Bootlegger In The Toils

Louie Balbic, a Servian was arraigned in Squire Hubbard's court Thursday morning on the charge of bootlegging. He entered a plea of guilty and was assessed a fine of $50 and costs amounting to $12.75. Having no money to pay his fine he left in company with Sheriff Orr, handcuffed, for the Polk county boarding house, where he will have a rest of 25 days.

Balbic was accused of selling the liquor at a dance near Joe Gage's on the 13th of September, during the hop picking season.
He was aware that there was a warrant out for his arrest and fled to Marion county where he thought that he was out of the jurisdiction of the Polk county officers.

Balbic is said to have been engaged in the illicit traffic of liquor for some time.

the last few weeks. He travels over considerable territory in western Oregon and has an opportunity to judge conditions.

C. L. Starr of Portland, representative for the Cobb-Mitchell lumber interests was in the city last Saturday investigating the street improvement assessments. He was asked if there was any improvement in the lumber markets and his reply was to the effect, that as it had not grown any worse for some months it was his opinion that it was improving although there was little if any perceptible difference. He was also asked if there was any indications of the Falls City mill resuming operations soon and to this he said that he really did not know, that he had no intimation one way or the other and also added: "If I did I would-

That there is a Sunday Closing Law in Oregon is no longer doubted by the most skeptical and we understand that it will be observed in Falls City. Those who have been in the habit of buying cigars on the Sabbath will have to buy a few extra "two-fers" and et cetera Saturday night.

J. B. Giesy, traveling auditor for the State Industrial Commission was in the city Wednesday looking after the business of the Commission. He says that there is some improvement in the lumber business on the Coast, more particularly in Washington. He thinks that the squabble over rates causes some disturbance in the markets.

John Gilliam

Mr. John Gilliam of Oaksdale, Wash., died at his home Oct. 23, 1915. He had been stricken with typhoid for almost a month and then took pneumonia which caused his death.

John Gilliam was born in Polk county in 1860 and lived in this county some twenty years of his youth and then went to Washington where he spent the rest of his life. Mr. Gilliam was a noted musician and during his youth played in the Dallas band about 35 years ago. While in Washington he taught vocal music for many years. While a member of the Christian church he was a worker in evangelism. He was accompanied in his travels as an evangelist singer by his daughter who is fully equal to himself in singing.

Mr. Gilliam visited Polk county in March 1915. He also visited his old home about four miles from Falls City which he had not seen for over 30 years. He leaves a wife and seven children who live in Washington. Two sisters also survive him, Mrs. Mary A.
Miller of Falls City; Mrs. L. S.
Frink of Newber. Three brothers W. D. Gilliam of near Dallas, E. E. Gilliam of Salem and Nelson Gilliam of Washington.

DR. PATTON

Dr. P. C. Patton, veterinary surgeon and dentist, graduate, of Dr. Smith's College, Dayton, Ohio, and registered practitioner in the State of California, now at Falls City, Oregon, determines a specific cure for the following diagnosed diseases common among horses in this State and from which, statistics show only one case out of twenty are ever cured in the entire United States.

Dr. Stratton has cured 378 severe cases of this disease having been called in most of these cases from 2 to 48 hours after animal was down.

Dr. Stratton diagnoses this disease as follows and all those having, horses showing symptoms accordingly will do well to secure his services:

When first taken out of the stable and put to work the animal starts off lively; but before he has gone far, he suddenly stops, and, crouches, seems very distressed.
The sweat rolls off him in streams; he blows and heaves at the flanks; he caenot move for a few minutes.
He drops on his hind quarters; can hardly draw them after him.
When made to move, he drops as if his leg was was dislocated or ruken. The pulse is very high, from 60 to 80. In soms cases he gets down, and cannot get up again; but seldom is loss of power at first complete, or sensibility entirely lost. The urine is generally very high colored, black or coffee colored, which is a sure proof of the trouble and it is always voided with difficulty.

Following this the symptoms are similar to those of colic leaving the animal in continual pain. Then follows the almost complete loss of self control, especially of the spine and sciatic nerve, leaving him unable to arise and swelling appears about the spine or lumbar region. Death follows the partial paralysis of the spine unless proper treatment is administered.

A Sermon on Noah

Ma text dis mornin' Breddern, am took from de Holy Writ, wherein we read how Noah made de Ark an' fashioned it; he built de Ark ob gopher wood, an' used a cubit rule, while all de knockers sat aroun' an' cussed him fo' a fool; de local anvil chorus, dey jes' sat aroun' an' spat terbaccer juice upon his wood, and mocked him jes' lak dat, an' sez "Whafoah yo' makin' dis hyah boat foah on dry lan'? Yo'-all a-thinkin' maybe, dat yo'-ll's a sailah man?"

But Noah paid no 'tenshun 'ner allowed he heard dem croaks, but jes' minded his own business, lak all good and proper folks; when dey read de weddah fo' cast—"Mild; containered warm an' fair," ole Noah went on buildin', an' allowed He didn't care.

But one day de weddah shifted; de barometer done fall, an' de rain came down in torrents-rained fo' fo'ty days—dat's all; an' de knockers an' de croakers drowned jes' lak so many rats, which was jes' what dey had comin'-nothin' lef' excep' dey hats'.

An' de moral ob dis story, Breddern, hit am writ quite plain, dat whenevah knockers tell yo' dey ain't gwine ter be no rain, jes' go ahead lak Noah, an' don't let 'em get yo' goat, an' some day you'll have lak Noah, de bigges' show afloat.

G. O. Clement, formerly with the Falls City Lumber Co., store of this city was in town the first of the week.
