THE PARENT TEACHERS ASSOCIATION

The Parent Teachers Association held their regular monthly meeting on Tuesday evening Dec. 7. Many young people as well as parents were in attendance, Mrs. Hopkins called the meeting to order and proceeded with the program. The High School Orchestra entertained the audience with two selections which were nicely rendered. Mrs. Singleton's reading was well received, as the applause which followed indicated. A piano solo by Miss Vicie Benton was appreciated. The speaker of the evening, Miss Rosa Parrot, English Instructor in the Oregon Normal School gave an impromptu talk before the lecture. She suggested that the child learn to read during his leisure time, and asserted that story telling was an essential feature of every teacher's work. She emphasized the need of parents keeping in touch with the children. Miss Parrot told the story of the "Other Man," in a delightful manner, the stereoscopic views made the story strikingly vivid.
