

FLOOD LIFTS COW INTO TREE

Among Other Freakish Stunts, It Steals Barrel of Vinegar.

Frederick, Md.—Queer freaks were played by a cloudburst which swept over a section of Frederick county. County Commissioner Frank M. Stevens of Creagerstown lost two cows. He found one of them in the fork of a peach tree seven feet from the ground. Samuel Gelsbert of Creagerstown, who thought he had taken every movable object from his cellar, lost a barrel of vinegar.

Kill Big Brown Bear.

Nevada City, Cal.—A 300 pound brown bear was killed by Albert Buck and Henry Bever while hunting their stock in the vicinity of Moores flat. The footprints of the bear had been seen for weeks. The dogs got the scent and soon had the animal treed. Buck took one shot and brought the bear to earth. There have been several bears seen in the northern part of Nevada county, and they have been a menace to the stockmen.

FROZE HER SKIN WHITE.

Doctor Recounts Effect of Ether on Colored Woman.

Chicago.—Dr. J. W. King of Bradford, Pa., told a number of his colleagues at a meeting how he turned a negro's skin white as the result of an accident. He treated a colored woman for lumbago by freezing one leg from the hip down to the ankle with ether.

"After a week or so," said Dr. King, "she returned to my office and said: 'Doctor, the lumbago is gone, but I think I shall have to prosecute you for mistreatment. You've done more than you said you would.'"

"The leg I had treated was perfectly white and is so to this day."

Some of the doctors present agreed that ether freezing has been known to remove the pigments in the skin, but they say Dr. King's case is unusual.

NINETY-TWO; RECHRISTENED.

Many Tail Feathers Is Grows New Teeth After Dentist's Visit.

San Francisco.—Chief Many Tail Feathers, ninety-two years of age and prominent in the Indian colony of the Great Northern railway's exhibit at the exposition, possesses a single tooth, gnarled and battered by many years' service.

"The white brother may have his teeth replaced, why not the Indian, to whom the great father in Washington promises all things that are good?" pondered the aged chief.

Many Tail Feathers conferred with Chief Bull Calif, and now that Many Tail Feathers has been measured up for a new set of pearlies his tribe has rechristened him "Grows New Teeth."

A Nervous Woman Finds Relief From Suffering.

Women who suffer from extreme nervousness, often endure much suffering before finding any relief. Mrs. Joseph Snyder, of Tiffin, O., had such an experience, regarding which she says:

"Six months I was bedfast with nervous prostration. I had sinking spells, a cold, clammy feeling,—could not stand the slightest noise. At times I would almost fly to pieces; stomach very weak. My husband insisted on my taking Dr. Miles' Nerveine, and I began to improve before I had finished the first bottle until I was entirely cured."

MRS. JOSEPH SNYDER,
262 Hudson St., Tiffin, Ohio.

Many remedies are recommended for diseases of the nervous system that fail to produce results because they do not reach the seat of the trouble. Dr. Miles' Nerveine has proven its value in such cases so many times that it is unnecessary to make claims for it. You can prove its merits for yourself by getting a bottle of your druggist, who will return the price if you receive no benefit.
