NEWS AND COMMENT

MORE ABOUT "RURAL CREDITS."

Details of the so-called "rural credits" measure, now before congress, substantiate the earlier conclusion that it is to be of little or no service to the small farmer. The plan considers only long time loans, running not less than five years, secured by first mortgage, and for not more than 50 per cent of the value of the property pledged. These mortgages are to be the basis for debenture bonds, from the sale of which funds for the loans will be secured. The country will be divided into twelve districts, and the mortgages held by all will be security for the debentures issued by any. Each district bank must have a capital of not less than $500,000, and may issue debentures to an amount not exceeding twenty times its capital. Borrowers must be members of local farm loan associations, and subscribe to the stock thereof to the amount of 5 per cent of the loan sought. These local associations in turn must subscribe to the district bank in not less than 5 per cent of the amount of their own stock. By this process in time the land banks will become wholly co-operative.

It is not clear, however, how this process is to relieve the farming industry of the country from its present predicament as to financing. The interest rate may be lowered, at least in the beginning, but the process of getting money for immediate use is not made any easier. The greatest problem of the industry today is not to secure money for purchase of land, or for the making of extensive improvements, but to carry on operations between the planting and marketing of crops. This need is not contemplated by the federal land bank bill, and will leave the farmer still dealing with the banker in the small town.

The best recommendation the plan has is that it may serve to stimulate co-operation among the farmers, for the purpose of financing their needs. The mutual insurance company has worked out very well, and the mutual loan plan may yet come to be of service. But the federal bank as planned offers nothing to the tenant farmer nor to the farmer who does not own his land clear of incumbrance.—Omaha Bee.

RECIPE FOR GRAY HAIR.

To half pint of water add 1 oz. Bay Rum, a small box of Barbo Compound, and 1/4 oz. of glycerine. Apply to the hair twice a week until it becomes the desired shade. Any druggist can put this up for you can mix it at home at very little cost. Full directions for making and use come in each box of Barbo Compound. It will gradually darken streaked, faded gray hair, and removes dandruff. It is excellent for falling hair and will make harsh hair soft and glossy. It will not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy, and does not rub off.

Whole Family Benefited By Wonderful Remedy

There are many little things to annoy us, under present conditions of life. The hurry, hard work, noise and strain all tell on us and tend to provoke nervousness and irritability. We are frequently so worn out we can neither eat, sleep nor work with any comfort. We are out of line with ourselves and others as well.

A good thing to do under such circumstances is to take something like to relieve the strain on the nerves. Mrs. J. B. Hartsfield, 82 Plum St., Atlanta Ga., writes:

"I have on several occasions been vastly relieved by the use of your medicine, especially the Anti-Pain Pills, which I keep constantly on hand for the use of myself, husband and two sons. Nothing in the world equals them as a headache remedy. Often I am enabled by the use of one or two of the Pills to continue my household when otherwise I would be in bed. My husband joins me in my praise of the Anti-Pain Pills and Nerve."

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills

are relied upon to relieve pain, nervousness and irritability in thousands of households. Of proven merit after twenty years' use, you can have no reason for being longer without them.

At all Druggists, 25 doses 25 cents.
