Prof. John Straub of the University of Oregon while here Tuesday took a look at the falls and was much taken with the beauty of them. If the small trees and bushes growing along the river between the falls and the bridge was cut out it would then give an unobstructed view and would add much to the beauty of the scenery.

Tom Hollowell, our gardner, entertained his brother, John Hollowell of Gladstone, Oregon the first of the week. John Hollowell has just returned from an extended trip through the eastern and southern states. He is not much enthused with the great south, especially that part lying south of Memphis, Tennessee. From his conversation we gather that he visited that section where the chief products are crocodiles, pickaninnies and Democrats. He is of the opinion that land is too cheap in Oregon. He believes that times will be better this coming summer, especially in his section where the Hawley Paper mill will increase their force of men 1000.

THE JOKER

Edited by Falls City High School.

Prof. John Staub, Dean of the University of Oregon lectured to the High school Monday afternoon. His subject was "Great American Institutions." Mr. Staub in his very interesting talk reached the heart of more than one boy and girl and left there a resolve to at least finish high school before looking for a job. Mr. Staub is talking for a few minutes to the teachers, training class asked the question: How many in this class are going to attend some higher institution of learning? Thirteen out of fifteen members are planning to attend the U. of O. State Normal or O. A. C.

THE UNUSAL

The unusal has at last arrived in Oregon. The old forty-niner can now stand on the street corner with his feet shoved into the snow, spit tobacco juice onto its pure white surface and play with his chin whiskers while he says in a very sedate manner, "gentlemen this is very unusal for Oregon, very unusal," and an easterner will stand some chance of believing him. Talk about your 68's year, 843 and 98's they pale into insignificance when compared with 34 continuous days of snow and rain in 1916. Its too bad that our forefathers can't live for another hundred year to tell the tale. In our short and billious life covering only a small span of years we can truthfully say that this is certainly very unusal for Oregon. But why worry! The flowers will be blooming in May unusually large blossoms, the unusal June rains will bring golden dollars to the land and July and August will bring on again their Alma Hoppe, a former student of the High School visited school Tuesday and Wednesday.

Miss Edith Montgomery was absent from school on Wednesday attending the wedding of her sister, Clara.

Winfield Johnson has just completed a piano bench for Lloyd Ellis. Windy is getting to be some artistic cabinet maker.

Bynon Murray has been confined at his home for the past week on the account of sickness so far shows but little signs of improvement, we hope however that he will be with us again in the near future.

Lester Gardner was detained at home on Wednesday on account of sickness, high water, snow, rain, hail, sleet and wind, returning to school Thursday morning with a wonderful tale of how he forded four miles of flooded land, braved dangers from falling trees, and avalanche and live telephone charged to the limit with community gossip. Bravo!

MONTGOMERY-VICK WEDDING

Marriage bells rang out merrily keeping time with the music of the falls at the home of Mrs. Esther Montgomery in this city at high noon on Wednesday Feb. 2d, when Miss Clara A. Montgomery and Mr. Benard W. Vick were joined in wedlock. Rev. G. F. Round of Newberg, officiating. The bride's dress was of cream silk with dainty bridal veil and beautiful bouquet of carnations. The groom's dress was conventional black. The beautiful and toothsome dinner perfect in preparation and service would tempt the most delicate appetite, how much more a company having faced the inclemency of this unusual weather to witness the ceremony and partake of the sumptuous meal.

The guests were members of the groom's family, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Vick, Mr. and Mrs. George Vick and family, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Vick and family, Mr. Alfred Vick, all of Salem, and Mrs. G. F. Round of Newberg.

The bridal party left for Salem on the afternoon train where the bride will find a ready furnished bungalow awaiting her.

"THE WILD MAN FROM BORNEO"

Some of the younger set are producing a comedy entitled, "The Man from Borneo" at Wagner's hall this evening.

This production is a clean cut comedy of the best type and no doubt the cast will do full justice to the parts. The characters are taken by Miss Vola Selig, Mrs. Blanche March, Harry Taylor, George March, Lester Bowman, Otto Elkins and Chris Horn.

The play is under the direction of Mr. Christy. Frinks Orchestra will furnish the music both for the performance and the dance that is to follow. Mr. Wagner has refitted the stage with new scenery and there is no reason why the performance should not be highly entertaining and enjoyable.

TIE CONTRACT LET

Clarence Powell of Oregon City is here this week. He has a contract to furnish the Falls City Lumber Company with 10,000 hewed ties for their logging road. The timber is too small to saw and it is necessary to hew it. The ties must be delivered by the 15th of April. This will afford considerable work for the men who can wield a chopping axe or a broad axe.
