FALLS CITY, OREGON, SATURDAY, JUNE 10, 1916

No. 42.

FALLS CITY LUMBER COMPANY REORGANIZED

Capitalize at $350,000. Will Operate Mill and Store at Falls City. Many Other Improvements Contemplated.

The Falls City Lumber Company has been reorganized with a Capital stock of $350,000 and will be operated under the name of the Falls City Lumber & Logging Company. It is stated that the new company will make extensive improvements and materially increase the output. Work has already begun clearing off the ground for a new pond just east of the old one and the work of grading will begin within ten days. The logging camps are beginning to come to life. Work of laying steel on the extension of the logging road will begin Monday. The company will also operate a store which, so it is reported, will be open by the 1st of July. If the half is true it will not be many weeks ere Falls City will be busy as the proverbial bee and calling for men.

INJURED BY PASSING AUTOMOBILE

Ed Sampson Run Down by an Automobile on Main Street and Leg Broken and Otherwise Badly Bruised.

On Friday night of last week as Ed Sampson was starting to cross the street in front of the old pool hall he was knocked down and run over by an automobile, his right leg broken above the ankle, a cut about the head and otherwise badly bruised. The auto was owned by Robert Wonderly, just recently purchased, and was driven by his son, Emerson who was just learning. Charlie Hartung, agent for the machine was with young Wonderly at the time of the accident. Mr. Sampson is reported to be getting along very nicely, but bones of men having passed the meridian of life do not knit so readily as the young, and it is likely that it will be a long time before he recovers entirely.

IN MEMORIAM.

Henry W. Bancroft was born in New York August 8, 1846. Enlisted June 1863 in the Union army and served six months, being discharged Feb. 1864; re-enlisted Aug. 20 of same year and served until June 3, 1865.

At the close of the war he settled in Ohio and later moved to Michigan and resided there for several years, coming to Oregon in 1898. He departed this life June 1, 1916. He leaves a wife and four daughters: Mrs. Dora Skidmore of Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. Callie Heller, Paulding county, Ohio; Mrs. Edna Geiger of Portland, Ore.; Mrs. Thersa Tichenor of this city; and four brothers: Absalom Bancroft, Toledo, Ohio; John Bancroft, Los Angeles, Cal.; Daniel Bancroft, Evart, Mich.; Wilfred Bancroft of this city; and three sisters: Mrs. Sarah Ury, Defiance, O.; Mrs. Clara Inman, Portland, Ore.; Mrs. Mary Crossland, Defiance, O.; and six grandchildren and one great grandchild.

The "neutral" press of the United States have realized considerable difficulty in persuading themselves that England was really licked in the recent naval battle. They have finally consoled themselves by saying that Germany has lied about her losses. That is probable, and it is also probable that England has stretched the truth in some of her details.

WILL ENFORCE SPEED LAW

City Marshal Pat Murphy says that he will begin to enforce the speed law, and that all parties who are exceeding the speed limit will be arrested, regardless of who's who. Also the shooting of fire crackers, pistols, air guns and other nuisances of that kind will also be looked after and a record will be made on the police court ledger of fines.

The speed law has been violated by automobile drivers for some time and Mr. Murphy has decided that it is about time to call a halt. It has been no uncommon thing for automobiles to go buzzing through the Main street at 25 miles an hour, making it dangerous to people crossing the street.

The shooting of firecrackers and air guns in certain parts of the town has been a nuisance for some time, but no complaint has been made, and no official heed has been given.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Sunday June 4th being Mrs. Lillie Byerly's birthday she invited a few of her's and Mr. Byerly's relatives to spend the day with them. A bonteous repast was served at noon and an enjoyable time was had by all. There were four generations represented among the guests. She received many nice presents. The invited guests: Mrs. A. Byerly, Mrs. Bell Blake, Miss Maud Byerly and Helen Blake of Dallas, Mrs. Rose, Sam Hastings and wife, Vera and Opal Hastings, Russ Ostrander, Leroy Byerly and wife, Glen Byerly and wife and children Edna and Nettie, Mrs. Herbert Byerly and little daughter Margarette, Mrs. Edna Turner, Mrs. Nan Hedgepath and children Homer and Wellen of Air-lie and Walter Thrasher of this city.

PLEASANT SOCIAL AFFAIR.

One of the most pleasant occasions of the season took place at Selig's hall Tuesday evening. The occasion being an entertainment given by Miss Bertha Frink and Mrs. Netta Gilbert for the Art Club and its invited guests. Forty people were present and all enjoyed the evening playing games and dancing, until a late hour, when a supper was served.

The County Republican Central Committee met in Dallas last Saturday to plan to do battle to the Democrats in the coming affray. J. C. Talbot was elected as chairman and J. C. Hayter of Dallas as secretary. It is intended to relieve all Democratic office holders in the county from active duty and place Republicans in their stead. Judging from the registration reports this should not be difficult to do. There is no excuse for a Republican voting for a Democrat just because he is a good fellow, when there is an equally good Republican candidate for the office.

That misfortune never comes singly has been verified in the recent English disasters. Following closely upon their naval defeat comes the greatest blow, the loss of Lord Ketchener, the mainstay of the British empire. The signal defeat of her navy in the North Sea has given her most ardent admirers a creepy feeling that England's proud boast of being the mistress of the sea would be hotly contested. The loss at this time of Lord Ketchener gives her a setback from which it will require much effort to rally.

Miss Edith Johnson has gone to Portland.

COUNCIL MEETING

City Dads Hold High Carnival Monday Night. Four Members of Dallas Council in Attendance. Make Deal for Interest in Rock Quarry.

CITY OBJECTS TO BEING DOG-KILLER

Boy Scout Building Will Be Remodeled and Made Habitable for Future Sessions of Aldermanic Body.

The city council met Monday night in regular monthly meeting with Mayor Griffin, Auditor McPherrin, Attorney Tooze, Councilmen, Hopkins, Singleton, Brentner and Selig present. The various bills were read and disposed of. City Marshal Murphy had a bill for the funeral expenses of two dogs, whereat Selig demurred and wanted some information in regard to the obsequies. Pat explained that he had executed them at the request of the owners and not by the order of a drum-head court marshal; one being vicious and the other crippled. It was decided that there might be some responsibility in regard to the vicious dog, but there was objections to bearing the expenses of the crippled one. M. L. Thompson volunteered to pay the expense of the crippled dog as his car had run over it.

There has been some difference in opinion as to whether the fees collected by the city marshal for impounding stock should be paid into the city treasury or be concealed about the person of the city marshal. It was found by careful reading a late ordinance, that the city marshal was entitled to such fees.

The water board reported that the water extension from Teal Creek was completed and that the pond was full and overflowing.

Four members of the Dallas city council met with the city council to enter into some arrangement whereby the city of Dallas could obtain rock for street purposes. The Falls City council proposed to sell them an undivided one-half interest in the quarry for $500. This appeared to meet with the approval of the members of the Dallas council and it is probable that such deal will be made at an early date.

The granting an electric light franchise was deferred and Monday, June 12 set aside for the consideration of that and any other question that might arise.

C. L. Hopkins and I. G. Singleton were authorized to remodel the Boy Scout building and make it habitable for future meetings of the aldermanic body.

At the May council meeting a motion was made to refund $3 license collected from the Willamette Quartette for putting on a show at Wagner's hall. The maker of the motion forgot to designate to whom payment should be made and consequently no warrant was drawn. At this meeting a motion was made that the $3 in question be refunded to Rev. Warren. The ordinance regulating to such concerts was again discussed and an opinion rendered that the city was acting within its rights in assessing such license and on vote the motion was lost.

Rev. Warren was a Black Rock visitor Friday.

Miss Gwendolyn Hooker of Dallas is visiting here.

Misses Cleo and Martha Walker of Salem are visiting at the Reese home this week.

ERNEST F. BRYANT.

Ernest F. Bryant, oldest son of A. M. and Susan C. Bryant was born in Green Castle, Indiana, on June 30, 1866, died in Portland, Oregon, June 4, 1916 at the age of 50 years, four months and five days. Funeral services were held at the M. E. Church in this city Wednesday afternoon and interment in the City cemetery. His parents moved from Indiana to Nebraska when he was a mere child and he received his education there.

At the age of 18 years he began work in a bank and for 30 years he was thus engaged. For 19 years he was head bookkeeper in the First National Bank at Corvallis, Oregon, where he has been until a few months ago. Close application and a long continuous service undermined his health until it became necessary for him to give up his life work. He leaves a mother, Mrs. Susan Bryant, and sister, Mrs. Hoag at Lentz, Ore., brother Wm. C. Bryant of Mora, Ore., and sister, Mrs. J. D. Moyer of this city. All were present at the funeral.

SOMETHING IN A NAME.

E. K. Piasecki, Democratic candidate for District Attorney has concluded that there is something in a name, and as he has one that causes people to set up and take notice, and for fear that someone might suspicion that he is a foreign nobleman or a spy, has devoted considerable space in the Dallas Itemizer to inform the electorate that it was acquired in an honest and praiseworthy manner. However unfortunate it may be to bear a foreign name in these troublous times he is clearly innocent. However, there is yet another name that he bears that was acquired by his own volition that is likely to cause him much grief and ultimately his defeat at the polls in November, and that is the name, Democrat.

E. R. Lewis and wife have returned to Falls City.

A. C. Fleming and family moved to Tillamook this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Courter of Salem visited friends here this week.

Elliott Savage of Salem was in this city Thursday transacting business.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Tetherow, Miss Barbara Gilbert and Miss Hammond attended the Farmers Union at Bridgeport Tuesday evening.
