NEWS AND COMMENT

PROTECTION THAT PROTECTS

Tariff, tariff re-vision and no tariff are questions over which the Republicans and Democrats have "fought bled and died" over every campaign year and yet all fall short of the real needs of the American people. The protectionist will eloquently appeal for a protective tariff to enable American manufacturers to compete with foreign goods that American laborers may find employment. Very patriotic and worthy of consideration; but let's dig a little deeper into the tariff question and place one on cheap foreign labor for the protection of the American laborer. Notwithstanding the (?) strict immigration laws, thousands of ignorant and vicious foreigners invade our shores. To protect the manufacturers and not labor is to promote strikes, lockouts and in the end result in war.

Col. Hoffer through his Industrial News Bureau is trying to incite sentiment against the work of the Industrial Commission and industriously peddles any criticism he is able to pick up. He quotes the Albany Democrat: "There is a pretty general agreement that the $500,000 spent by the Industrial Relations Commission in its study of the labor question has been wasted." This agreement seems to be with the capitalistic press and its minions, only. The Commission made the fatal mistake of finding that the miners of Colorado were underpaid and that the Rockefellers were indirectly responsible for the riots and the slaughter of innocent women and children. Had their report been the reverse, doubtless the Colonel would have chanted their praise and indulged in a "breakdown."

We need a protective tariff that will protect American homes.

Study the Evidence

"The American people must acquire the habit of looking into the evidence," said President Arthur T. Hadley in his matriculation sermon at Woolsey hall.

"We must stop buying the newspaper that tells what we wish was true and buy the one that tells what really is. We must refuse to repeat unproved gossip or scandal because we like it. This will soon grow into the habit of not liking it. We shall learn to hate the unconscious lie as well as the intentional one. There may sometimes be a question whether we should tell the truth to others who cannot see it or understand it; there should be no question at all that we should tell it to ourselves. And when a man has learned to tell the truth to himself the problem of telling it to others becomes comparatively easy. The whole fabric of American society rests on the assumption that we are going to be honest in our dealings."

GRATIFIED

It always affords us pleasure to know that we have been the means of cheering hearts in gloom and scattering a little sunshine in the path of those who grope in darkness—hence the exuberance of joy expressed by the Polk County Observer over a little news item in last week's News to the effect that surveyors were setting grade stakes on the extension of the logging road to the Siletz timber, does our heart good. The Observer says that we had scoffed at its "news story" of the extension of the road and the prospect of the mill resuming operations, but finally the News had "discovered" the facts in the case and given them the publicity they deserved. Now if our optimistic friend Cates will re-read the "offending article" he will, perhaps, "discover" that there was no allusion made to the said road, neither was there any sarcasm hurled at the report of the mill resuming operations in the near future, (the people here have never doubted that). The funny part of its "news story" was the hilarity the citizens of Falls City were supposed to be in over the prospects. They were pictured to be in about the same condition, mentally as some of the Dallas "drys" are reported to be in after a visit to some of the thirst emporiums at Independence.

As there has been much dissatisfaction over the manner in which the County Fair was managed at Dallas this fall, why not move it to Falls City next year.

There are many reasons to offer for so doing, one very important one is that the more important exhibits came from the vicinity of Falls City and we believe that other sections that have held aloof would co-operate with Falls City in making the fair a success. It too often happens that county seat towns imagine that they are the high-cockalorum and expect other towns in the county to make obeisance to them. We hope that such a condition of affairs will not obtain in Polk county.

The University of Oregon at Eugene has suspended basketball as an intercollegiate sport and also the pre-season training camp for football men is ordered discontinued, baseball may be played from 4:00 p. m. to 6:30 p. m. It actually looks now as if the poor fellows would have a little time to study such inconsequential things as "rithmetic, 'g'ography," history and grammar.

Germany in defending her action in executing Miss Edith Cavell for assisting in the escape of French and Belgium prisoners says that the rules of war are immutable and know not sex; that those convicted knew full well the consequences of their acts. The safety of the entire German army depended upon the rigid enforcement of such rules.

Petitions are being circulated in Arizona for the recall of Governor Hunt. Among other high crimes and misdemeanors that his highness is accused of is, taking sides with striking miners. To a certain class, to espouse the cause of labor is synonymous with treason.

The Oregonian in an editorial says: "The poor man is quite as arbitrary on occasions as his more wealthy brother." And why shouldn't he be? Does wealth give a privilege that the poor must forego?

In the first place his name, Tom J. Underwood, contains thirteen letters. The license number of his yellow campaign car was 113. Cools His Feet, Loses Job.

Bakersfield, Cal.—Traffic Officer Pinnell stood at the post of duty at a principal street crossing with his feet planted on a 300 pound cake of ice and watched the perspiring populace go by. Many persons laughed. But the chief of police consulted the city manager, and the manager conferred with several councilmen, and none of them even smiled. They discharged Pinnell for conduct unbecoming an officer and reflecting on the climate of Bakersfield.

Is 107; She Wants to Vote.

Glens Falls, N. Y.—"Of course, I haven't many years to live, but my one ambition is to live long enough to cast a vote, and I think I will." These were the words of Mrs. Mary Sage, 107 years old, of Barrowsville, a small hamlet near here, as she signed the yellow slip indorsing woman suffrage. Mrs. Sage is the oldest woman in northern New York.
