UNENVIABLE RECORD

According to the Tax Liberator Polk County has had some very extravagant County officials; the office of County School Superintendent is particularly referred to. The schools of the county should not be neglected, but it is difficult to connect some of the expenses that have been incurred by the said office, with the legitimate necessities of the schools.

A Truly Great Man

The Dallas Itemizer sings the praises of Ex-President William Howard Taft as being an ideal type of citizen, the biggest man in the republican party and one of the greatest big men of the nation. Presumably, there is a reason for all things, except a woman's choice of a husband, and one would naturally wonder what caused the Itemizer, a staid democratic paper, to break forth in praise service for a, barely possible, republican presidential candidate. The only solution appears to be that, Taft in reply when questioned as to his views regarding our foreign relations, submarine controversy, and the Mexican trouble, said, "We must stand by the President." If Mr. Taft really believed that Wilson's attitude was correct and endorsed his policy, the reply was well-timed; but if on the other hand, like many others, good democrats too, he believes Wilson is weak, vacillating and wholly incompetent to deal with the situation, his answer would not only show a weakness and lack of moral courage, but depravity of nature that should ostracize him from the haunts of honest men.

"Policy" has been the undoing of many and caused the downfall of nations. How few Senators, public men or influential newspapers of today have the moral courage to stand by their honest conviction of right? How many, down deep in their hearts, believe anyone has the moral or civil right to place the peace of the nation in jeopardy by claiming the right to sail on armed merchantmen of the warring nations? Other countries have warned their citizens and still retain the respect of other nations, and why should the United States be made a wet-nurse for England and her dupes?

The truly great man, the ideal citizen is he who stands for right in the face of all opposition.

Would Handle County's Coin

J. H. (Sli-) Brown was in Falls City Thursday tacking up cards and waylating the unwary. Slim has an ingrowing desire to fondle the county's cash during the next two years and will undertake to persuade the Republicans that he is the proper person. By way of an alibi he states that he has been on a farm during the past twenty-one year and has handled so much hay that he accumulated the hay fever. The danger of contracting the gold fever does not appear to deter him from making the race.

DOLL PARTY

About eighty people gathered at the Wagner hall on Saturday last to take part in the doll party. There were fifty dolls on exhibition of all kinds. Miss Hammond carried the "sweetest" one, though it had only one leg and no arms. Mrs. Dave Courter's and Mrs. Warren's oldest daughters were there as invited guests.

A short program was rendered by the children, after which they marched, played games and eat cookies.

Though the day was very rainy and cold the party was the largest one ever given for children in Falls City.

C. J. Pugh was a Dallas visitor Monday.
